versus

Messrs. Clive Mills Co., Ltd., 43/1, Garden Reach Road, Calcutta ... Opposite party.

Present for the workman: None.

Present for the Company: Shri N. M. Das Gupta, Advocate.

AWARD

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by workman Shri Narendra Nath Banerjee. He was a markman in the Mill of the opposite party Company. He alleged that during the pendency of an adjudication proceeding in respect of an industrial dispute between the opposite party Company and their workmen, the opposite party Company after giving him charge-sheet did not permit him to resume his duties and thus contravened the provisions of section 33.

Opposite party maintained that the applicant was charge-sheeted on 17th December 1957 for commission of gross misconduct and after receipt of his explanation after long time and in view of the fact that he was caught red-handed for misconduct complained of, the management considering the evidence of the Jamadar and the Durwan who caught him red-handed, dismissed the applicant on 1st April 1957 under the provisions of the Company's standing orders immediately after receipt of his explanation. The management was, therefore, justified in dismissing him. Besides it was also pleaded that the application under section 33A should have been made, if any, before the First Tribunal before which the proceedings were at the time pending.

Decision

On the date of hearing on 6th December 1958, the opposite party was ready through its Advocate. The petitioner did not take step. In the circumstances, the complaint is rejected for default.

It is awarded accordingly.

ORDER

No. 5454-I.R./D/11L-250/56.—22nd December 1958.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 132-I.R./IR/11L-250/56, dated the 11th January 1958, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Saturday Club Ltd., 7 Wood Street, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Saturday Club Ltd. Employees' Association, Servants' Quarters, 7 Wood Street, Calcutta, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order, being matters specified in the second and the third schedules to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal for adjudication;

And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the said Industrial Tribunal Shri S. M. Hannif, a workman of the said Company, made a complaint in writing to the said Industrial Tribunal against the said Company alleging that the said Company had discharged the said workman concerned in such dispute;

And whereas in exercise of the powers conferred by section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the said Industrial Tribunal has adjudicated upon the said complaint and submitted its award to the State Government;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an application under section 33A filed by Shri S. M. Hannif against the Saturday Club Ltd., 7 Wood Street, Calcutta-16, in connection with the Government order No. 132-I.R., dated 11th January 1958. (Case No. 32/58 under section 33A.)

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the workman: None.

For the Company: Shri J. K. Ghosh, Advocate.

AWARD

S. M. Hannif, an employee of the Saturday Club Ltd., filed a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act alleging that he was discharged without any enquiry and without payment of his dues, and that the Company violated the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. He was accordingly entitled to proper relief in the case. The complaint was made against Mr. G. S. Green, the Secretary of the Club, and not against the Club. The Club contests on merits as also on technical grounds. It contends that the complaint is defective for it is made against the Secretary of the Club, and not against the Club, and that there was no violation or the contravention of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. Heard Shri J. K. Ghosh, Advocate, on behalf of the Club. The complainant and his lawyer are absent. The complaint was filed against the Secretary of the Club and not against the Club itself. It is, therefore, defective in form. It appears that the Club informed the Tribunal of the facts of his dismissal when the order was passed. This was done in the belief that it was sufficient compliance with the provision of law. Later, on proper legal advice, the Club filed an application under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act for approval of this Tribunal of the order of discharge passed against the complainant. This was done shortly after the complaint was filed, and in the circumstance the delay does not appear to be unreasonable or unduly long. In any case, there has not been any violation of provision of law of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act in discharging the complainant. That being so, the complaint is not legally maintainable. It fails. The Club, however, undertakes to pay one month's wages in addition to complainant's normal dues, if any.

And whereas the said First Labour Court has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

For the Union: Shri Lenin Roy, Advocate.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 565-I.R./IR/11L-67/58, dated 14th February 1958, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), an industrial dispute between Messrs. Shree Harihar Dal Mills, 100/1 Grand Trunk Road (South), Howrah, and their workmen represented by Barabazar Jamadar Sangha, 90 Lower Chitpore Road, Calcutta-7, regarding matters specified in the second schedule, to this Court, for adjudication.

Schedule.

Whether the dismissal of Shri Sew Sagar Sukla is justified? To what relief is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged, illegal dismissal of one Shri Sew Sagar Sukla, previously employed as a jamadar under Messrs. Shree Harihar Dal Mills (hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity).

The Union's case in brief is that the workman was dismissed from his service on and from 29th July 1957 without any reason, charge-sheet or enquiry whatsover. The Union therefore seeks his reinstatement, together with his outstanding wages for one month and 2 days, and compensation for the period of his unemployment.

The Company, on the other hand, denies the allegations of wrongful dismissal of the workman, and affirms that the workman went on leave without pay with effect from 2nd May 1957 to 1st June 1957, but thereafter did not turn up for duty. Thus the workman was guilty of misconduct of unauthorised absence of duty. Company's further allegation is that the workman did not repay the sum of Rs. 234 taken by him as advance from the Company for which the Company has filed a civil suit in the Third Court of the Munsif, Howrah.

This reference was received in this Court on 21st February 1958, and 3rd December 1958 was fixed for hearing by this Court's order No. 7, dated 16th June 1958. On this occasion, however, the Company put in a petition for adjournment stating that one Shri Jugal Kishore Agarwalla, Partner of the Company, was obliged to go home to attend his aged father during his illness. This prayer is not supported by any medical certificate in respect of the plea of illness. As such, the prayer was rejected as frivolous and the case was taken up.

The workman has proved his case and there is no cross-examination, nor is there any evidence on the side of the Company to the contrary. In the circumstances, there is nothing to shake the evidence of the workman. The workman has stated that he was dismissed all on a sudden on 29th July 1957 without any charge-sheet, enquiry or reason whatsoever, and that his wages for the month of June 1957 and for two days of July 1957 are outstanding. His monthly wages are stated to be Rs. 80, plus Rs. 4 as extra allowance. So, by way of his outstanding wages, he is entitled to Rs. 80, plus Rs. 4 as extra allowance for the month of June 1957, and Rs. 5.16 nP. for 2 days of July 1957 following.

As regards his prayer for reinstatement, in the circumstances of this case, there is nothing to deny him the relief of reinstatement and the same cannot therefore be rejected.

As regards his prayer for wages for the period of unemployment, I think, fairly and reasonably, he may be granted at least 3 months' wages for the entire period of his unemployment which extends to about 1 year and 6 months.

Thus, in all, he is entitled to Rs. 84 x 3 = Rs. 252, plus, Rs 84 for the month of June 1957, plus, Rs. 5.16 nP. for two days of July 1957, all told, Rs. 341.16 nP., and the Company is also directed to reinstate him if he reports for duty within a week of the publication of the award.

To sum up, the Company is accordingly directed to reinstate the workman in his previous job and pay him Rs. 341.16 nP. within a month of the publication of the award. The continuity of his service will be treated as unbroken.

This is my award.

Hindusthan Cables, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order, being matters specified in the second and the third schedules to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred to the Third Industrial Tribunal for adjudication;

versus

Messrs. Behar Potteries Ltd., Rupnarayanpur, P. O. Hindusthan Cables, Dist. Burdwan .. Opposite party.

Present for the Complainant: Shri Ram Chandra himself.

Present for the Company: Shri Kirpal Singh, Manager of the Company.

AWARD

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by workman Shri Ram Chandra. He was a Kiln Fireman under the opposite party. He alleged that during the pendency of adjudication proceedings in respect of an industrial dispute between the opposite party and their workmen before this Tribunal, the opposite party first suspended him and ultimately dismissed him without permission from the tribunal and thus it contravened the provisions of section 33.

The opposite party denied having contravened the provisions of section 33 and pleaded that after charge-sheet the workman was suspended and dismissed and thereafter an application under section 33 was made for approval of the said action. It was thus said that there was no contravention of the provisions of section 33.

Decision

The case was first fixed for hearing on 22nd November 1958. On that date neither party was present. Then the petitioner was asked to show cause on 4th December 1958 why the application under section 33 should not be dismissed. The petitioner did not show cause or take any step on 4th December 1958. In the circumstances, the complaint under section 33A is dismissed for non-prosecution.

It is awarded accordingly.

AWARD

On 20th August 1958 the Company filed a petition informing the tribunal that it had closed down its factory completely on 10th July 1958, after the reference. It contended that in the above circumstances the reference of the issues involving economic demands had become infructuous. The Unions, which represented the workmen in this case, were asked to file a reply to company's petition by affidavit, if any, on the 28th August next, and the hearing date was fixed on the 29th. No affidavit was filed on behalf of the Unions. Shri Madan Saha, Advocate on behalf of the Workers' Union, informed the tribunal that there was no outstanding dispute between the parties so far as his Union was concerned. He did not contest the fact of closure mentioned in the petition by the Company. Shri N. Roy, Advocate on behalf of the other Union, said that he had no instruction from the Secretary or from the workmen of his Union. Both workmen and Secretary were absent. No affidavit regarding the fact of closure was filed. Heard Shri K. P. Mukherjee on behalf of the Company and the learned Advocates for the Unions. Shri Mukherjee informed that not only the factory was closed for good but the workmen had received all dues in full and final settlement of their claims after the closure. He said that the reference had now become infructuous for this purpose. In my opinion, the reference has become infructuous now. There is no dispute between the parties, and the case is disposed of.

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged dismissal of 13 workmen previously in the employment of Messrs. Lily Biscuit Company Private Ltd. and their allied concerns, viz., Messrs. Sett Brothers, Messrs. P. Sett & Co. Private Ltd., Messrs. Lily Barley Mills Private Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity).

The Union's case, in brief, lies within a narrow compass as follows:—

The Company is a flourishing concern manufacturing biscuits, barley, etc., in the city of Calcutta. As the Union presented a charter of demands to the Company on behalf of the workmen, the Union went out of Company's favour and the Company was all out to crush the Union and proceeded to victimise the workmen who took active part in the formation of the Union. The Company in 1952 retrenched 52 workmen and there was an award for enhancement of wages which the Company neglected to implement. The Company thus in its crusade against the workmen victimised the workmen concern on false charges. The workmen concerned put in varying periods of long service under the Company which was completely ignored and the Company framed false charges against the workmen concerned, and thus made a show of enquiry wherein these workmen were denied facilities to defend themselves, and thus the principles of natural justice were completely violated by the Company. The Union therefore seeks reinstatement of the victimised workmen concerned together with their back wages for the period of their unemployment. The cases of these workmen in necessary details will be taken up in due course.

The Company, in its written statement, denies the material allegations in the written statement of the Union, and contends in substance that these workmen were found guilty of the charges framed against them on enquiries wherein the workmen were given proper and reasonable facilities to defend themselves. It is further affirmed that the Company did not victimise them or pursue any unfair labour policy, nor are the decisions reached at the domestic enquiries vitiated by any element of victimisation, mala fides, unfair labour practice, or perverse finding, or any basic error on facts. Some of the workmen were dismissed on grounds of unauthorized absence according to provision of Standing Orders of the Company. The Company therefore resists the prayers of these workmen.

Decision

From the evidence recorded in this Court and also having regard to the records of domestic enquiries held by the Company, it would appear that the cases of serials 1 to 4 in the Order of Reference may be grouped together, similarly the cases of serials 7 and 8, and other workmen stand by themselves.

I take up the cases of 1, 2, 3 and 4 in one group. So far as their cases are concerned, workmen serials 1, 2 and 3 have deposed in this case. The Company has produced two charge-sheets Ext. A, dated 30th August 1954 and Ext. A1, dated 8th September 1954, against these four workmen. In the charge-sheet Ext. A, the charge in brief is one of obstruction of coolies under contractors employed for removing biscuit tins from the packing department to stores as usual and there is a further reference that these four workmen also tried previously to obstruct the coolies similarly and behaved in a very disorderly manner. As a security measure these 4 workmen were suspended vide Annexure A, charge-sheet, dated 7th September 1954. Exhibit 1 is the workmen's reply to that charge-sheet, dated 30th August 1954, wherein the Union has accused the Company of victimising the 52 workmen by the management after the formation of the Union. It is further stated in their reply that the Company employed contractors' coolies also in the production department knowing full well that the retrenched workmen were still willing to do the same job. In their explanation Ext. 1(a), dated 9th September 1954, the workmen made a grievance that the contractors' coolies had been employed to work inside the factory perhaps to fill up the vacuum caused by the retrenchment of 52 workmen. In the enquiry held on 3rd September 1954 into the charge-sheet, dated 30th August 1954, Annexure C1 which was conducted by Shri K. L. Das, Labour Officer, it would appear that these workmen were individually confronted with the charge and they admitted that they all objected to the contractors' coolies removing the packed biscuit tins from the factory to the stores and they further maintained that they would also obstruct in future. The Company as a result of the enquiry found these workmen guilty and ordered that they had no right to interfere with the internal management in the way they did, and warned them of disciplinary action in the event of recurrence of such obstruction in future On 8th September 1954 there was the further charge against these self-same four workmen (Ext. A1) and the charge is as follows:—

"Further to our letter, dated the 7th instant you are charged for having committed as under:—

1. On 6th September 1954, you with other workers in a concerted plan obstructed and/or prevented the lorry coolies in their work from carrying out packed biscuit tins out of the factory premises for delivery.
2. You left your places of work without authorisation and created obstruction stated in paragraph (1).
3. When Production Director asked you not to do the same and to cause obstruction in the Company's work, you defying his order continued to do the same and to create obstruction and further surrounded him, behaved disorderly with him and even attempted to assault him, which you could not do for the immediate intervention of the Factory Manager.

You are accordingly guilty of gross misconduct under clauses (a), (f), (h) of the Company's Standing Order and also of subversion of discipline.

You are therefore asked to show cause why you will not be dismissed from service."

Exhibit 1(a) is the explanation offered by these four workmen to the charge-sheet, dated 8th September 1954. It will appear that these workmen denied the charges levelled against them and their main grievance in substance was that the Company employed contractors' coolies to work inside the factory just to fill up the vaccum created by the retrenchment of 52 heads which was nothing short of unfair labour practice. This was followed by an enquiry. The enquiry into these charges was held on 13th October 1954. The proceedings of enquiry are marked Annexure C in this case. The statements of Mr. Samuel, Manager, Mr. Jacob, Supervisor, were recorded in this case, as also of Raghunath, Jogeswar, Basudeo and Ram Sevak, Parameswar, Ram Lakhan, Doulat. A perusal of their statements, to say briefly, will go to prove the charges against them. The evidence further points to the fact that these workmen shouted and behaved very indecently with the Production Manager, and stopped the lorry coolies employed in removing the packed biscuit tins from the factory to the lorry and were responsible for a good deal of chaos and confusion in their work. There is an endorsement at the end of this proceeding that the workmen were afforded opportunities to cross-examine the witnesses but they declined, nor did they adduce any evidence on their behalf. If these workmen being apprised of the enquiry and after attending the same did not avail of the opportunities afforded the workmen should thank themselves and take the consequences, and no blame attaches to the Company in the circumstances. In this behalf, the ruling reported in 1957 L.L.J., (II), page 395 (Upper Ganges Electric Employees' Union and Upper Ganges Valley Electric Suppy Company Ltd.) at page 405 lefthand column at the bottom, may be referred to. Therefore the Union cannot contend with any show of reason that the Company violated the principles of natural justice in this case. The Company, as it appears from record on receipt of workmen's explanation, held an enquiry which was attended by them and found them guilty under clauses (a), (f) and (h) of the Standing Orders of the Company. Thus by applying the test laid down in the Allahabad High Court case of Radha Raman Bajpai and others and Labour Appellate Tribunal of India and others reported in 1957 L.L.J., II, page 15 (at page 16), the Court considers (1) that the workmen were found guilty of misconduct by the employer, (2) that the correct procedure was followed in arriving at the finding and (3) that the misconduct could be visited with dismissal and as the punishment could not be regarded as arbitrary or unauthorized by the Company's standing orders, the same cannot be interfered with. Having regard to the above ruling the Court could rightly refuse to consider the evidence adduced in Court. Still I would observe that Madan (P.W. 1.) admitted in his cross-examination that coolies carry goods from stores to lorry and the workmen could not produce any witness who carried finished products to lorries. If the Company in 1954 employed lorry coolies in having finished goods carried to stores from the factory, instead of employing the retrenched men of 1952, the workmen cannot make a legitimate grievance of it, because this is an internal management with which the Union cannot interfere. The Company has got every right to rationalise and economise its establishment expenses. Fifty-two workmen employed in Production Department were not employed in carrying finished products from factories. It is common ground that 52 men were discharged in 1952 as Company's business declined and a new machine was installed at the factory which curtailed the labour. The difference on the retrenchment in 1952 of 52 men was made up and the Union, it appears, tried to rip open the old sores and threw various obstacles in the way of contractors' coolies carrying the finished products from factory to the stores and then to lorries. It may be stated that P. Sett & Company is Company's contractors for carrying purposes, vide Company's resolution, dated 29th November 1947, and bills of payment (Ext. F) series to P. Sett & Co. The Company has got the common law right to discharge or dismiss an employee which is popularly known as the right to hire and fire, but there are certain statutory restrictions which may be enumerated as follows:— (1) that an industrial worker must be placed in such a position that the security of his service may not depend upon the caprice or arbitrary will of the employer, (2) that industrial peace should be maintained, (3) that industry should be efficiently managed [vide the case of Lipton Ltd., reported in 1956 L.L.J., Vol. (1), page 319]. As is well known, the decision of the Company at a domestic enquiry is liable to be interfered with only if—

(i) there is want of bona fides, or

(ii) it is a case of victimisation or unfair labour practice or violation of the principles of natural justice, or

(iii) there is basic error on facts, or

(iv) there has been a perverse finding on the materials.

The decision of the management is also liable to be reversed if it is held by the Court that the punishment is so unjust that remedy is called for in the interests of justice. The view taken by the Company in this case as the result of the enquiry was a possible view and the Court will not be justified in interfering with the decision of the management. If the Company with a view to rationalise employed contractors' men in the work objected to by the Union, I do not think the Company can be blamed. Thus on a very careful consideration of the charges, workmens' replies and the enquiry proceedings, I am unable to say that the Company's decision is vitiated by any of the aforesaid vitiating elements. The view taken by the Company at this enquiries was a possible view and I do not think the Court is competent to interfere with it. In the circumstances, these workmen must be found to deserve no relief. This disposes of the case of serials 1, 2, 3 and 4 in the Order of Reference.

Next, I take up the cases of Dandasi and Apalswami, serials 7 and 8. The charges against them will appear from Exts. A7 and A8 and in short they are that on 9th November 1956 they left their places of work at about 1 p.m. and were found fighting with each other, and Dandasi caught the supervisor Shri Subhas Chandra Dey by the neck. It appears that Dandasi admitted to have caught the said Supervisor by the neck and Apalswami also admitted that he caught Dandasi by neck and snatched the jute from him. Some witnesses, viz., Basudeb, Parameswar also proved the unhappy incident. The proceedings of enquiry in this connexion may be referred to and the Company rightly found them guilty of misconduct under clause 15(i)(a) and (i)(f) of the Standing Orders and dismissed them with effect from 9th November 1956, the date of suspension (vide orders Exts. K-K1). A very careful perusal of the proceedings in this case convinces one that the enquiry was properly conducted and the workmen were given due facilities and the finding of the Company is not vitiated by any of the aforesaid vitiating elements. The Court is therefore not inclined to interfere with the possible view taken by the Company and the punishment imposed upon them. This disposes of the cases of serials 7 and 8.

Then, I proceed to take up the case of serial 5, Shri Mahadeo Singh. There are several charges against this Mahadeo Singh. It is common ground that once Shri Mahadeo Singh previously employed as Cash-durwan was dismissed on certain charges and then his case went up to the Appellate Tribunal and he was directed to be reinstated with back wages, but the Company did not care to implement that award and this workman appealed and at the appellate stage there was a compromise and the Company agreed to give him an alternative job and the Company, according to the terms of the agreement, offered him an alternative job in the stores where he worked for more than two months. Thereafter the Union contends that he was driven out, whereas the Company contends that he was reinstated as directed by the Appellate Tribunal, but as the Head Durwan refused to continue as surety for him (which fact was intimated to the Union through a letter, Ext. D, dated 11th June 1954—vide also the letter, Ext. D1, dated 15th May 1954, to Mahadeo), his services were terminated and he went to the Appellate Tribunal before which all letters Ext. C1 series were submitted and he was given an alternative job but he did not do whatever duty as shown in duty book (Ext. E) was given to him, so he was discharged on enquiry. This accounts for several charges drawn up against him which, however, he denied. The charges against Mahadeb Singh will appear from Exts. A5, dated 19th October 1954, for refusing to clear the store room and arrange the papers, Ext. A6, dated 23rd November 1954, for refusing to sign the duty book, not giving report of his daily work, flat refusal to carry out whatever duty was given to him, his absence from his duty post on 23rd November 1954 at about 9-45 a.m., etc. The workman in his replies Ext. 1(c) and (d) denied the charges in the charge-sheet of 19th October 1954 and 23rd November 1954. There are also several complaints against him by Gourhari Pal, P.B. Ash, for idling away his time. From the enquiry report it would appear that the workman did not give any evidence at the enquiry held on 27th November 1954. The Company by its order, dated 18th December 1954, carefully enquired into the charges and decided to dismiss him with effect from 20th December 1954, the date of his suspension.

As the decision of the Company is a possible view and not vitiated by any vitiating element the Court cannot interfere with the finding of the Company and the punishment imposed upon him.

Next, I take the case of Shri Kalijoy Biswas, serial 6, employed as an electrician in the Company, who was charged with mis-handing a machine worth over Rs. 27,000 roughly, the repairing of which cost the Company more than Rs. 900. The charge is Ext. A4 of 25th January 1955 for wrongly handling the valuable machine by switching on the downward movement of the beater in spite of Sachin Babu's direction to the contrary and Sagarat Kahar's attempt to stop the machine and thus committed an act of sabotage in respect of the Vertical Mixer, and his reply (Ext. B) is a denial of the same and a contention that it was an accident pure and simple. The proceedings of enquiry may be referred to. Kalijoy attended the enquiry held on 1st February 1955. At this enquiry the statement of Sachindra Nath Sett, Mati Shaw, Daulat Koiri, Deonandan Shaw and Showgarat Singh were recorded. The Labour Officer found that it was no case of accident but that it was a case of gross negligence and carelessness and irresponsibility as he started further downward motion of the machine from its normal position which was none of his business. The Union has tried its level best to exonerate Kalijoy and to shift the blame on to Moti, and it was argued that the main switch should have been kept off while Kalijoy was handling the other switches, but as this was not done, the valuable machine was burnt. The Union calls this an accident but really speaking, Kalijoy being an expert electrician should have taken due precaution before handling the valuable machine and certainly he mishandled the machine and thereby damaged it involving the Company in loss, and thus the charge of gross negligence must be said to have been brought home to him. It appears from the proceedings of the enquiry that the Company held a due enquiry wherein the statements of Sachin Babu, Sagarat Kahar, Deonandan Shaw, Douiāt Koiri, Mati Shaw (mix-man) were recorded and the Company found him guilty and decided to discharge him on payment of discharge benefit with effect from 25th January 1955 (the date of his suspension) after obtaining the approval of the Appellate Tribunal, but as the Appellate Tribunal since became functus officio, no permission was taken and the workman was discharged. It is seriously contended for the Union that he was not allowed to cross-examine the witnesses for the Company at the enquiry. Of course there is nothing in the proceedings to indicate that he was given opportunities for cross-examining the witnesses, but in any case, no such grievance was made by the workman during the enquiry and there is no proof of prejudice caused to the workman. Even apart from the proceedings of the enquiry, I am satisfied on the evidence on record that the workman failed in taking all possible precautions and thus he was responsible for the damage caused to the valuable machine which involved the Company in serious pecuniary loss for repair of the machine and for stoppage of production. I am therefore unable to interfere with the finding of the Company at the domestic enquiry and the punishment meted out to him. The Company lost faith in Kalijoy and rightly discharged him.

As regards serial 9, Shri Nokaiya, he was charge-sheeted on 10th February 1956 (Ext. D4) for go-slow tactics coupled with warnings for not less than 16 times. He packed on an average 9 sample cases of barley tins, whereas other workers did 12 cases. He did not offer any explanation to the charge and the Company after due enquiry with reference to the chart of work (Ext. D3 in the letter to Assistant Labour Commissioner) found him guilty of the charge against him, and therefore he was rightly dismissed by the Company with effect from 11th February 1956. Go-slow tactics is a very insidious process which decreases production and imperils the existence of the industry, and therefore the punishment in this case cannot be interfered with. It may be stated that Nokaiya did not care to give his deposition in this Court, so as to challenge the finding of the Company. Thus the Court cannot interfere with the finding of the Company, nor with the punishment imposed on him.

Next comes Amar Chakravorty, serial 10. On a reference to Ext. A2 the charge-sheet against him, it appears that the charges against him were for (1) his refusal to attend the enquiry in spite of repeated directions, (2) his inciting other workers to adopt go-slow tactics, (3) his unsatisfactory work and (4) refusal to carry out order of the factory Manager when he was asked to supply certain information regarding his work and his most unmannerly behaviour with him. He was further charged with threatening to assault the durwan who refused to act at his instance. All these charges were against Amar who was asked to attend the enquiry positively on 26th April 1955 at 2-30 p.m. His reply to the charge is Ext. 1(b) wherein he has made a grievance of the ill treatment accorded to him by the factory Manager Shri Das Gupta whose displeasure, he said, he incurred and fell off his grace and was thus filthily abused by him. It appears that there were two further charges in regard to production and mixing chart resulting in surplus breads. Amar was asked to attend the enquiry on 23rd April 1955 which the workman could not attend as per his letter, dated 21st April 1955, but there is no reason assigned for his inability to attend the enquiry. The Company then again gave him a further chance to attend the enquiry (vide letter, dated 23rd April 1955 on 26th April 1955). The Company then passed orders as per Ext. O wherein the Company states that the charges against him were enquired into and he was found guilty under clause 17(i), sub-clauses (a), (f), (g) and (j) and the Company offered him as generous gesture retrenchment benefit and he was asked to collect his dues on 7th May 1955 between 2 and 4 p.m. Thus it appears that the enquiry was not attended by the workman and it may be said that the workman did not avail himself of the opportunities offered to him in his behalf. In the circumstances, there is no material before this Court to enable it to hold that the finding of the Company was not a possible view. Furthermore, there is nothing to prove that there was any mala fide intention on the part of the Company, nor is there anything to indicate that the Company pursued any unfair labour practice and thus victimised the workman by committing a basic error on facts. The Company offered him retrenchment benefit. Therefore the court is unable to interfere with the punishment of discharge imposed upon him. This disposes of the case of Amar Chakravorty.

The case of serial 11, Shri Ram Sagar Singh is not pressed on behalf of the Union.

As regards serial 12, it appears that the workmen was absent without notice and therefore the Company terminated the service under clause 15(i)(k) of the Standing Order. Exhibits L-L1 may be referred to in this connexion. Company's letters to Saha Alam (Ext. L), dated 14th January 1955, states that Saha Alam was absenting himself since 11th instant without leave or information and therefore he was asked to show cause. Added to that is the Company's letter Ext. L1, dated 26th March 1955, wherein the charges were that he again absented himself from 22nd March 1955 to 26th March 1955, and he was asked to show cause why he should not be dismissed. Other letters are marked as Exts. L3-9 and L11, wherein he was charged with absenting himself on various dates in spite of warnings issued to him and undertaking given by him not to be guilty of such unauthorised absence in future. His replies to this charge may be found in Exts. M-M1. It is interesting to note that in its explanation Ext. M, he gave an undertaking on 18th January 1955 that he would not be absent within 3 months of that date and agreed to be dismissed from service without any notice and objection on his part if he were found guilty of such unauthorised absence in future, but still he committed the same misconduct which he tried to explain away once by saying that his presence was required in his village home to attend an attestation camp. Really speaking, it is very difficult for the Company to carry on with a workman of this type who is found habitually guilty of such unauthorised repeated absence. In the circumstances, the dismissal of this workman cannot but be found to be justified. The Company cannot wait indefinitely for this workman. This view is laid down in 1957 L.L.J., I, page 234, and 1958 L.L.J., I, pages 260 and 372, which need not be reiterated here.

Last of all, I take up the case of serial 13, Shri Ershad. It appears from Exts. G-G2 that the Company approached the Appellate Tribunal for permission to retrench 51 workmen of whom No. 20 is Md. Ershad Ali on the ground of considerable fall in the sale of bread. During the pendency of the proceedings before the Appellate Tribunal the same became functus officio. The cause for retrenchment is stated as fall in production. This is a matter connected with internal administration of the Company. As already said the Company has got every right to rationalise the management and economise its expenses. With that end in view the Company retrenched Ershad Ali and the Court cannot interfere with it.

To sum up, once more I would briefly refer to the contentions urged on behalf of the Company. The sheet-anchor of the contention of the Union is that the Company victimised all these workmen as there was no love lost between the Company and the Union since the Union was formed in September 1952 and took up to Tribunal the question of retrenchment of 52 workmen in 1952 and next the main grievance of the Union is that the Company employed contractors' (P. Sett & Co.) coolies to get the job of carrying finished products from the factory to the stores done which the workmen agreed to do. This employment of contractors' men for carrying purposes instead of getting the same done by the retrenched workmen is severely characterised as an unfair labour policy. This was the whole rub between the Company and the Union and the workmen in a body persistently obstructed contractors' men in this act of carrying the finished products. For the Union, it is contended that the workmen were fully justified in offering obstruction to the systematic unfair course of action. The Union also shows that there are certain criminal proceedings against serials 1, 2 and 6 of the workmen, but the findings of the Criminal Court are not really relevant in this case. The Company has every right to manage its business, to reorganise, rationalise it in a manner so as to economise the expenses and the Court is not competent to interfere with Company's internal management. The Court cannot justly call it an unfair labour practice. In this connexion, I have already referred to the Lipton's case. Thus the contention of the Union in this behalf is effectively repelled.

Next, the argument on behalf of the Union was that the Company was out to crush the Union and these workmen who took active part in unionism were singled out for victimisation. On a very careful scrutiny of the entire evidence on record, there is no cogent evidence to show that the Company was vindictive and proceeded to victimise the workmen. Thus to sum up, the Court cannot interfere with the orders passed by the Company at the domestic enquiries held with due notice to the workmen concerned wherein they deliberately refrained from cross-examining the Company's witnesses and the decisions of the Company being not vitiated by any of the vitiating elements aforesaid stand.

In the circumstances, the dismissals and discharge of the workmen are found justified and they are not entitled to any relief.

This is my award.

It was requested therein that the instructions issued in this office notification No. TM(Fund I)/587, dated 21st December 1956, may be scrupulously followed in order to help this office in expediting final payment of Provident Fund money. It has been noticed that on many occasions the cases of impending retirement are not reported three months in advance; nor the cases of death or dismissal or any other contingency which makes the fund money payable, are reported promptly. It is again brought to notice that the Provident Fund account of a subscriber should be closed as early as possible by effecting the final payment, when the occasion therefor arises. The instructions issued from this office from time to time, may, therefore, be strictly followed.

In this connection it is necessary to point out that the cases of final payment are also being delayed for want of correct and complete particulars about the subscriber and also the prescribed certificates. The particulars that would be necessary in dealing with the cases of final payment are furnished in the annexure for the guidance of the departmental officers. LABOUR DEPARTMENT

ORDER

No. 5453-I.R./IR/10L-153/57.—22nd December 1958.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 5063-I.R./IR/10L-153/57, dated the 22nd December 1957, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Shree Hanuman Industries, 65A G. T. Road (South), Howrah, and their workmen represented by the Iron and Steel Workmen's Union, 172 Benares Road, Salkia, Howrah, regarding the issue mentioned in the said order being a matter specified in the third schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Fourth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Shree Hanuman Industries, 65A Grand Trunk Road (South), Howrah, and their workmen represented by Iron & Steel Workmen's Union, 172 Benares Road, Howrah. (Case No. VIII-257/57.)

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Ram Sen.

For the Company: Shri S. Mukherjee, Advocate.

This industrial dispute, over payment of Puja bonus for the year 1957, between Messrs. Shree Hanuman Industries, (hereinafter referred to as the Company), 65A Grand Trunk Road (South), Howrah, and their workmen represented by Iron & Steel Workmen's Union, 172 Benares Road, Howrah, was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication, by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 5063-I.R./IR/10L-153/57, dated the 22nd December 1957.

Both parties filed written statements.

Issue

(1) Whether the workmen are entitled to Puja bonus for the year 1957? If so, what will be quantum of such bonus?

AWARD

In the Union's written statement the claim is for bonus as deferred wages, as condition of service and also as profit bonus. The demand was for two months' wages payable before the Pujas to all workmen without discrimination. The dispute over this demand was referred to this Tribunal on agreement between the parties, and the Management paid 12 days' wages by way of advance to the workers at the time. Fifty per cent. of the advance would be deducted, and in fact, was deducted in six weekly instalments in term of the said agreement, and the balance was to be recovered or adjusted after the final decision through adjudication.

The Company, in its written statement, denied its liability to pay any bonus at all, admitted having recovered 50 per cent. of the aforesaid advance towards claim for bonus, and contended that a profit of Rs. 9,906-2-3 only was earned by the Company in the financial year in question.

On 12th June 1958, Shri M. K. Banerjee, A.C.A., A.S.A., was, on the joint recommendation of both the parties, appointed an Auditor to prepare a Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account for the year in question after auditing the company's books of accounts of that year. Shri Banerjee had since submitted the audited Balance Sheet which was marked Ext. A in the case without any objection from either party. The Manufacturing, Trading and Profit and Loss Account for the year shows a net profit of Rs. 20,018-8. This amount was transferred to Appropriation Account. Out of this Rs. 1,800 was paid as salary to the partners for the work done in managing the business. Rupees 8,312-5-9 was paid as interest to the partners. This roughly amounts to 6½ per cent. per annum. In all, a total of Rs. 10,112-5-9 was deducted from the net profits and the balance of Rs. 9,906-2-3, being the balance of profit, was transferred to Partners' Capital Account.

Shri Ram Sen, on behalf of the Union, has submitted a chart showing available surplus calculated under the Full Bench Formula of Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case of Mill Owners' Association in Bombay, 1952, L.A.C. p. 434. According to him Rs. 7,797 remains for distribution as available surplus after deducting such admissible prior charges under the formula as Depreciation, Income Tax, Dividend on capital at 6 per cent. per annum.

Shri Sen's principal contention is that in Ext. A, under the heading Factory Expenses, such expenses for tools worth Rs. 3,457-9-6 and moulding frames and dies worth Rs. 3,876-4, in all Rs. 7,333, were wrongfully shown as revenue expenditure whereas they should be treated as capital assets or expenditure, as such tools, moulding frames and dies are accepted as capital assets used for manufacturing products. Shri Mukherjee, on behalf of the Company, contends that these are running expenses of the factory for the manufacture of particular items of goods. After manufacture of goods these tools, etc., are to be scrapped without any further return therefrom.

Ext. A was admitted without any objection from the Union. There was no objection filed against the report of the Auditor. The Auditor was appointed on the joint request of both the parties. Accordingly, to my mind, Ext. A is as much the evidence of the Management as it is of the Union. Shri Banerjee, the Auditor, was not examined by anybody. This Company manufactures (i) G. I. pipe, and (ii) buckets. In manufacturing these products, loose tools and spare parts are necessary. They are not necessarily capital expenditure. They do not add to the value of block assets, i.e., plant and machineries. They cannot be identified in the product itself. It is common knowledge that loose tools and spare parts are accepted by the Income Tax Authorities under the provision of the Income Tax Act as direct revenue expenditure. "Broadly speaking, outlay is to be capital when it is made for the initiation of a business, or for a substantial replacement of equipment. The decision whether any expenditure is revenue or capital depends on a variety of circumstances. The main test is permanency, i.e., whether the capital of the Company or its assets or its goodwill is permanently increased by reason of such expenditure."

There is nothing on record of this case to show or suggest that these expenses were not factory expenses. It is, therefore, idle to contend on the part of the Union that in calculating the available surplus profits the factory expenses shown against these two items amounting to Rs. 7,333 should be omitted. This amount, in my opinion, should not be deducted out of the profits. Shri Sen contends that only statutory depreciation amounting to Rs. 23,944 should be deducted from the Gross Profits and that nothing should be deducted on account of rehabilitation. Shri Sen accepts that Income Tax amount to Rs. 11,475 and dividend on capital of Rs. 1,34,664 at 6 per cent. amounting to Rs. 8,079 should be deducted. According to this calculation a surplus of Rs. 464 is only left out of profits. Bonus of two months' wages, as in claim, requires Rs. 4,400 only. A small margin of profits left as surplus is not even adequate to pay half month's bonus to the workers. And then, the needs of the industry in a partnership concern where the partners work in running the business cannot be totally ignored. Salaries paid to partners under such circumstances, who work as whole time servants, have also to be paid out of profits. In this case a partner was actually paid a salary of Rs. 1,800, i.e., Rs. 150 a month. If this amount is deducted from the gross profit, balance would be a deficit under the Full Bench Formula. The workers are, therefore, not entitled to any profit bonus in the year in question.

There is nothing on record to prove that the workers are entitled to get any bonus either as a condition of service or as Puja (customary) bonus. The Union's claim fails and is dismissed.

M. N. GAN,

Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

The 12th December 1958.

By order of the Governor,
S. C. MUKHERJEE, Asst. Secy.

ORDER

And whereas the said Third Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between The Asiatic Society, 1 Park Street, Calcutta-16, and their workmen represented by the Asiatic Society's Employees' Union, 4 Elgin Road, Calcutta-20. (Case No. VIII-46 of 1958.)

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate, instructed by Shri Soumen Tagore.

For the Company: Shri K. K. Moitra, Advocate.

AWARD

1. By order No. 1076-I.R./IR/11L-122/58, dated the 18th March 1958, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between The Asiatic Society, 1 Park Street, Calcutta-16, and their workmen represented by the Asiatic Society's Employees' Union, 4 Elgin Road, Calcutta-20, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2 57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

2. After usual summons the parties put in appearance and filed their written statements. The pleadings were completed on 27th May 1958. The parties were thereafter directed to file lists of documents. The dispute was then heard and award was reserved.

3. The matters of dispute as stated in the schedule to the order of reference are as follows:—

(1) Grades and scales of pay of subordinate staff.

(2) Whether Shri Altaf Hossain, Shri Sheikh Ibrahim and Shri Ajit Ganguly should be treated as Duftries?

DECISION

Issue 1: This relates to revision of grade and scales of pay of subordinate staff. Before entering into the dispute it is necessary to state certain facts as are either admitted or established in evidence for proper appreciation of the case. The Asiatic Society (hereafter called the Society) was formed "for enquiring into the History, Civil and Natural, the Antiquities, Arts, Sciences and Literature of Asia". In furtherance of its object the Society publishes books and sells them to the public. It maintains a library and a hall for reading purpose as also for holding meetings by the public on payment of charges. The source of income of the Society for general administration is derived from (1) subscription from members, (2) interest from investments, (3) advertisements, (4) rent from lands and holdings and (5) grant from Government of India. Even sums received as admission and as compounding fees from members are not available for the general expenditure of the Society, but only interest accruing from their investment if any. So also income derived by sale of books cannot be utilised in general administration.

The administration, direction and management of the affairs of the Society are entrusted to a Council. The powers and duties of the Council are enumerated in rule 41 of Rules and Regulations of Society (Ext. B). The Society has also a Finance Committee which deals with financial matters initially before they are considered in the Council and in the general meeting.

The Society employs, in its office and library, subordinate staff of which present strength is 23 (Ext. D), besides two officers and 13 clerical staff. The subordinate staff as employed in the office and the library comprises one jamadar, one durwan, two duftries (one in office and one in library), 9 bearers, 6 peons and cleaners, one Mali and 3 sweepers. The Society had incremental pay scales of its own for the subordinate staff of the different categories as above until 30th June 1951. The said scales were replaced by those based on West Bengal Government scales for the aforesaid categories with certain improvements with effect from 1st July 1951. In the West Bengal Government scales the increment for bearers, peons, etc., were at the rate of Re. 1 in four years, while the scales as introduced from 1st July 1951 provided increment at the rate of Re. 1 in two years. The scales of pay and D.A. and other amenities as made operative from 1st July 1951 for the then employees of the subordinate staff are to be found in the schedule to Ext. H. The said revision it appears was undertaken on the representation of the workmen. The schedule to Ext. H shows that under the revised pay scales as made effective from 1st July 1951, the total emoluments which the employees had then been getting were not reduced but were maintained in all cases by grant of special personal pay to be absorbed in future increments.

At the time when the new pay scales including one for Duftry were brought into operation on the model of West Bengal Government scales with improvement, the Finance Committee recommended and this was approved by the Council that "the designation Duftry should be given only to those who are skilled or trained in the art of book-binding, ruling of papers, etc., and all other lower subordinates working in the library or general office as Duftries should be designated as library Bearers or office Bearers and the scale of pay of the latter category of persons now designated as Duftries should be that of the Bearers in the new scale in accordance with their new designation". (Vide Exts. C and H.) On the basis of this resolution the new scale of Duftry as introduced from 1st July 1951 has been Rs. 30—1/2—35—1—45. Workman Ajit Ganguly who had been working under designation Duftry in the office and workmen Altaf Hossain and Sheikh Ibrahim who had been working in the library under designation "Duftry" were in accordance with the above resolution started to be described as Bearer in the office and library respectively and were placed on the new scale of Bearer as effective from 1st July 1951 with their existing total emoluments kept intact. In case of Ajit Ganguly he was also given an increment of Re. 1 on such change (vide Schedule to Ext. H).

While the improved scales of pay were in operation for subordinate staff, Asiatic Society's Employees' Union, was formed in 1954. On 19th June 1956 the Union on behalf of all the employees of the Society presented a charter of demands under six heads (Ext. F). The improved scales of pay as introduced from 1st July 1951 was still then in operation. These were as follows:—

Jamadar—Rs. 25—1—35.

Duftry—Rs. 30—1/2—35—1—45.

Durwan—Rs. 20—1/2—25.

Peons—Rs. 20—1/2—25.

Mali—Rs. 20—1/2—25.

Sweepers—Rs. 20—1/2—25.

It appears that after charter of demands the scales were further improved by raising the maximum from Rs. 25 to Rs. 30 and by providing higher increment of Re. 1 annually. Their D.A. was also increased. From 1st July 1951 D.A. had been at the flat rate of Rs. 27 inclusive of Rs. 2 in the shape of grain allowance per month. This was subsequently increased to Rs. 30 per month for each one of the subordinate staff besides an interim relief at the rate of Rs. 2 per month. From May 1957 the amount of interim relief was increased to Rs. 5. Thus D.A. as current from May 1957 has been Rs. 30 plus interim relief Rs. 5, in all Rs. 35.

The pay-scales after such changes as are current according to both the parties are as follows:—

Jamadar—Rs. 25—1—35.

Duftry—Rs. 30—1/2—35—1—45.

Durwan—Rs. 20—1—30.

Peon—Rs. 20—1—30.

Bearer, Mali and Sweeper—Rs. 20—1—30.

Besides each and every one of the subordinate staff gets D.A. at the flat rate of Rs. 30 per month plus Rs. 5 as interim relief, in all Rs. 35 per month.

According to the Union, the workmen were not satisfied with these increments and improvements and accordingly it submitted a fresh charter of demands on 28th August 1957. (Vide paragraph 24 of the Union's written statement.) Before this the Union had also raised question of change of designation of the three workmen Ajit Ganguly, Altaf Hossain and Sheikh Ibrahim from Duftry to Bearer and consequent loss arising out of not putting them in the new scale of Duftry as effective from 1st July 1951. As no settlement was possible in course of conciliation proceedings, dispute was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication on 18th March 1958.

The Union alleges that the starting pay, the maximum rates of incremennts in the existing pay scales are all inadequate. It claims that the cost of balanced diet alone in the present day market for a family of three consumption units would amount to Rs. 262-2-6 pies. It is further said that on the basis of facts found in the awards respectively of the First Omnibus Engineering Tribunal and of the First Jute Omnibus Tribunal, the minimum basic pay would be in the case of Engineering concerns Rs. 44 at the price index of 160 taking 1939 as base and in the case of Jute Industry Rs. 71-8 at a price index of 325; while it was fixed at Rs. 69 in the Coal Industry. The Society has also various scope for increasing its income. On these considerations the Union seeks revision of the existing grades and scales of pay as below:—

Jamadar—Rs. 45—2—65.

Duftry—Rs. 35—1—45—2—65.

Durwan, Peon, Bearer, Mali and Sweeper—Rs. 30—1—50.

The Union furthar demands that for the purpose of fitting into the new scales to be introduced, each and every one of the subordinate staff should be given one additional increment for every two years of past service in the Society with retrospective effect from 28th August 1957, the date of filing the charter of demands.

The Society opposed the claim. It maintained that grades and scales of pay as have been existing in the Society are quite just and proper and admit no revision. The Society is not a profit-making concern and its pay scales cannot, therefore, be compared with those in profit-making concerns. Its source of income for general administration is wholly limited. Although there are several funds of the Society, these are for specific purposes and they are water-tight and the money from these funds cannot be utilised for meeting general office expenses. The Society is run principally on subscription from the members, interest from investments and Government grants. Besides it has not been possible for the Society to undertake any of its valuable work for want of finance. During the last 3 years the Society has been passing through great financial difficulties. As a result of this not only many of its important activities have been curtailed but also its net assets are being depleted year after year. The Society tried utmost to get increased grants from the Government but without any success. It tried to improve the service conditions of the workmen according to its ability. Besides basic pay and D.A., as already stated, the subordinate staff enjoy many advantages in the shape of rent free accommodation, liberal leave rules, free medical advice, bonus, provident fund and gratuity. They compare favourably with what is being paid in similar concerns. The Society has no prospect of having any large income in the future and in such view of the matter there is no scope of enhancing the scales of pay of the subordinate staff. The Society has filed a statement (Ext. D) showing salary, D.A., interim relief, total emoluments of each of the subordinate staff with their designation, besides abstract statements of receipts and disbursements of the Society for the years 1955, 1956 and 1957 (Exts. A to A2) and Annual Reports of the Society for the years 1955, 1956 and 1957 (Exts. C to C2).

On giving careful consideration to the matter I accept the Society's contention that in its present state of finance there is no scope for revision of the grades and scales of pay. The Rules and Regulations of the Society (Ext. B) show that the source of income for general administration from which the subordinate staff are paid is wholly limited to (1) subscription from members, (2) interest from investments, (3) advertisements, (4) rent from lands and holdings and (5) grant from Government of India. It further appears that even sums received as admission and as compounding fees from members are not available for the general expenses of the Society but only its interest. (Vide rule 63.) Likewise income devised from sale of books cannot be utilised in general administration. (Vide D. W. 2). The funds are earmarked for specific purposes and no money can be diverted from them to the general administration. In the circumstances, the Society can rightly claim that it cannot go further in the matter of improvement of the scales. The account papers filed reveal that as a result of the expenditure exceeding the income derived in the years 1955, 1956 and 1957, the fixed assets were being depleted year after year. The amount of depletion in the years 1955, 1956 and 1957 were respectively Rs. 653-4-8 pies, Rs. 4,682-13-6 pies and Rs. 19,915.64 nP. The budget estimate for the year 1953 is shown in Appendix III, shows an excess of expenditure of Rs. 37,784 over the income without taking into account the sum that will be received from the Government of India during the year 1957-1958 (vide Ext. C2). The Annual Reports for these three years reveal that many important matters in furtherance of the object of the Society could not be undertaken for want of finance. The Society has, of course, obligation to its employees but at the same time it cannot shut its eye to the object for furtherance of which the Society was founded more than 170 years ago. Although benefits of provident fund, gratuity and bonus have been in terms excluded from the definition of "wages" in the Industrial Disputes Act, it appears that the workmen of the subordinate staff besides basic wage and D.A., get benefit of free medical advice and rent free quarters in majority cases. The existing annual increment of Re. 1 as also the maximum of each of the grades and scales of pay along with Rs. 35 in the shape of D.A. and interim relief cannot, in the circumstances, be considered to be inadequate. The Union has nothing to show that the existing grades and scales of pay do not compare favourably to what prevails in similar concerns. The Society, on the other hand, has filed a statement of Bangiya Sahitya Parishat a similar Society (Ext. E) to show that the scales of pay prevalent in the Society are superior than those in the Bangiya Sahitya Parishat Society. I, therefore, find nothing to interfere regarding the increments or the maximum of the scales. In this connection it will not be out of place to mention that what prevails in other industries such as Engineering concern, Jute and Coal Industries cannot usually be the guide. The principles of fixation of minimum wages have been discussed and settled by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal in Buckingham Carnatic Mills Co., Ltd. vs. workers of the Company (1952 L.A.C. 490). The floor level of wages of an industrial worker must be such as would enable him to maintain three consumption units including himself in a state of efficiency with provision for education, medical expenses and amenities. This is the minimum which the worker must have irrespective of the capacity of the industry or of his employer to pay. The upper limit of wages must be set by what may be called the capacity of the industry to pay not of a particular unit thereof but on the industry-cum-region basis. Between these two limits lies fair wage depending upon the following factors:—

I. Productivity of labours;

II. Prevailing rate of wages;

III. Level of national income and its distribution; and

IV. Place of the industry in the economy of the country.

In the present case there is no question of productivity of labour. As to the prevailing rate of wages, the union has not filed anything. The Society, on the other hand, it has already been noted, showed that what it has been paying compare favourably to those in similar industry. As regards place of the industry in the economy of the country, no such question arises as the Society is not a profit-making concern. Regarding the per capita national income it has a remote bearing on the question of total emolument of a workman according to the Labour Appellate Tribunal. The figure was, after all, a hypothetical sum arrived at by taking the average. According to the Labour Appellate Tribunal the national income figures may perhaps be relevant for the purpose of seeing if the total emolument of an industrial worker is violently out of proportion to the per capita national income. The only relevant consideration in this case is, therefore, the prevailing rate of wages. In the absence of any evidence by the Union about the same in comparable industries, the existing scales cannot be condemned. Then it has been held that basic wages should not be fixed at a point higher than the index figure at 180; while in the matter of D.A., it must be related to the capacity of the industry to pay. On gigving due consideration to the relevant factors I find nothing to sustain claim for revision of the rates of increments or maximum of the scales. Regarding the minimum, the matter has been set at rest by the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of Crown Alluminium Works vs. Their workmen reported in 1958(I) L.L.J. page 1, that "no industry has right to exist unless it is able to pay its workmen at least a bare minimum wage". So the case of the Society on the basis of the principle enunciated in Visuddha Nanda Marwari Hospital case reported in 1952 L.A.C. 582, that minimum pay must be given irrespective of the capacity to pay should not be wholly applied to non-profit-making concern like the present Society can no longer hold good. But nonetheless I am unable to say that the minimum which is being paid is not the proper minimum in this particular industry. The wages as defined in the Minimum Wages Act means all remuneration, capable of being expressed in terms of money, which would, if the terms of the contract of employment, express or implied, were fulfilled, be payable to a person employed in respect of his employment or of work done in such employment, but does not include—

(i) the value of—

(a) any house accommodation, supply of light, water, medical attendance, or

(b) any other amenity or any service excluded by general or special order of the appropriate Government;

(ii) any contribution paid by the employer to any pension fund or provident fund or under any scheme of social insurance;

(iii) any travelling allowance or the value of any travelling concession;

(iv) any sum paid to the person employed to defray special expenses entailed on him by the nature of his employment; or

(v) any gratuity payable on discharge.

In no case the total emolument in the shape of basic wage and D.A. comes below Rs. 55. The statement Ext. D shows that only two persons in the library have been getting the said sum and others getting more than that. Besides the sum of Rs. 55, the workmen, it has already been noted, have benefits of provident fund, gratuity, rent-free quarters, free medical advice, etc. In the circumstances, the minimum prevalent in the scales cannot be considered as not sufficient to meet the requirements of the workman and his family of 3 consumption units. In this view of the matter, I am unable to direct revision of grades and scales of pay of the subordinate staff. The issue is decided accordingly.

Issue 2: The Union demands that the three workmen concerned who had originally joined as Duftries and been working all along as such should be given the scales of pay of Duftries as introduced from 1st July 1951 with effect from that date. The Society opposed the claim. It denied that the workmen concerned ever did work of Duftry and pleaded that they were all along doing work of Bearers.

According to both sides, Shri Ajit Ganguly has been working in the general office and stock, while Shri Sheikh Ibrahim and Shri Altaf Hossain in the library, ever since they joined service in the Society. The three workmen admittedly worked under designation "Duftry" until 30th June 1951. They had as such pay scale of Rs. 20—1/2—30 (vide Ext. G). From 1st July 1951 when they were placed in the pay scale of Bearer, they amittedly sustained no loss in wages. Their total emoluments were at the time protected and in case of Shri Ajit Ganguly, there was further increment of Re. 1 (vide Schedule to Ext. H). The identical pay scale of Rs. 20—1/2—30 was also maintained for them (vide Year Book of the Asiatic Society for 1951, Volume XVIII, page 95), and thereafter they got improved pay scale of Rs. 20—1—30 in that it made the increment annual in place of biennial. Prima facie there has, therefore, been no loss in wages to the workmen concerned compared to what prevailed for them prior to 1st July 1951.

The scale of pay as introduced from 1st July 1951 for "Duftry" has been specifically stated to be for those answering the qualifications as laid down by the Society in its resolution already referred to. Whether these workmen answered those qualifications was a matter within the jurisdiction of the Society to decide, and the conclusion of the Society in this respect should prevail unless this was tainted by lack of bona fides. In the present case no specific allegation regarding want of bona fides has been made in the written statement or proved. When, therefore, there was no animus by the Council of the Society against any of these workmen, a distinguished body like the said Council cannot be said not to have acted in the matter from the best of motive without having regard to the actual duties of the workmen concerned. As a matter of fact, the claim of the workmen that they have all along been doing the work of Duftry and they answer the qualifications as required for the new scale of Duftry as introduced from 1st July 1951 appear to have no basis. The evidence on the side of the Society shows, and, it is admitted by the Secretary of the Union P.W. 1 Shri Nokuleswar Gupta, that the work of book-binding is normally done from outside. Ext. C1, the Annual Report of the Society, also reveals so. So, normally there would be no occasion for these workmen to do work of book-binding. Besides for occasional book-binding it appears that there are regular Duftries—Shri Habibar Rahaman in the office and Shri Dhiren Dutt and another Muhammedan workman in the library. The evidence of P.W. 1. to the effect that workman Shri Ajit Ganguly assists regular Duftry Shri Habibar Rahman and works as such when he happens to be absent would show that the work of Duftry was not the regular duty of Shri Ajit Ganguly. Claim of Shri Ajit Ganguly (P.W. 2) that he does book-binding work can only be true if any on those occasions when regular Duftry Shri Habibar Rahman happens to be absent. According to P.W. 1 "Shri Ajit Ganguly maintains stock books and he brings out books and keeps them in proper place. In the office he does the work of book-binding as also ruling of papers". Shri Ajit Ganguly does not, however, speak anything regarding ruling of papers as deposed to by P.W. 1 or repair work as deposed to by P.W. 3 Shri Altaf Hossain. He (P.W. 2) narrated his duties as follows: "For giving delivery I have sometimes to wrap books by a cover. When despatching outside I sometimes place the books in a wooden box. I also do packing for sending under V. P. Parcel. I also do work in connection with sending books under insured cover. I do work of selling books. I also write cards when books are issued. I also give supply in respect of orders received from outside. I do not do any other work." The evidence clearly indicates that the work of Duftry has not been his duty. Regarding workmen Shri Altaf Hossain and Shri Sheikh Ibrahim, P.W. 1 said that they were to bring out books and keep them in proper place and do the work of Duftry. But P.W. 1 admitted in the next breath that in the library there were two regular Duftries, one was Shri Dhiren Dutt and another was a Muhammedan. The fact that there are two regular Duftries in the library would not support that the aforesaid two workmen concerned were doing work of Duftry. Of the two workmen concerned only Shri Altaf Hossain has deposed. He said that he has been working in the English Section of the library; while Sheikh Ibrahim in the Manuscript Section of the library. Regarding his duties he enumerated them as follows:—

"(1) When the books are returned, I enter them in proper register and then return the vouchers.

(2) If any member wants any book, I consult the catalogue to find out the book and bring it out and then give it to him after entering in the register.

(3) I arrange the journals as are received from outside and then send them for binding.

(4) If any book or periodical is torn, I do repair work and keep it in proper place.

(5) The books which are torn are also kept in proper place.

These are all the work which I have to do in the English Section of the Library."

Even if Shri Altaf Hossain does repair work as claimed by him this would not make him a regular Duftry to be eligible to the scale of Duftry as introduced from 1st July 1951. He admits that he takes out books from the Society for binding and make bill and take money from the Society for the work. This would show that book-binding even if he himself does the work at home outside office hours as he claims, is not within the scope of his regular duty. All these clearly support the case of the Society that they have all along been doing the work of Bearer and not of Duftry.

I, therefore, prefer to accept the evidence on the side of the Society. Merely because the workmen happened to be designated "Duftry" formerly, it does not follow that thereby they became automatically eligible to the new scale of "Duftry" when specific qualifications have been laid down for the same. The criterion would be whether they answered those qualifications. It has already been seen that they did not. The designation "Duftry" it appears was loosely in use until 30th June 1951 to include any workman who had been handling books. From 1st July 1951 the Society sought to put it on regular basis and restrict the designation of "Duftry" only to those whose duty would normally be as such. As the workmen concerned did not fulfil the said requisites, the Society did not do any wrong to them if they were not given the new scale of "Duftry" as introduced from 1st July 1951. It will not be out of place to mention that Shri Ajit Ganguly can have no manner of claim against the Society in this respect. He was a temporary hand until 1st July 1951 and could have, therefore, no vested right in any pay scale until confirmation. Even then the Society it appears confirmed him on an initial salary of Rs. 20 in the grade of Rs. 20—1/2—30 plus usual D.A. from 1st July 1951. It does not, therefore, appear that any of the workmen has any real grievance on the score. The issue is accordingly answered in the negative.

Now as to the objection of the Society that the order of reference to this issue is incompetent, I am unable to uphold it. The Tribunal constituted under section 7A is competent to adjudicate matters as specified in Third Schedule. The question raised under this issue virtually resolves itself into one of classification by grades as in the Third Schedule. The reference is, therefore, in order.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Shekhar & Co. (Private) Ltd., 5/1 Nirode Behari Mullick Road, Calcutta-6, and their workmen represented by Shekhar & Co. Mazdoor Union, 82 Raja Dinendra Street, Calcutta-6.

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI G. PALIT, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Union: Shri Sunil Dhar, Advocate, assisted by Shri Mani Mukherji, General Secretary of the Union.

Present for the Company: Shri K. K. Maitra, Labour Adviser of the Company.

By Government order No. 4597-I.R./IR/11L-91/57, dated 2nd December 1957, the aforesaid dispute has been referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal, presided over by me, for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947). The said Fifth Industrial Tribunal was constituted under Government notification No. 808-I.R.-IR/3A-2/57, dated 11th March 1957.

The reference was received here on 4th December 1957. The Union filed its written statement on 27th December 1957. The Company filed written objection on 4th February 1958. After several adjournments the case was taken up for hearing on 8th December 1958. The evidence including the argument was concluded on that date. The award was reserved.

The only issue contained in the order of reference for determination stands as follows:—

(1) Provident Fund.

AWARD

According to the Union, the business in question is a profitable one, and the Company makes a substantial profit out of it. This Union placed a charter of demands on the Company which ended in a reference to the Fourth Industrial Tribunal for adjudication. The Company, just to avoid increase of wages and dearness allowance, pleaded before the said Tribunal that it had introduced a Provident Fund Scheme for the workmen since October 1956, and the fact of the existence of a Provident Fund Scheme for the workmen, contends the Union, weighed with the Tribunal in giving its award which was published on 2nd May 1957. But the Company, most unfairly, withdrew the existing Provident Fund Scheme since May 1957 and refunded the contributions made by the employees to the said fund up to that date. The Union found no justification for the Company's stopping the Provident Fund Scheme, and it took up the matter with the Labour Commissioner. As attempts at conciliation yielded no result, the matter has been ultimately referred to this Tribunal for adjudication. The Union claims that the employer may be directed by the Tribunal to continue the Provident Fund Scheme legally and in accordance with the provisions of law.

The Company contends that it is a small concern manufacturing varnishes and paints, and it makes a very small margin of profit in this business. The Government of India by its memorandum dated 17th September 1956, asked the Company to introduce a Provident Fund Scheme for its employees. It further directed that deduction from the wages of employees for the Provident Fund should be started forthwith with effect from the 1st October 1956. The Company, accordingly, started the Provident Fund Scheme for the employees, and complied with the Government direction in the matter. Having complied with the Government direction, the Company, however, by its letter dated 16th October 1956 sought for clarification from the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner, West Bengal, whether the Company in question would really fall within the scope of the Employees' Provident Fund Act of 1952. But, not having any reply to the aforesaid letter from the Commissioner, the Company sent a reminder to him on 21st January 1957. Eventually the Regional Provident Fund Commissioner by his letter, dated 7th May 1957, No. R-1227/WB/2814, informed the Company that the factories manufacturing paints and varnishes were excluded from the Provident Fund Act of 1952 as they did not fall within the category of "Heavy and Fine Chemicals". So the previous letter of the Regional Commissioner of Provident Fund asking the Company to introduce a Provident Fund Scheme for its employees forthwith was asked to be treated as cancelled. That letter was dated 17th September 1956. The Company, accordingly, stopped the working of the said Provident Fund Scheme and refunded the contributions made to the said fund by the employees. The Company, however, further pleads that it is not in a position to continue the Provident Fund Scheme.

Now, turning to the evidence on record, I find that every bit of the Company's version with regard to the Provident Fund matter has been substantiated by documentary evidence marked as Exts. A, B and C series. The Regional Provident Fund Commissioner on 17th September 1956 called upon the Company to start the Provident Fund Scheme with effect from 1st October 1956. The Company at once complied with the direction. Thereafter the Company was again informed as per the Ext. C1 that companies such as the present one was, were excluded from the category of "Heavy and Fine Chemicals" and, as such, exempted from the liability of introducing any Provident Fund Scheme. The previous Government order in the matter was revoked. This was on 7th May 1957. The Company accordingly stopped the working of the Provident Fund which it had started at the instance of Government, and refunded the money collected in the fund from the workers. So, where is the mala fide on the part of the Company? The Union has stressed the fact that the award of Shri M. N. Gan, the Tribunal before whom the issues of wages and dearness allowance were mooted, was published in May 1957, and the Company just to weigh down the claims of the Union had placed before the said Tribunal the privilege of the then Provident Fund Scheme in vogue in the Company. It contends that the factor of the existing Provident Fund benefit weighed with the Tribunal in its consideration of wages, etc., and as a result it refrained from granting such increment of wages, etc., as it would otherwise have had granted. But, immediately after the award of Shri Gan was published, the eisting Provident Fund Scheme was withdrawn by the Company. But this seems to be a distortion of facts. It is only a fortuitous coincidence that the award of Shri M. N. Gan and the withdrawal of the Provident Fund came in close sequence of events. The Company could not help it. Government exempted it from the liability of introducing Provident Fund, and the Company merely acted accordingly. So there was no mala fide on the part of the Company. Besides, the allegation or the suggestion that the fact of the Provident Fund in vogue in the Company weighed with the Tribunal in granting less wages and dearness allowance to the employees seems to be without much substance. I have gone through the said award carefully, but I find not even a casual reference to the existence of Provident Fund in the said award. This matter did not evidently weigh with the Tribunal when granting increment of wages, etc., in his award. The learned Tribunal discussed the matter and considered it from different angles. He does not appear to have attached much importance to the Provident Fund Scheme which was in vogue in the Company. Even if he did, the Company cannot be blamed in the matter. It merely followed Government direction. Even if it had stressed upon this factor of Provident Fund before the Tribunal for resisting the claim for increased wages, etc., that cannot be set up as a ground for bringing home the allegation of mala fide against the Company. So, I am unable to accede to the Union's prayer as made out, in its written statement that the Tribunal should give a direction to the Company to continue the Provident Fund Scheme legally and in accordance with the provisions of law. That is not called for or justified by the circumstances elicited in this case. So the prayer of the Union is rejected. The issue is found against the Union.

Before I part with the records of the case, I must point out that I have not gone into the question whether the Company is solvent enough to start or continue the Provident Fund Scheme, or what should be the amount of contribution, if it is continued. The present issue stands delimited and in a narrow compass, as made out by the Union in its written statement. The representative of the Company rightly resists the stretching out of the issue to cover and comprehend the broad point of introduction of Provident Fund with an eye to the financial position of the Company. He contends that it would be a matter outside the scope of the present issue as chalked out by the Union in its written statement. I accept his contention. So the matter is decided as above. This is my award.

A. R. Mukherjee & Co., P-74 Bentinck Street, Calcutta, and one of their workmen, namely, Shri Abhimanyu Bhattacharjee represented by West Bengal Motor Dealers' Employees' Union, 52/7 Bowbazar Street (1st floor), Calcutta-12, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order being a matter specified in the second schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the First Labour Court;

And whereas the said First Labour Court has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. A. R. Mukherjee & Co., P-74 Bentinck Street, Calcutta, and one of their employees, namely, Shri Abhimanyu Bhattacharjee represented by West Bengal Motor Dealers' Employees' Union, 52/7 Bowbazar Street (1st floor), Calcutta-12, referred under Government order No. 5028-I.R./IR/11L-248/57, dated 20th December 1957. (Case No. VIII-C—189/57.)

BEFORE THE FIRST LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

SHRI N. C. CHATTERJEE, Judge.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 5028-I.R./IR/11L-248/57, dated 20th December 1957, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. A. R. Mukherjee & Co., P-24 Bentinck Street, Calcutta, and one of their employees, namely, Shri Abhimanyu Bhattacharjee represented by West Bengal Motor Dealers' Employees' Union, 52/7 Bowbazar Street (1st floor), Calcutta-12, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication:—

Schedule

Is the dismissal of Shri Abhimanyu Bhattacharjee justified? What relief is he entitled to?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal dismissal of one Shri Abhimanyu Bhattacharjee, previously employed in Messrs. A. R. Mukherjee & Co. (hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity).

The Union's case in short is that the Company was out to crush the Union of which this workman was an office Secretary. With that end in view the Company initiated a criminal case against this workman but he was discharged by the Criminal Court. The Union therefore stigmatises the instant dismissal as mala fide, illegal and unjustified and seeks the reinstatement of this workman together with other incidental reliefs.

The Company materially denies all the allegations in its written statement and justifies the dismissal of the workman and contends that he is not entitled to any relief.

On receipt of this reference notices were issued to both the parties who put in their statements and 17th January 1959 was fixed for hearing of the case. But on 11th December 1958 the Union put in a petition stating that the dispute has been amicably settled and thus no dispute is outstanding for adjudication and the case may be disposed of.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, filed by one Shri Kanai Lal Sarma of Messrs. Ananda Bazar Patrika (Private) Ltd. against the said Company arising out of the original dispute referred under Government order No. 4394-I.R., dated 21st November 1957. (Case No. 35 58/33A.)

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Fourth Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri B. K. Bose, Advocate.

For the Company: Shri S. C. Sen, Advocate.

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, by Shri Kanai Lal Sarma against his employers, Messrs. Ananda Bazar Patrika (Private) Ltd., the Opposite Party, in which it is alleged that the Opposite Party had violated the provisions of section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act in dismissing him from the service during the pendency of an adjudication proceeding between the parties before this Tribunal, and that without following the Standing Orders and ignoring the principles of natural justice. The complainant, therefore, has asked for his reinstatement. The Opposite Party contests and contends that the complaint is not maintainable, inasmuch as there has not been any contravention of the provisions of section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, and that the complainant was properly charge-sheeted and given opportunity in a proper enquiry to appear and to defend him against the charge, and was found guilty of misconduct for which he was dismissed from service with offer of payment of one month's wages as required under section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, and was also informed that an application under the Industrial Disputes Act was being filed before this Tribunal for approval of the action taken against him.

Point for decision

1. Whether this complaint is maintainable?

Findings

In fact, such application was filed before this Tribunal on 9th May 1958, three days' after the complaint was filed, and within about a week's time from the date of dismissal. The learned Advocate on behalf of the Company, contends that this complaint is not maintainable as there has not been any contravention of section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act. The learned Advocate on behalf of the complainant, however, points out that there has been clear violation of provisions of section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act when the Company, as in this instant case, has not filed an application before taking any action against the complainant as required by the proviso of section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act. He, however, concedes that actual payment of wages need not be made before taking any action in dismissing an employee from service. An offer or tender was sufficient compliance of the provisions of the sub-section, but he emphatically urges that an application, as required by the proviso to that sub-section, should be filed before the employee is actually dismissed from service. It is not necessary that actual approval is taken before the order of dismissal is made. The learned Advocate, on behalf of the Company, refutes these arguments by pointing out that section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act contains penal provisions, the words of which should be strictly construed and that nothing should be introduced which is actually not there in the section. There is no period of limitation prescribed for filing of this application and, in his opinion, it could be filed within a reasonable time of the date of order of dismissal. And an application should be filed only when an action has been taken and not before that. The words "propose" or "before" cannot be assumed to exist before the word action and "to be" before taken in the provisions of the sub-section. Any other interpretation, in his submission, is sure to defeat the purpose for which the provisions have been enacted.

In this particular case, admittedly, the complainant was informed of the order of dismissal on 26th April 1958. It would appear from the said letter that the order of dismissal was to take effect from 30th April 1958. The complainant was offered one month's wages in lieu of notice and was advised to collect this amount from the office. He was also told that an application would be filed before this Tribunal for approval of this action taken as required by section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. In actual fact, this application was filed, as stated above, on 9th May 1958. The question is whether this is sufficient compliance of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, if not, whether the complaint lies.

In my opinion, there is no scope for interpretation of the words of a statute on equitable grounds. The words must be given their plain and simple meaning. Chapter VII of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, contains "miscellaneous" provisions. It starts with section 32 which provides for punishment of the Company's officials for certain offences committed by the Company. Section 33 provides, among others, that the conditions of service, etc., would remain unchanged, under certain circumstances, during the pendency of the proceedings. In some cases, the employer is absolutely prohibited from taking any action against an employee except without express permission in writing of the authority before which the proceeding is pending. In some other circumstances, the employer has been given the freedom to act without such permission. Only approval of the action is required of the authority, and not his express permission in writing. The sub-section 33(2), with which we are concerned in this dispute, has conferred such freedom to employers to act in certain circumstances. The sub-section 33(3), however, limits the said freedom in cases against the protected workmen. Having regard to the scheme and objects of the Act and its other provisions, the provisions of section 33, sub-section 2, must be read subject to such limitations and qualifications as arise from the context. The crucial limitations, in my opinion are (i) the employer must act in accordance with the Standing Orders, (ii) in case of discharge or dismissal, the workmen must be paid one month's wages, and (iii) an application made to the authority for approval of the action taken. The absolute ban, contained in section 33(1), has been lifted in cases falling under section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, and not without justifiable grounds. The history of this legislation will at once reveal that the application of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, as it stood before its present amendment, operated very harshly, in innumerable cases, against the employers. It was thought, very rightly, that the employer should have his normal right to change the conditions of service and/or punish the workman, not connected with the dispute, but he should exercise his right, in the interest of the welfare of the Working Class Community, under certain restrictions. Those restrictions are, to my mind, in the nature of penal provisions and should be construed, in public interest, as any other penal law. It is not obligatory now on the part of the employer, in cases falling under section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, to wait till the decision of the authority is known before he can exercise his normal right in matters affecting day to day Management's business. That is apparent from the reading of the text. Unfortunately, there is no reported decision of the Calcutta High Court on this point. At least no such decision was shown to me by the learned Advocates of either party. But, there is a reported decision of the Madras High Court, in Lakshminarayana Rao and State of Madras and others in 1956, II L.L.J. p. 487, which to an extent supports the above view. Mr. Justice Ayyangar observed as follows: "The foundation of a Tribunal's award under section 33A of the Act is a contravention of section 33 and there cannot be a contravention of that provision, when the employer applies for permission but the Tribunal refuses to decide whether the permission should be granted or not. Section 33A is a penal provision and cannot be held to be attracted to a case where an application preferred by the employer is refused to be decided on merits". As stated above, this case, strictly speaking, is not on all fours with the facts of the present case, but then, it throws enough light in this matter. In my view, there would be sufficient compliance with the provisions of section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act when, as in this case, the employer had acted in accordance with the Standing Orders, and offered payment of one month's wages before the order of dismissal took effect, and also applied within the reasonable time (within about a week in this case) to the authority for approval of the action taken. The employer, in cases falling under section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act, is not required to wait till the approval of the action taken or contemplated by him is given. The approval may be obtained only after the action has been finally decided upon by the employer and put into effect.

The next question is whether a Tribunal, in hearing an application, can ignore the provisions of sub-section (5) of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. There cannot be any doubt or dispute on this point. Such an application shall be heard "as expeditiously as possible" in accordance with the provisions of law. Such application is heard when the Tribunal decides to strike it off as functus officio, or on any other preliminary point before going into the merits of the order passed by the employer. Further, this sub-section does not cast any obligation in law on an employer taking action under section 33(2)(1) of the Act. The obligation is on the Tribunal hearing the case.

A further question may arise that in cases where both the applications under sections 33A and 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act are dismissed on preliminary grounds, the aggrieved workman is thrown overboard and left without any remedy. The Industrial Disputes Act makes sufficient provisions for all industrial matter, becoming disputes, to be settled in various ways, including one through the machinery of an Industrial Tribunal, on a regular reference under section 10(1) of the Industrial Disputes Act. And there cannot be any wrong without a remedy. But that is hardly a consideration for unduly stretching the provisions of specific relief, in summary cases, beyond its reasonable limit. As I decide against the complainant on the preliminary point, taken on behalf of the Company, I do not enter into the merits of the case. The complaint is dismissed.

ORDER

No. 5619-I.R./IR/4L-23/58.—30th December 1958.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 2536-I.R./IR/4L-23/58, dated the 18th June 1958, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Inder Singh, Civil and Government Transport Contractor, 113/5 Hazra Road, Calcutta-26, and their workers represented by the Motor Transport Workers' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order being matters specified in the second and the third schedules to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Second Labour Court;

And whereas the said Second Labour Court has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Inder Singh, Civil and Government Transport Contractor, 113/5 Hazra Road, Calcutta-26, and their workers represented by the Motor Transport Workers' Union, 249 Bowbazar Street, Calcutta-12. (Case No. VIII-C-142 of 1958.)

BEFORE THE SECOND LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI P. C. MAITRA, M.A., B.L., Presiding Officer, Second Labour Court.

Appearances:

For the Union: Shri Patit Paban Pathak, with Shri Benoy Chatterjee, Vice-President of the Union.

For the Company: None.

Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, referred to me an industrial dispute between Messrs. Inder Singh, Civil and Government Transport Contractor, and their workmen represented by the Motor Transport Workers' Union under order No. 2536-I.R./IR/4L-23/58, dated Calcutta, the 18th June 1958, for adjudication.

Issues formulated in the order of reference are as follows:—

1. Wages and dearness allowance.
2. Working hours.
3. Leave and holidays.
4. Retiring benefits.
5. Free medical service.
6. Service condition.

Usual notices were served on both the parties and while the Union submitted their written statement, Messrs. Inder Singh, Civil and Government Transport Contractor, refused the registered notices which came back with the postal remark "refused". After repeated notices were issued under registered post, the case was taken up for ex-parte hearing and in the meantime, another reference from the Government of West Bengal has come to me wherein it appears that the Company dismissed 35 of their workmen as a result of vindictive attitude for which I will give a separate award.

Shri Patit Paban Pathak, assisted by Shri Benoy Chatterjee, Vice-President of the Union, appeared on behalf of the Union and on behalf of the Union Shri Benoy Chatterjee, Vice-President of the Union, was examined on 9th December 1958. Shrijut Chatterjee in his oral evidence states that the Company is capable of meeting all the demands put forward by the Union and the Company is financially sound and for more than seven years the Company is running. Shri Inder Singh, Proprietor, carried on private business and has got a separate business of his own at Hazra Road and he himself is the employer of these workmen concerned and the present dispute comes within the purview of the Industrial Disputes Act.

The case of the Union is that the employer Inder Singh is engaged in clearing shipping and transport business, being contractors to the Government and other non-official organisations of repute and the employer earns huge profits and stands on a sound footing. That the Company has got no standing orders of its own and the workers do not get any leave either earned, casual or medical. That the workers are made to work beyond their capacity and if any one raises his voice of protest he would do so under the pain of dismissal. There is no retiring benefit scheme, no arrangement for free medical treatment and conditions of service. The workers, through their Union have placed their grievances at the door of the employer but to no effect. The matter was taken up with the Labour Commissioner who tried his best to effect settlement but no settlement was arrived at and the workers now pray for relief under the above issues formulated in the order of reference.

FINDINGS

The Union has submitted through their Vice-President one service condition of appointment of similar industry, viz., of Messrs. R. Sen & Co., who have got motor transport business in the city and I have carefully examined the same. I called for original file from the Labour Directorate and it appears that the Conciliation Officer has tried his utmost but the Company did not appear in spite of repeated notices served, and ultimately when all attempts failed, the Deputy Labour Commissioner, who agreed with the Conciliation Officer referred the above dispute to the Government for adjudication and hence this reference. It appears therefore that the employer is recalcitrant to a degree and flouted not only the Conciliation Officer but also the Court of Law and they have not yet been taught the lesson, the fundamental fact, that in order to carry on an industry in the country they will have to obey the statute of the land. The State can no longer allow such obstinate employer to carry on his industry and to dismiss the workers at his sweet will at any time without having any respect for the law. I have therefore taken up the matter ex-parte but at the same time I have examined the documentary and oral evidence and other materials connected with the matter. I have given my anxious consideration into the matter and I should give my award which appears to me very reasonable and fair in the following lines:—

Issue No. 1: Wages and dearness allowance.—I am not here considering the wages and dearness allowance for whole of the State of West Bengal, but wages and dearness allowance of the workers of this particular concern which is located in Calcutta. In fact, cost of living differs from place to place and so far as Calcutta is concerned, it is common knowledge that the cost of living is higher than any moffusil districts. Same is the condition of dearness allowance, which is paid in order to meet the ever growing and fluctuating price in the cost of living. Dearness allowance is not unalterably fixed and dearness allowance is flexible and changes with the cost of living index. The cost of living is soaring high since the days of war, famine, partition of Bengal and nobody knows when it will come to a stabilized standard figure. I would therefore give my award so far as wages and dearness allowance are concerned as follows:—

	Wages.	Dearness allowance.	Total. Per month.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Drivers ..	90 ..	45 ..	135
Mechanic ..	90 ..	45 ..	135
Cleaners & Khalashi ..	35 ..	35 ..	70
Fitter ..	55 ..	45 ..	100

Lorry coolies will get the same rate as cleaners. For other casual workers Rs. 2 per day is prescribed but no dearness allowance.

Issue No. 2: Working hours.—I will now take up question of working hours. Under section 65 of the Motor Vehicle Act hours of work have been prescribed as 9 (nine) hours per day which should be a active duty on the wheel. I am inclined to think that these nine hours should also include the time from reporting to the garage to the exit therefrom and this should also be included in the said period of nine hours of work.

Issue No. 3: Leave and holidays.—In regard to leave and holidays the workers will get the following leave:—

(i) Twelve days leave with pay on medical ground per year.

(ii) Fifteen days leave with pay per year as casual leave.

Besides this, the workers will get one weekly holiday and the roster will be fixed by the employer.

Issue No. 4: Retiring Benefits.—Half month's wages for each completed year of service will be given as retiring benefit after one year of completed service. In no case, it will exceed 15 months' average wages. No retiring benefit will be given to the worker who is dismissed for misconduct or is guilty of moral turpitude.

Issue No. 5: Free medical service.—Motor Transport Industry has got a permanent place and the present employer has got its head office, garage and a factory where the repairing work is done and the Company should have one whole-time medical officer and when the worker will be sick, he will be treated by the medical officer of the Company, free of cost. The worker will have to bear the cost of medicine and injection, etc. First aid arrangement must be made by the Company. The facilities will not be extended to the members of the family of the workers.

Issue No. 6: Service condition.—There will be one Standing Order of the Company which will be posted in the Notice Board and should be incorporated in the letter of appointment and in all cases, letter of appointment should be given to the employee. There will be no piece rate remuneration in respect of employment, neither there will be any khoraki paid, for, there is no standardized rate and lots of complications may arise from this concession. I am prepared to allow however a flat rate of Rs. 3 per day for drivers, mechanics, cleaners, if the workers are made to do overtime duties in addition to their 9 hours of schedule duties. In no case, the worker will be made to work for more than 12 hours a day. The award will be given effect to within a month from the date of publication of the award in the Calcutta Gazette.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. N. R. Sarkar and Co., Ltd., 4 Chittaranjan Avenue, Calcutta-13, and one of their workmen Shri Ashutosh Burdhan represented by the Iron and Steel Workmen's Union, 172 Benares Road, P.O. Salkia, Howrah. (Case No. VIII-53/58.)

BEFORE THE FOURTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. N. GAN, Judge, Fourh Industrial Tribunal.

Appearances:

For the Union: Shri Kali Chakravarty.

For the Company: Shri N. Mukherjee, Advocate.

AWARD

An industrial dispute in respect of the following two issues between Messrs. N. R. Sarkar & Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as the Company) and one of their workmen Shri Ashutosh Burdhan represented by the Iron & Steel Workmen's Union was referred to this Tribunal for its adjudication by the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by order No. 1203-I.R./IR/11L-408/57, dated the 24th March 1958.

Issues

(1) Whether refusal of two months' leave with effect from 1st January 1953 to Shri Ashutosh Burdhan and termination of his service is jusified. To what relief is he entitled?

(2) Whether Shri Ashuosh Burdhan is entitled to bonus for the year 1952.

Three more issues were added to the above on the pleadings of the parties. The Company's contention is that this case is clearly not maintainable, for, in the first place it is not an industrial dispute. Secondly, the aggrieved employee is not a workman and lastly Shri N. R. Sarkar & Co., Ltd. is not the employer.

Issue No. 3.—Whether it is an industrial dispute, (4) whether Shri Ashutosh Burdhan is a workman, (5) whether the reference is maintainable as against Messrs. N. R. Sarkar & Co., Ltd.

Both parties filed written statements, adduced evidence, oral and documentary, and advanced arguments in the case.

Issue Nos. 1 to 5: In order to appreciate the points of objection taken by the learned Advocate for the Company it is necessary to see what demands were put forward by the Union representing Shri Ashutosh Burdhan. Issue No. 1 is divided into two parts—(1) refusal of two months' leave with effect from 1st January 1953, (2) termination of services on 31st March 1953. In this connection, the learned representative for the Union, who is the Vice-President, contends that Shri Burdhan is not claiming any relief of reinstatement for the first termination of service on 31st March 1953. He claims other reliefs and reinstatement following the termination of his service for the second time on 1st August 1955. Issue No. 2 relates to bonus for the year 1957 which remains unpaid till this day. The Union's case is this that Shri Burdhan was first employed as a senior assistant in the accounts department by this Company and re-employed on 9th December 1953—after the first termination of service—as an accountant in the Messrs. Hindusthan Development Corporation Ltd. The real employer was Messrs. N. R. Sarkar & Co., Ltd. The Company denies its liability on the ground already stated above.

Issue No. 1 does not appear to be very happily worded. There is no indication in it to show that the termination of service refers to two different employments. On the contrary the word suggests that only one termination of service following the refusal of leave of two months with effect from 1st January 1953 is only in dispute. I will take the Company's objection one by one. As to whether this dispute is an industrial dispute or not: The Union's own evidence is that about 500 to 700 employees are ordinarily employed in the Messrs. Hindusthan Development Corporation Ltd. where Shri Burdhan was also employed before this discharge and that only about 30/35 of them are members of Iron & Steel Workmen's Union, Salkia. O.P.W. 1 Shri D. N. Sen said that both Lens and Scientific Instruments Company Ltd. and Messrs. Hindusthan Development Corporation Ltd. have separate Unions for their employees. That would also appear from pending reference before the Third Industrial Tribunal. At the time of the first termination of employment in March 1953—and the dispute relates to that period and earlier—Shri Burdhan was not a member of Iron & Steel Workers' Union. He said he became member of the Union sometime in November 1954 along with P.W. 1 Shri Rafiqual Hossain. I fail to see how in this state of evidence and circumstances Iron & Steel Workmen's Union can legitimately take up the cause of Shri Burdhan and thus convert an individual dispute pure and simple to a collective dispute and industrial dispute. It is extremely doubtful from the correspondence that passed between Shri Burdhan and the present Union and the management whether any other workmen employed either in Messrs. N. R. Sarkar & Co., Ltd. or Hindusthan Development Corporation Ltd. took up the cause of Shri Burdhan. In view of the decisions of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, in cases of the News Papers Ltd. and C.P. Transport Company and that of the Calcutta High Court, in the case of Bengal Club reported in 1957 I and II L.L.J., page 271 and 1957 I, L.L.J., page 305, respectively, I have no doubt in my mind that the dispute is an individual dispute and not a collective dispute or an industrial dispute.

As to whether Shri Burdhan was a workman within the definition of section 2(s), Industrial Disputes Act, it is clear from the evidence that he was employed as a senior assistant during the first period of its service between 1st October 1948 and 31st March 1953 where his duties were mainly of clerical nature. At that time he was undoubtedly a workman under section 2(s), Industrial Disputes Act. During the second term of his employment, he was appointed as an accountant, with a number of employees in his department. He used to prepare bills and check vouchers and wage-sheets. That he had certain duties to perform which are only done by the Head of the department is amply proved by the notification issued by the management and admitted by Shri Burdhan. He was more than a routine clerk while he was appointed as an accountant in the service of Messrs. Hindusthan Development Corporation Ltd. At the time he could not be a workman. Next point is whether the reference is otherwise maintainable against Messrs. Hindusthan Development Corporation Ltd. which is a separate legal entity and which is not a party to this reference. Even Messrs. N. R. Sarkar & Co. is not mentioned as managing agents on behalf of Messrs. Hindusthan Development Corporation Ltd. Accordingly I fail to see how this case can proceed against Messrs. Hindusthan Development Corporation Ltd. Question now is whether at the relevant time Messrs. N. R. Sarkar & Co., Ltd. was the employer of Shri Burdhan. Shri Burdhan said that he was appointed verbally by this Company and not by any appointment letter. This has been denied. Much has been made about a certificate issued over the signature of Messrs. N. R. Sarkar & Co., Ltd, and also a letter terminating the first employment by the said Company. It has been sought to be explained on behalf of the Company that this was done as managing agents for the employer. That position is not in consistent with this stand taken by this Company from the very beginning of this dispute. Even if we assume that this Company was the employer of Shri Burdhan at the time of his first employment the claim under issue Nos. 1 and 2 is clearly not maintainable. It is strange that a matter for which no dispute was raised for long four or five years was allowed to be revived after a long time and referred to a Tribunal for its adjudication. On Shri Burdhan's own evidence he was apparently satisfied with what he had received on account of his dues when his service was first terminated in March 1953 and he did not make any protest at the time. He however added that he was assured of an employment which he valued more than few unpaid demands. He was given an appointment through the agency of Messrs. N. R. Sarkar & Co., Ltd. in which appointment he continued for less than two years. He was discharged in March 1953 due to reorganisation of work after the closure of the department in which he worked. It was not a closure of business. During the period of his first appointment he asked for privilege leave, which was allowed to others, but was denied to him. He was not allowed any bonus in 1952, although others got it. He said he was refused, along with his boss, who was not in the good book of the Director. In this connection, it may be pointed out that O.P.W. 1 deposed, with reference to this Company's accounts for the relevant period, and said that Shri Burdhan was not paid any wages out of its funds any time. That supports to a very large extent the case of the Company that some other Company, other than Messrs. N. R. Sarkar & Co., Ltd. was his employer. The claim for bonus is said to be based on custom for which there is no semblance of evidence in this case. It is not a case of profit bonus. Question of discriminatory treatment, in the absence of other materials does not, therefore, arise. In my opinion, Shri Burdhan is not entitled to any relief under any of these issues from Messrs. N. R. Sarkar & Co., Ltd. in this case. It may be placed on record that Shri Burdhan accepted Rs. 500 in full and final settlement of his claims against Messrs. Hindusthan Development Corporation Ltd. at the time of termination of his second employment. This is my award.

AWARD

The original reference out of which this case has arisen was made under Government order No. 5441-IR/D/10L-116/56, dated 20th December 1956.

According to the workman, he has been baselessly and maliciously impleaded on a false charge of sleeping on duty on 7th October 1957 at about 9-50 p.m. As a matter of fact, he was sitting on the table near the coal stack in the railway siding, outside the gate, just to keep watch on the materials stacked there. The sergeant of the Company Shri Dhan Singh came there on his round and took away the register from the railway siding gate which was 30 to 35 yards away from the table he was sitting upon. Later on he received a charge-sheet. He was placed under suspension, and ultimately he was dismissed.

According to the management, the dismissal of Bansnarain was done after due enquiry in which he was found guilty. The management duly filed a petition under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act for approval of its action by the Tribunal.

Now, turning to the evidence on record, I think that the report of the sergeant will be relevant in the case. This is Ext. 3. The Company gives its English translation as follows:—

"I, sergeant Dhan Singh, went to check the Texmaco Railway gate post at 9-50 p.m. and found Durwan Bansnarain Singh sleeping sitting on a table with legs stretched on the other table. The Durwan's duty was from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. I took away the register and gave it to Durwan Surajmani Tamang, and I sent him to wake up Durwan Bansnarain Singh. Durwan Surajmani woke him up and told that it was a thorough-fare and the passersby observed that how Birla's Durwan was performing his duty. Bansnarain Singh is very negligent in his duties. He has been warned on previous occasions also. Thefts also occur due to their negligence and sleeping while on duty. It is requested that he should, therefore, be given adequate punishment."

Durwan Bansnarain Singh in his statement in the enquiry proceeding stated that he was sitting on a stool on the siding where coal, iron, etc., remained stacked. He saw the sergeant passing by, but he never doubted that the sergeant had picked up the register from the gate which was to be signed both by the sergeant and the Durwan on duty. He also admitted that Surajmani Tamang came to him, but he was never told about the Register.

Taking the evidence as a whole, I am clearly of opinion that the finding of the Enquiry Committee was perverse. It was influenced by the fact that the accused Bansnarain pleaded no animus against the sergeant. As such, the statement of the sergeant was totally believed. Of course, the absence of animus, no doubt, inclines one to accept the evidence of the prosecution. But it should also be judged whether the prosecution is over enthusiastic in making out the offence alleged. In this case the sergeant was in the military service before. He may be a stickler of discipline. In his zeal for maintaining discipline he may have been landed into an error of judgment. That seems to have happened here. That Bansnarain pleads no animus on the part of the sergeant would also incline one to accept his statement as of a turthful and straightforward person.

That the sergeant in this case was bent on incriminating Bansnarain is clear enough. In his report to the authorities immediately after his inspection he makes no secret of this. He says as per the Ext. 3 that Bansnarain is very negligent in his duties and that he had been warned on previous occasions also. Thefts also occur due to their negligence and sleeping on duty. He requests the authorities that Bansnarain should be given adequate punishment. This taints his report with prejudice against Bansnarain Singh. Let me see whether his subsequent conduct corroborates this.

In his first report to the authorities which is contemporaneous with the event, I do not find any mention that he flashed his torchlight on Bansnarain and found him asleep. In his subsequent statement before the Enquiry Committee, Ext. 4, he first mentions about this flashing of torchlight on Bansnarain for about two minutes. Certainly this is an important piece of evidence which should not have been missed in his original statement. Bansnarain denies all this. So it is clear that the story of this torchlight focussing is merely an invention. It has been introduced only to strengthen the prosecution story.

Next, if this flashing of torchlight goes, then I get that the sergeant saw Bansnarain asleep from the gate which stood at a distance of 30 to 35 yards away from Bansnarain. There is nothing to show that the place was well lighted. According to the prosecution it was not adequately lighted, otherwise the question of focussing of torch light would not have been raised at all. Now, in such dim light, can it be taken for certain that the sergeant definitely saw Bansnarain asleep sitting on the stool from a distance of about 35 yards? There is a good margin or scope of mistake. Bansnarain stoutly denies this. But he does not deny the visit of the sergeant.

Next, according to the prosecution, the sergeant took away the register from the gate. The gate stood at a distance of about 35 yards from the place where Bansnarain was sitting. It was night. This register is required to be signed both by the sergeant and the watchman on duty. So even if Bansnarain had noticed the sergeant taking away the register, he might not have bothered about it. So the removal of the register cannot be capitalised as a piece of strong evidence of guilt against Bansnarain Singh, as the learned counsel of the Company tries to establish. According to the sergeant, Surajmani Tamang was sent to wake up Bansnarain while the sergeant stood on watch at his post. Why all this round-about procedure? The sergeant says that he wanted to fasten the blame tightly on the head of Bansnarain by having corroboration. Does it not show a sort of zeal on the part of the sergeant to incriminate Bansnarain. Or, is it an impartial and unprejudiced conduct befitting a supervisor? I should say I am unable to eliminate from the sergeant some sort of prejudice against Bansnarain.

Next, what did Surajmani Tamang see? He saw Bansnarain dozing on the stool. Now, this dozing is said to be the same thing as sleeping on duty, and on the basis of this Bansnarain Singh, an old worker, is punished with dismissal on a charge of "major misdemeanour". Of course, "sleeping on duty" has been termed as a major misdemeanour in the Standing Orders of the Company. But it is for the Tribunal to see how much amount of vigilence is necessary in a particular case. I have to see whether there has been negligence of duty on the part of the watchman for his closing of eyes. If the closing of one's eyes while sitting on a stool, at dead of night, is a major misdemeanour, and if it is to be put on the same level as sleeping, I should say that the position of Durwans or watchmen will be always precarious. In this particular case, strict vigilence was not necessary; otherwise patrol duty would have been prescribed for the Durwan. Here there was a stool on which Bansnarain sat. The sergeant does not take exception to that. May be that the carpenter had left the stool there. But sitting on a stool has not been found by the Company to be an offence. Then, what was the watchman guarding? It was a railway yard. There were stacks of coal, brass, scrap iron, etc., which could not be stolen in the twinkle of an eye. So I may hold that the degree of vigilence required on the part of Bansnarain in the present case was not very high and rigid. Even if the Durwan dozes, such things as coal, scrap iron, brass, etc., cannot be stolen in a trice. So, to hold Bansnarain Singh guilty of a major misdemeanour for dozing having regard to all the facts and circumstances, is really difficult. It is still more difficult to find him guilty on the evidence that was before the Enquiry Committee as also on the evidence before me. So I hold that the order of dismissal on Bansnarain is liable to be set aside. It has been disapproved also in the case under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act which has been tried analogously with the present case. In this case under section 33A, I grant the necessary relief to the workman. He has been dismissed on 25th April 1958, as per the Ext. 6. The order of suspension as per Ext. 1 with effect from 10th October 1957 is cancelled and the subsequent order of dismissal is set aside. I award that he should be reinstated within one month of the award becoming enforceable. He should be given proper notice asking him to join his duties. If he does not turn up within a reasonable time, his claim for reinstatement will go.

By way of compensation, he is allowed wages at half the rate of what he was drawing at the time of his suspension, from 10th October 1957 up to the date of his reinstatement. I grant half wages because Bansnarain is found to have contributed himself to a certain extent to his plight. This amount of compensation should be paid to him in two equal monthly instalments, the first of which falling due within one month of his reinstatement.

Before I part with the records of the case I would refer to the argument of the learned counsel of the management that since it is wanting in bona fides, and as the Tribunal cannot sit in appeal over the propriety of the management's order, the Tribunal should not interfere under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act 1947. Of course, the question of bona fides is important here as elsewhere in all industrial adjudications. But this is not the only thing to be considered in such a case. Of course, the Tribunal does not sit in appeal over the management's decision. But if it is perverse, the Tribunal can very well reverse it, otherwise there is no point in the Tribunal's assuming jurisdiction in such cases. The learned counsel seems to have lost sight of the fact that under section 33A, unlike section 33 of the Act, the matter in dispute mooted before the Tribunal is nothing more nor less than a reference, and the decision by the Tribunal is an award binding on the parties as such. So the entire thing in all its bearings has got to be scrutinised by the Tribunal in a case under section 33 just as in the case of a reference made by the Government.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 647-I.R./IR/11L-215/57, dated 20th February 1958, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. All India Spring Manufacturing Co., 135 Netaji Subhas Road, Calcutta-1, and one of their workmen, Shri Subal Mondal, represented by Bengal Spring Workers' Panchayat, 48 Sambhu Babu Lane, Calcutta-14, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication:—

Schedule

Whether the dismissal of Shri Subal Mondal was justified. To what relief is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified dismissal of one Shri Subal Mondal previously employed in Messrs. All India Spring Manufacturing Co. (hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity).

The Union's case in short is as follows:—

The Company carries on business as manufacturer of various types of metal springs. The employees of the Company had various grievances regarding their pay-scales, etc., and raised a dispute which was adjudicated upon by an award published in the Calcutta Gazette on 27th June 1957, and the same became enforceable on 27th July 1957. The said award, inter alia, enhanced the pay-scales of the employees. After the publication of the award Shri Mondal was charge-sheeted on 9th August 1957 for having incited other workmen not to accept their wages if the said award were not given effect to with effect from the date of its publication in the Calcutta Gazette. The Company made a show of enquiry into the alleged charge on several dates and ultimately perversely found the workman guilty of the charge and dismissed him with effect from 26th August 1957. The Union therefore seeks the reinstatement of this workman together with back wages.

The Company, on the other hand, denies the allegations of the Union and contends that the Company held a due enquiry into the charges framed against the workman and gave him all reasonable facilities to defend himself.

On 21st August 1957 during the enquiry the workman filthily abused the Works Manager Shri J. Kodal for which a separate charge was framed and issued to him on 22nd August 1957, and the enquiry was held on 25th September 1957 when the workman was examined and he also examined his witnesses, and they were asked to sign the proceedings of the enquiry which they refused to do. In the circumstances, the Company justifies the dismissal of the workman and resists Union's claim for reinstatement with back wages.

Decision

It is common ground that there was an award whereby the pay-scales of the employees were enhanced to a certain extent and that the award was published in the Calcutta Gazette on 27th June 1957. By virtue of section 17A of the Industrial Disputes Act the award became enforceable on the expiry of 30 days from the date of its publication. So the award became enforceable on 27th July 1957. There is not much dispute that some of the employees of the Company inclusive of this workman did not accept the wages for the month of July on the 7th of August following. Admittedly, monthly wages of employees are paid on the 7th day of the month succeeding that for which the wages become due

Admittedly enquiries were held into charges framed against the workman, so the Court in following the ruling reported in 1957 L.L.J. II, page 15 (Radharaman Bajpai & others vs. Labour Appellate Tribunal and others) proceeds to consider three questions, viz., (1) whether the workman was found guilty of misconduct by the employer, (2) whether the correct procedure was followed by the employer in arriving at the finding and (3) whether the misconduct could be visited with dismissal. The Company charge-sheeted the workman (vide charge-sheet Ext. A, dated 9th August 1957) wherein the charge is that the workman was engaged in activities detrimental to the interests of the Company and instigating innocent workers against the management as a result of which majority of them did not receive payment of their wages for the month of July, and there was a further charge that he adopted go-slow tactics himself and also incited other local workers to do the same. This was followed by Ext. B, dated 14th August 1957, a notice asking him to attend an enquiry with his witnesses to be held on 21st August 1957 at 4 p.m. There is, however, denial on behalf of this workman of the service of this charge-sheet. On 21st August 1957 statements of the workman were recorded wherein he stated that he did not accept his wages on 7th August 1957 on the impression that the award should have been given effect to with effect from the date of its publication in the Calcutta Gazette (27th June 1957), and he further stated that other employees held the same opinion and that he was not guilty of laches in his work. The enquiry was thus held partially on 21st August 1957 and further enquiry was resumed on 22nd August 1957 wherein the statement of Shri J. Kodal was recorded. It may be stated in this connexion that the workman made several mistakes in giving the dates of enquiry as 10th July 1957 and service of notice of enquiry Shri Kodal has stated at the enquiry that it is Subal, the workman, who incited other workmen to create a trouble over the date on which the award should be made operative and that Subal also adopted go-slow tactics. It appears from the statement of Kodal that Subal also cross-examined Shri Kodal as to his outturn of work. During this enquiry Subal was confronted with the production register and Shri Kodal's allegation is that Subal got furnious and filthy abused him (Kodal) It is remarkable that no other witness was examined to prove the charge of the workman's inciting other workmen not to accept their wages as alleged in the charge.

As regards the charge of go-slow tactics there is nothing else excepting the uncorroborated testimony of Shri Kodal. The production register (Ext. H) does not really prove the charge of go-slow tactics as there is nothing to indicate what quantum of works Shri Subal did previously, and what he was doing during any month. There are no data to fix the charge upon Subal. If work were given to several workers in a lump, there is nothing to show what quantity of work was done by whom. So, in all fairness, the charge of go-slow tactics cannot be taken as proved. After this there was the second charge-sheet, dated 23rd August 1957, Ext. AI wherein the charge was that during the enquiry on 22nd August 1957 he filthily abused Shri Kodal and was thus guilty of disorder and indiscipline and for this the enquiry was scheduled to be held at 3 p.m. on 4th September 1957.

Then let us refer to the proceedings of enquiry held on 4th September 1957 at 3-30 p.m. It appears from a perusal of the proceedings of this enquiry held on 4th September 1957 that one of the partners Shri Gourhari Das conducted this enquiry. This enquiry was also attended by two other workmen, named Agnu Thakur and Kulamani. At this enquiry, as stated by Shri Gour Das (O.P.W. 3) in Court also, he asked the workman Subal as to his relationship with the Works Manager, Shri J. Kodal, and eventually asked him to apologise to him considering the relationship as Kodal was the uncle-in-law of the workman. This proceedings only shows that there was only an attempt on behalf of Shri Gour Das and other workmen to effect an amicable compromise between the workman and the Works Manager, Kodal and there is no evidence to substantiate the charge of the workman's filthily abusing Shri Kodal. It may also be stated in this connexion that the workman emphatically denied the charge of having committed any offence but he simply admitted that he called Shri Kodal a liar as he brought against him a false charge of inciting other workmen not to accept their wages and so Subal said that he was not at all sorry, nor was he prepared to offer any apology. Dispassionately considered, the proceedings did not prove that the workman filthily abused the Works Manager and there was simply an attempt to restore good feelings between the workman and the Works Manager as they were relations. There was an adjourned hearing on 25th September 1957 at 3 p.m. on which date one Bijoylal Burman stated that Subal went out saying "শুয়োরের বাচ্চা, আমাকে কাজ শেখাচ্ছ।" So Bijoy was not present at the time of the actual occurrence, but he is a later arrival and he did not give his evidence in this Court. Shri Subal, it appears, did not examine any witness and refused to sign the proceedings of enquiry. Thus all that we find from the proceedings of enquiry on different dates is the bare statement of J. Kodal on the first date of enquiry and that there was an attempt on the part of the partner Gour Babu and some workmen for restoration of good feelings between the father-in-law and the son-in-law. As regards the charge of go-slow tactics, I must state that there is only the uncorroborated testimony of Kodal which does not, strictly speaking, substantiate the charge of go-slow tactics. Thus the evidence recorded during the enquiries really falls far short of proving the charges against the workman. It may also be pointed out that the proceedings of the enquiry were not duly recorded and there is nothing therein to indicate that the workman was given opportunity to cross-examine the Company's witnesses. In order to prove the charge of inciting other workmen not to accept the wages as alleged, the evidence of workmen so incited should have been recorded. If other workmen do not come to state that Subal incited them not to accept the wages, where is the proof that he incited other workmen? The evidence of Shri Kodal on whose report the charge was levelled against the workman, was admittedly a member of the Board of Enquiry and thus the prosecutor himself was a judge which is against the fundamentals of fairplay and justice. A judge must be completely detached from the charge into which he is required to hold an enquiry. Lacunae in the evidence recorded during the domestic enquiries cannot be made up by the evidence recorded in Court. Admittedly, on Shri Kodal's report charges were drawn up against the workman and so obviously he was interested in the result of the enquiry and thus following the principles laid down in 1956 L.L.J. II, pages 67 and 433, I hold that this enquiry was vitiated by violation of principles of natural justice and the decision therein had no judicial sanctity. It is therefore found that neither correct procedure was followed at the enquiries nor is the finding of guilty based on sufficient evidence and thus the decision of the Company at the domestic enquiries should be interfered with as there was perverse finding of guilty when there is no evidence to substantiate the charge.

As regards the Union's allegation of victimisation I have reasons to believe on a consideration of the facts and circumstances and the evidence on record that the Company singled out this workman for the purpose of victimisation as he took a leading part in forming the Union and as he was its Assistant Secretary. It is also in evidence that during conciliation proceedings the Company was prepared to pay him any amount but not to reinstate him. This also shows that the Company did not take in good grace the trade union activities of this workman and was determined to sack him. Workmen have legitimate rights to ventilate their grievances and have them redressed in a constitutional manner and there was no justification for Company's wrath falling on this workman as the Union succeeded in getting an award over their demands. Thus I am convinced on a careful consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and evidence on record that this is a clear case of victimisation and that the findings of enquiry are perverse and mala fide and thus vitiated and must be interfered with. It is therefore held that the dismissal of Shri Subal is not justified.

As regards relief, the normal relief is reinstatement and I think there is no justification for denying him the normal relief of reinstatement in this case. That being so, he should be granted his full pay inclusive of all allowances from the date of his dimissal till the date of his reinstatement. The Company is directed to reinstate him if he reports for duty within 10 days of the publication of the award and the Company is further directed to pay him his full wages for the period of his unemployment treating the continuity of service as unbroken.

This is my award.

the workmen as also the receipts granted by them. Secretary of Baranagore Jute Mills Employees' Union, of which the three workmen are members, stated that he got information that the matter was settled by the employees concerned and that he had no instruction to proceed. The other Union has not turned up. In the circumstances, I find that the dispute has been settled and requires no adjucation.

Notices were served on both the parties and while the Union submitted their written statement the employer in spite of repeated registered notices being served on him did not care to appear. The registered notices came back with the postal remark "not claimed" and it is held therefore that it has been properly served upon the company and the company did not appear in response of the notice. The case was therefore taken up for ex parte hearing and on behalf of the Union, Shri Benoy Chatterjee, Vice-President of the Motor Transport Workers' Union, was examined.

The case of the Union in short is that Shri Inder Singh, the employer is engaged in clearing shipping and transport business, being contractor to the Government and non-official organisations of repute, and that he earned huge profit and stands on a sound footing. The workmen themselves and through their Union have placed their grievances at the door of the employer but to no effect and the matter had to be taken to the Labour Commissioner who tried his best to effect a settlement but as there also the employer did not appear reference was also made by the Government to this Court, vide order No. 2536-I.R., dated 18th June 1958. That, while the abovementioned dispute was before the conciliation officer the employer dismissed on the 7th and 8th January 1958, all the workmen named above enclosed with this order of reference, without any notice or assigning any reason whatsoever. No enquiry was held and the workmen were dismissed in pursuance of unfair labour practice of the employer. That, the action of the Company is wholly illegal and mala fide and is carried with ulterior motive to coerce the workmen to give up their claim and to crush the Union. The Union brought this fact of dismissal to the notice of the conciliation officer, who in spite of his best efforts, failed to negotiate any settlement and hence this reference was made. The Union prays for reinstatement with full back wages of all the workmen for the period of forced unemployment.

The Union submitted as an exhibit through their Vice-President who was examined, list of the workers who were dismissed on the 8th January, showing year of joining, period of service and rate of pay. Shri Benoy Chatterjee in his oral evidence states that the workers were not supplied with charge-sheet at the time of their dismissal neither any opportunity was given to them to submit their explanation. No enquiry was held and the company had summarily dismissed these workers and have recruited same number of new hands. The statement regarding year of joining, period of service and rate of pay, submitted as an exhibit, is correct. Witness further stated that all these 35 workers were retrenched on 8th January 1958, and they are generally unemployed. Some of them did occasional stray works elsewhere and were casually paid. The employer Inder Singh has got a firm of his own and he owns fleet of motor trucks and carries on trade on transport business.

Decision

It appears that while a dispute was pending before the Conciliation Officer regarding wages, working hours, leave, etc., which has also been referred ultimately to this Court for adjudication and for which I have given a separate award, the employer out of vindictiveness dismissed these 35 workmen summarily and when this matter was brought before the Conciliation Officer, the employer did not attend the conciliation proceedings and ultimately, this case also was referred to me for adjudication. I called for the original file from the Conciliation Officer and on an examination of the file I find that the Conciliation Officer tried his best to effect a settlement and when all attempts have failed, the Deputy Labour Commissioner who agreed with the views of the Conciliation Officer, referred the matter to Government for adjudication. In this Court also the employer Inder Singh did not attend, although every opportunity was given to him and registered notices were being issued to him. Fact of summary dismissal is proved and it is apparent that it is a clear case of victimisation and unfair labour practice on the part of the Company and the employer has forgotten the simple fact that in order to carry on an industry, he should respect the statute of the land, from which he is not immune. After all, the industry is for the workers and if the workers are not paid and are dismissed at the sweet will of the employer, it is no use continuing the industry for the sake of industry itself. I should think that this employer should be made to understand that it is not a matter of fun, to flout the conciliation proceedings and subsequently the Court of Law and the employer will have to make amends for this obstinate attitude. Victimisation and unfair labour practice can never be encouraged so far as industrial adjudication is concerned and I would award that all the 35 workmen mentioned in the schedule should be reinstated from the date of their dismissal. I would however award and should consider that the ends of justice will be vindicated if each of the workmen are paid 3 months' respective wages during the whole period of their unemployment and the rest of the period being considered as leave without pay, so that the continuity of service of these workmen may not be broken.

Reinstatement and the above payment will be made within a month from the date of publication of the award in the Calcutta Gazette.

This is my award.

AWARD

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act filed on 24th July 1958 by workman Shri Mathura Prosad. He was a durwan in the General Department under the opposite party mill from 21st August 1950 (Ext. A). During the pendency of an adjudication proceeding in respect of an industrial dispute between the opposite party and their workmen before this Tribunal, the opposite party dismissed the petitioner in the circumstances as below.

The petitioner was granted leave from 25th March 1958 to 24th April 1958, both days inclusive. According to the petitioner, he left Howrah Station on 25th March 1958 at about 8 p.m. by Kalka Mail for his native home in the district of Allahabad. According to the opposite party, "on 26th March 1958 at 4 a.m., while on leave, the petitioner was caught by several workers of the mill with stolen articles of hessian bags and hessian cloth in his possession sewn in a bed roll while going outside the mill gate. On the plea of going to see the Jamadar of the mill, the petitioner managed ot escape and thereafter fled to his native place." (Vide paragraph 3 of the written statement by opposite party.)

Following the alleged occurrence of theft and escape, the opposite party issued a charge-sheet, dated 26th March 1958 (Ext. A). The charge-sheet was sent to his native place by registered post with acknowledgment due. The petitioner admittedly received the said charge-sheet while at home on 3rd April 1958. He (petitioner) sent from his home his explanation to the charge through registered post on 5th April 1958 (vide Exts. B_1 and B_2). He denied the charge and asserted that he had left for home on 25th March 1958 by Kalka Mail at 8 a.m., and arrived home at 1 p.m. on 26th March 1958 and that the charge was outcome of a conspiracy against him. The President and Members of the Local Village Panchayat with office stamp annexed a certificate on the said explanation to the effect that the petitioner reached home at 1 p.m., on 26th March 1958 (vide Exts. B_1 and B_2). After receipt of such explanation the opposite party did not send any written communication to petitioner.

Then on the expiry of leave on 24th April 1958, the petitioner came to the mill to resume duty on 25th April 1958 but he was not allowed to do so. On 26th April 1958 he through his lawyer sent a notice (Ext. 1) to the Manager stating how the Labour Officer had refused him resumption of duty on 25th April 1958 and how he had harassed him by asking him to go to police-station, and how ultimately the office master did not allow him to resume duty. The lawyer accordingly requested the Manager to allow the petitioner to resume duty failing which the petitioner would be advised to seek redress according to law. (Vide Ext. 1.) The said notice was sent by a registered post on 26th April 1958 (Ext. 2), which the Manager received on 28th April 1958 (vide the acknowledgment Ext. 3). After sending the notice, the petitioner sent through registered post on 28th April 1958 from G.P.O., Calcutta, another explanation (Ext. F) in terms similar to those in the original explanation (Ext. B_1) to the Manager with copies to the Labour Commissioner and the Union appealing to cancel the charge-sheet and allow him to resume duty. The said explanation (Ext. F) reached Titaghur on 29th April 1958 as appears from the cover (Ext. F_1).

The opposite party, on the other hand, claimed to have held enquiry into the charges on 25th April 1958 and 29th April 1958 (vide paragraph 3 of the written statement of the opposite party). It was said by the opposite party that the petitioner "was given every opportunity to produce evidence in support of his case and to cross-examine witnesses, which he refuse to do" (vide paragraph 3). The opposite party found the petitioner guilty of the charges and dismissed him from service on 5th May 1958 (Ext. E). On 6th May 1958 the opposite party wrote to the petitioner asking him to collect his outstanding dues as also one month's wages as per section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act (Ext. E_1). On 13th May 1958 the opposite party made an application under section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act seeking approval from the Tribunal of its action of dismissal of the petitioner. The said application under section 33(2) was struck off on 1st July 1958 as the notice on the petitioner came back unserved and as the opposite party did not take further step for service. The award on the main reference was in the meanwhile given and published in Calcutta Gazette on 19th June 1958.

On 24th July 1958 the petitioner filed the present complaint under section 33A. Besides reiterating what he had stated in the explanations to the charge, petitioner alleged that the opposite party did not hold any enquiry and afford him any opportunity to defend himself; that there had been contravention of the provisions of section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act; and that the dismissal was unjustified, mala fide and a glaring instance of unfair labour practice. The petitioner accordingly prayed for reinstatement with back wages for the period of forced unemployment.

The opposite party, on the other hand, contended that the application under section 33A was not maintainable in law as the Company did not in any way violate section 33 of the Industrail Disputes Act. As to merits the opposite party maintained that the dismissal was justified and bona fide.

Points which so arise for determination are as follows:—

(1) Is the application under section 33A maintainable?

(2) Is the dismissal justified?

Decision

Point 1: The opposite party contends that as the petitioner was offered one month's wages and as the opposite party made an application under section 33(2) seeking approval of the Tribunal of its action of dismissing the applicant, this was sufficient compliance with the proviso and there has been no contravention of section 33 and as such the complaint under section 33A is not maintainable. It is, on the other hand, maintained on behalf of the petitioner that there has been contravention as the offer of one month's wage was made and the application under section 33(2) was made after dismissal, and as the opposite party did not proceed with the said application under section 33(2) but he got it struck off without obtaining approval. On giving careful consideration to the matter I am unable to uphold the contention of the opposite party.

The relevant facts from the point of view of determination of this point are the date on which the petitioner was dismissed and that on which the employer made an offer of his wages for one month to him and submitted an application to the Tribunal for approval of the petitioner's dismissal. The petitioner was dismissed on 5th May 1958. He was offered a month's wages on 6th May 1958, that is, a day after the dismissal, and the application for approval was made on 13th May 1958. The language of the proviso to section 33(2) of the Industrial Disputes Act is "no such workman shall be discharged or dismissed, unless he has been paid wages for one month and an application has been made by the employer to the authority before which the proceeding is pending for approval of the action taken by the employer". The words "unless" and "has been" in this proviso are extremely significant, and they clearly indicate that the workman in question could be discharged or dismissed only after the wages had been paid and the application had been made. If it was intended otherwise, a period of time from the date of discharge or dismissal would also have been prescribed for compliance with the aforesaid conditions and things would not have been left in an uncertain and fluid state. To hold that the discharge or dismissal would be regular even though the wages were offered or the application made after such discharge or dismissal would, it is clear, amount to doing violence to the natural meaning of the proviso and particularly the words "has been" which have been used twice in it. I accordingly find that there has been contravention of the mandatory provision of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. A further fact of which I have to take notice is that the application which was submitted by the employer on 13th May 1958 was not pursued by him, with the result that it was struck off on 1st July 1958. There is thus no approval by this Tribunal of the dismissal of the worker in terms of section 33(5) and, as there is no approval, the workman's complaint under section 33A becomes clearly maintainable.

For action without prior approval, section 33(2) as I construe it lays down three essential conditions or safeguards for the workman:—

(1) The employer shall have to act in accordance with the provisions in the standing orders;

(2) The aggrieved workman has to be paid one month's wages before discharge or dismissal; and

(3) The employer must make application before discharge or dismissal seeking approval from the Tribunal of the action proposed to be taken by him. The approval is then to be obtained.

This is also essential as the powers of the Tribunal under sub-section (5) seem to be limited either to according approval or refusing it. The Tribunal cannot in particular order reinstatement under sub-section (5). I hold this view on the basis of the decision of the Supreme Court on the scope of the old section 33 as reported in 1953 L.A.C. 263 in case of Atherton West & Co. Ltd. versus Sweet Mill Mazdoor Union. So, not only approval has to be sought for but also to be obtained in order to comply with the provisions in section 33. Only on fulfilment of all these essential conditions the workman will be debarred from seeking redress under section 33A while contravention of any of the aforesaid conditions will give the workman right to apply under section 33A. So the contention of the opposite party that the mere filing of an application even if it be after the discharge or dismissal, without obtaining approval, would constitute sufficient compliance with the proviso cannot in any view of the matter be upheld since it would make the submission of the application meaningless and a useful provision made in the Act in the interest of the worker entirely nugatory.

Sub-section (2) of section 33 has to be read along with sub-section (5). These would leave no room for doubt that the application contemplated in the proviso would not be complete unless it has been prosecuted up to the last ending in approval of the action. To hold otherwise would defeat the object of requiring the employer to seek approval of its action. Besides it would make the remedy provided to the workman under section 33A wholly nugatory and the provision in sub-section (5) infructuous. If mere filing of an application can constitute compliance of the provision of section 33, an unscrupulous employer after taking action against the workman will simply make an application under section 33(2) just for the sake of depriving the workman of his right to make a complaint under section 33A and will then sit tight over the matter without proceeding to have approval. There would be no meaning in requiring the employer to make an appilcation seeking approval, unless he has the obligation to prosecute the application successfully ending in approval.

Formerly there could have been no discharge or dismissal without prior permission. With the introduction of the present section 33, previous permission was maintained only for action in case of misconduct connected with the dispute; while the employer was given liberty to take action in accordance with the standing orders for misconduct not connected with the dispute without reference to the Tribunal subject to the conditions already indicated. As in the present case the application was allowed to be struck off without approval, I find that there has been contravention of the provision of section 33. The decision in the case of Laksman Rao and others versus State of Madras reported in 1956(II) L.L.J. 487 cited by the opposite party has no application to the facts of the present case. This was a case under the Industrial Disputes Act as it stood prior to the amendment in 1956 when in all cases prior permission was essential under section 33. In this case the employer sought his level best to obtain such previous permission but it was the Tribunal which refrained from deciding the matter on merits. In these circumstances, it was held that there was sufficient compliance with the provision of section 33 by the filing of the application so that there would be no foundation for a complaint under section 33A. In the present case, the employer himself got his application struck off without proceeding to a successful conclusion. In these circumstances, it cannot be said that the workman is debarred from making the complaint. In the present case I also find, as stated below, that there has been no compliance with the provisions in the standing orders. I, therefore, hold that the complaint under section 33A is in order and maintainable.

Point 2: In the case of Buckingham & Carnatick Co., Ltd., reported in 1952 L.A.C. 490 it was held that "it would be open to the Tribunal to examine the findings of the management on the charge of misconduct to assure itself that there is evidence to support the finding and that the decision of the management is a possible view on the evidence before it. It has been found therein that the decision of the management in relation to the charges against the employee will not prevail if—

(a) there is want of bona fides, or

(b) it is a case of victimisation, or unfair labour practice, or violation of the principles of natural justice, or

(c) there is basic error of facts, or

(d) there has been perverse findings on the materials".

Let us, therefore, examine the case within the scope as indicated above. The charge against the petitioner ran as follows:—

"(Date 26th March 1958.) Theft of 3 bags B. Twill, 3 pieces of packsheet (measuring 6 yds.), 2 pieces of Hess. cloth (measuring 5½ yds.) and 25 feet Manila cord at 4-00 a.m. on 26th March 1958. (Approximate price Rs. 25.)

While proceeding on leave you were caught by several workers of the mill at 4-00 a.m. on 26th March 1958, when you crossed the ration shop gate with the stolen articles in your possession sewn in a bed roll. On the plea of going to see the Jemadar of the mill, you managed to escape from custody." (Vide Ext. A.)

The charge was sent to petitioner's native home in the district of Allahabad which the petitioner received on 3rd April 1958. He sent his explanation (Ext. B_1) on 5th April 1958 denying the charge. In the said explanation it was categorically stated that on receipt of a telegram from his home that his son was lying seriously ill he applied for leave and was granted leave from 25th March 1958 to 24th April 1958, both days inclusive, of which 14 days were with pay and the remaining period without pay. It was also asserted that although he was granted leave on 24th March 1958 he had to wait till 25th March 1958 to collect money from the office as instructed by Baro Babu Shri Biswanath Banerji. All this has not been challenged by the opposite party. The petitioner also asserted that he had left for home on 25th March 1958 at 8 p.m. by Kalka Mail and reached home on 26th March 1958 at 1 p.m. His said statement as to arrival at home is in the circumstances not only probable but also was supported by a certificate annexed on the explanation itself (vide Exts. B, B_1) by the President and members of the local Panchayat with their office stamps. After receipt of the said explanation, the opposite party did not admittedly send any other written communication to the petitioner before dismissal on 5th May 1958.

The evidence of the petitioner reveals that on the expiry of leave on 24th April 1958, the petitioner came to the mill and reported for duty on 25th April 1958 but he was not allowed to do so. On 26th April 1958 the petitioner sent through lawyer a notice to the Manager and on 28th April 1958 he directly wrote to the Manager with a copy to the Labour Commissioner as already indicated.

The petitioner categorically denied that there was an enquiry into the charges and that he had been given opportunity to defend himself. According to the opposite party "an enquiry was held into the charges on 25th April 1958 and 29th April 1958, and the petitioner was given every opportunity to produce evidence in support of his case and cross-examine witnesses which he refused to do". But the opposite party has nothing satisfactory in support. It did not admittedly give written notice to the petitioner about the enquiry. It has no evidence to show, who informed the petitioner about the enquiry and on what date. It has also not disclosed who conducted the enquiry on the different dates. The opposite party has also no written proceedings of the alleged enquiry. Only certain statements (Exts. C and D series) alleged to have been made by different persons in course of alleged enquiry have been filed. These statements reveal state of affairs inconsistent with those stated in the written statement or given in evidence on the side of the opposite party. These statements do not show that there was any enquiry on 25th April 1958 as alleged. As to 29th April 1958 these also do not show that any one of the 8 prosecution witnesses in support of the charge was examined on 29th April 1958 but all of them on 26th March 1958, the date of alleged occurrence (Exts. D to D_7). These 8 witnesses, it may be noted, are all employees of the opposite party. As regards the remaining three statements (Exts. C to C_2) purported to have been made respectively by Kashinath, Seu Prosad and the petitioner on 29th April 1958, there is no satisfactory evidence that these were actually made by those persons. The case of the opposite party at the hearing that Kashinath and Seu Prosad were examined by the petitioner runs counter to the case in the written statement wherein it was definitely stated that the petitioner refused to produce any evidence. The case is afterthought and unreliable. The fact that these two persons had been described as outsiders in their statements (Exts. C and C_2) and not as witnesses of the petitioner would also point that they were examined, if at all, not at the instance of the petitioner. The cross-examination of the petitioner reveals that one of them, namely, Seu Prosad is not even known to the petitioner. Those persons described as outsiders have not also been brought to show that they actually made those statements. The petitioner denied that he attended any enquiry, made statement or examined any witnesses. The statement (Ext. C_2) purported to have been made by him does not even contain his signature. The explanation that he refused to sign the same is unworthy of credence. Had he really attended the enquiry, made statement and examined witnesses as claimed by the opposite party at the hearing, it is not likely that he would refuse to sign the statement. The petitioner, it has already been noted, first sent a notice through his lawyer on 26th April 1958 by registered post (Ext. 2) which the Manager received on 28th April 1958, and then sent another communication with a copy to the Labour Commissioner on 28th April 1958 through registered post from G.P.O., Calcutta. While he was thus making these frantic efforts to get in, it is not probable that he was called to an enquiry without any written notice on 29th April 1958, made statement and examined witnesses and at the same time he refused to sign his statement and cross-examine the witnesses of the prosecution on 29th April 1958 as claimed. A man normally exhibits consistent attitude. Of the 8 witnesses purported to have been tendered for cross-examination on 29th April 1958, none was examined on 29th April 1958 but all on 26th March 1958. Out of them only Ram Naresh (D.W. 2), Hira Shaw (D.W. 3) and Bhagirathi (D.W. 4) have been examined before this Tribunal. None of them definitely stated that they attended any enquiry on 29th April 1958. None of them said that enquiry was held in presence of the petitioner and his witnesses as claimed here. They did not also say that the petitioner made statement or examined his witnesses in the enquiry in their presence. As to the date on which enquiry was alleged to have been held, only D.W. 2 Ram Naresh said that it was held on two days, but he could not, however, say whether it was held on two successive days or at intervals. His statement, however, mentions three dates of enquiry (Ext. D_5). Then again the statements (Exts. D_5, D_6 and D_7) purported to have been made respectively by durwan Ram Naresh, durwan Amarnath and Jamadar Dudhnath on 26th March 1958 contain cross-examination purported to have been made by D.W. 1 Shri Kumud Kanti Mukherji on 15th April 1958. The cross-examination consisted only of one question. D.W. 1 in his evidence contrary to what appears respectively under dates 26th March 1958 and 15th April 1958 said that there was enquiry only on one day on 29th April 1958. In the statements (Exts. D to D_7) there are endorsements under date 29th April 1958 to the effect that those statements were read over to the petitioner and explained to him in Hindi but the petitioner refused to cross-examine them. The witnesses D.W. 2, D.W. 3 and D.W. 4, examined before the Tribunal did not, however, say so. D.W. 1 did not also mention that those witnesses were present on 29th April 1958 and tendered for cross-examination. So, on the evidence I am unable to accept that there was enquiry on 29th April 1958, or that the petitioner made statement, examined two witnesses and refused to cross-examine on 29th April 1958 the prosecution witnesses who were purported to have been examined on 26th March 1958. It rather appears that the statements purported to be of petitioner, Kashinath and Seu Prosad and the endorsement under date 29th April 1958 are subsequent creation, to give a colour of reality. Then although the explanation of the petitioner containing the plea of alibi was not posted from his home before 5th April 1958 (Ext. E_2), the two durwans Ram Naresh and Amarnath and Jamadar Dudhnath were purported to have been examined on 26th March 1958, the date of alleged occurrence regarding presence of the petitioner in Titaghur on the night of 25th March 1958 (Exts. D_5, D_6 and D_7). The statement of Ram Naresh on 26th March 1958 (Ext. D_5) was that he saw the petitioner in the verandah on 25th March 1958 at about 9-30 p.m. Likewise statement of Amarnath (Ext. D_6) on 26th March 1958 was that Jamadar Dudhnath in course of his round enquired of him in the midnight on 25th March 1958 who was sleeping on the goomti, to which he answered that it was the petitioner Mathura Prosad. Similarly, the statement of Dudhnath on 26th March 1958 (Ext. D_7) was that while out on round duty he came to know from Amarnath on enquiry that petitioner was sleeping in the goomti. What was the occasion of these statements on 26th March 1958 is not intelligible. It was not certainly to counteract the case of the petitioner in the explanation to the charge which was yet to reach the hand of the Manager. The statements would rather point in support of the petitioner's case in his explanation that the charge against him was the outcome of conspiracy. It appears that having knowledge of petitioner having left in the night of 25th March 1958, they made such statements as in Exts. D_5, D_6 and D_7 in order to make out a charge. Be that as it may, on the evidence and circumstances, I am unable to accept that there was enquiry on 29th April 1958, to the knowledge of the petitioner affording him opportunity to defend himself.

Standing orders of the opposite party (Ext. G) require that the person charged with has to be given opportunity to defend himself. Principles of natural justice also so require. In the present case I find there has been contravention of them.

Even accepting that there has been enquiry on 26th March 1958, it appears that there was no basis for the finding of guilt on the materials before the management. Of the 8 witnesses examined on 26th March 1958, five, namely, Ambica, Lalta, Hira, Domilal and Bhagirathi claimed to be the eye-witnesses of the alleged occurrence, while the remaining three —Durwans Ram Naresh and Amarnath and Jamadar Dudhnath made statements regarding presence of the petitioner in Titaghur in the night of 25th March 1958. It has already been indicated that on 26th March 1958 there could have been no occasion to have such evidence regarding presence of the petitioner in the mill in the night of 25th March 1958 unless the fact of his departure in that night was known and the charge was the outcome of conspiracy. Regarding five who claimed to be the eye-witnesses, all are chance witnesses and none of them claimed to have arrested the petitioner. Their statements not only do not tally with one another but also they do not give consistent and satisfactory account on any of the material points as to the persons who arrested the petitioner, how those persons who arrested did detect that the petitioner was carrying the stolen goods of the Company, where he was arrested and how the petitioner did escape from custody after arrest. According to the charge-sheet it was the workers of the mill who arrested the petitioner while according to Bhagirathi (D.W. 4), the boys of the locality arrested the petitioner. Then according to the charge the stolen things were sewn in the bed-roll while according to the statement (Ext. D_4) of Bhagirathi these were covered in red cloth. How in these circumstances it could be detected that the petitioner was carrying stolen goods is not understandable. As per charge-sheet the petitioner was arrested while crossing the mill gate while as per statements (Ext. D series), he was arrested on the road outside the mill premises. Then according to the charge-sheet after arrest, the petitioner slipped away on the plea of going to see the Jamadar, while according to the statements (Exts. D_1, D_3 and D_4) respectively by Lalta, Hira and Bragirathi, it was the durwan Chandrika who allowed the petitioner to escape. The statements give account of the occurrence which nobody can accept as revealing truth. Then although the stolen goods were said to have been produced before the Manager and a report of the occurrence made to him on 26th March 1958, no explanation is forthcoming why there was no F.I.R., although it was a cognisable and serious offence for which law enjoins an F.I.R. Then the standing order (Ext. G) of the opposite party lays down that when punishment of dismissal has to be given, the approval of the Manager has to be taken. It has also been enjoined that when circumstances appear to warrant it, the Manager or the employer may, where an appeal has or has not been preferred, institute independent enquiries before dealing with the charge against the workman. An enquiry is also made mandatory [vide rule 14(e) and (f)]. In the present case all that the Manager did was simply to record as follows: "I find you guilty of the charges levelled against you and I dismiss you." (vide Exts A and E). There is nothing to show that the Manager at all applied his mind to the materials before him. A finding of guilt without reasons thereof cannot constitute compliance with the provisions in the standing orders. I have considered the statements and I find no basis for the finding of guilt on those materials. The finding of guilt is, in my opinion, clearly perverse. From the manner in which the management proceeded in the matter there can be no doubt that it was not acting bona fide but was playing into the hands of its employees who purported to have made the statements on 26th March 1958 apparently to serve their own purpose. The fact that after dismissal the opposite party did not proceed with the application under section 33(2) to hearing would also suggest lack of bona fides. I am, therefore, of opinion that the dismissal is unjustified and wrongful. The opposite party is accordingly directed to reinstate the petitioner with continuity of service and full wages for the period of unemployment on his reporting for duty within 15 days from the date of publication of the award.

It was awarded accordingly.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Md. Yead Ali Mistry and Brothers, 10 Watkins Lane, Howrah, and their workmen represented by National Union of Engineering Workers, 71 Joybibi Road, Ghusury, Howrah. (Case No. VIII-26 of 1958.)

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

For the Union: Shri Ram Chandra Singh, Branch Secretary, National Union of Engineering Workers.

For the Company: Shri Biswanath Ash, Advocate with Shri Anwar Ali Mistry.

AWARD

By order No. 439-I.R./IR/11L-436/57, dated the 6th February 1958, the Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, referred under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Md. Yead Ali Mistry & Brothers, 10 Watkins Lane, Howrah, and their workmen represented by National Union of Engineering

Workers, 71 Joybibi Road, Ghusury, Howrah, regarding the matters specified in the schedule, to the Third Industrial Tribunal constituted under section 7A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, by notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957, for adjudication.

2. After usual summons the parties put in appearance and filed their written statements. The pleadings were completed on 9th May 1958. The parties were thereafter directed to file lists of documents.

3. The matters of dispute as stated in the schedule to the order of reference are as follows:—

(1) If the enforced idleness of the workers with effect from 30th September 1957 up to 27th October 1957 was justified and to what relief are they entitled?

(2) Bonus for 1956 payable in 1957.

Decision

On 17th October 1958 the parties filed a joint petition of compromise and prayed for an award in terms thereof. As the petition was not happily drafted three dates were fixed for clarification but the parties failed to appear on any of those three dates—15th November 1958, 25th November 1958 and 18th December 1958. In the circumstances, it is presumed that the parties do not intend any change in the settlement arrived at. I, therefore, give effect to the petition of compromise as it is and make my award accordingly. The petition of compromise is made part of the award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Lilloah Engineering Industries, Lillooah, Howrah (Head office: 2 Portugeese Church Street, Calcutta-1), and their workmen represented by the Howrah District Engineering Mazdoor Federation, 4 Panchkori Mohanto Lane, Howrah. (Case No. VIII—28/58.)

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI G. PALIT, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

By Government order No. 445-I.R./IR/10L-129/57, dated the 6th February 1958, the aforesaid dispute has been referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal, presided over by me, for adjudication, under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947). The said Fifth Industrial Tribunal was constituted under Government notification No. 808-I.R./IR7/3A-2/57, dated 11th March 1957.

2. The reference was received here on 10th February 1958. The Union filed written statement on 13th March 1958. The Company filed written objection on 12th May 1958. After several adjournments the case was taken up for hearing on 19th November 1958. On that date a preliminary objection was raised by the management contending that the case, as framed, was not maintainable. The Union was asked to show cause against this, and the cause was shown by the Union on 4th December 1958. The order was reserved.

3. The issues which arose for determination as per the order of reference stand as follows:—

(1) Revision of wages.

(2) Leave.

AWARD

4. The preliminary legal point which has been raised by the management is that the Howrah District Engineering Mazdoor Federation which represents the workmen in the present case has lost its representative character, its registration having been cancelled by Government as per the publication of the West Bengal Labour Gazette of June 1958 at page 112, with effect from 2nd May 1958. Against this the Union contends that there has been a settlement reached in the office of the Labour Officer, Government of West Bengal, Howrah, on 8th October 1958. The Company has also been made a party to the said settlement without there being any objection. So, how can it be contended that the Union has lost its representative character, says the Union, as far back as 2nd May 1958? It is further contended that simply because of cancellation of registration of the Union the dispute in the order of reference cannot be affected. Shri Saroj Ghosal, President of the Iron and Steel Equipment Workers' Union, a registered body, has been authorised by 121 workmen of this establishment to represent them in the dispute. He wants that he should be permitted to carry on the dispute.

Now, turning to section 36 of the Industrial Disputes Act which deals with the representation of parties, as per clause (1) it is clear enough that a party to a dispute in a proceeding under this Act can be represented by an officer of a registered Trade Union of which he is a member or by any officer of a Federation of Trade Unions to which the worker's Trade Union is affiliated, and where the worker is not a member of any Trade Union, then by an officer of any Trade Union connected with the industry in which the worker is employed and authorised in such a manner as has been prescribed. But in the present case the Trade Union which had been representing the workmen in question lost its registration before the date of hearing, i.e., on 2nd May 1958. The publication in the West Bengal Labour Gazette places this matter beyond any dispute. So it may very well be taken that the Howrah District Engineering Mazdoor Federation is no longer competent to represent the workmen in question. Then, the Iron and Steel Equipment Workers' Union which seeks to represent the workmen, does not appear to be a body affiliating within its fold the Howrah District Engineering Mazdoor Federation. There is no evidence on this point. So, the requirements of both the sub-clauses (a) and (b) of section 36(1) of the Act appear to be wanting here. Regarding the sub-clause (c) the evidence is nil. So the legal position is that the workmen do not stand represented by any Union in the present case. If any other Union has meanwhile sprung up.

and the workmen in question do subscribe to it, then they should have approached Government in the matter just to have the order of reference corrected accordingly by the substitution of their representative Union in place of the previous one which has lost its registration as aforesaid. But that has not been done. But, apart from the question of section 36 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the workmen themselves could come before the Tribunal in the matter of their dispute. That is also not done. Of course, in the face of the reference not being revoked, it would be difficult for the Tribunal to allow them to do so unless each of the workers concerned was properly identified.

So, regard being had to all these facts and circumstances, I find that the present reference cannot be maintained in law. The Tribunal is not competent to decide the issues in the present circumstances. It accordingly rejects the refrence in its present form. This is my award.

For the Company: Shri P. K. Sengupta, Advocate, instructed by Shri R. N. Sengupta, Labour Officer.

Issue

Whether the workmen mentioned in the attached list are entitled to compensation for the period of lay-off as noted in the list?

AWARD

Decisions

Issue No. 1: The Union states that pursuant to a joint conference held at the chamber of the Hon'ble Labour Minister, Government of West Bengal, on 27th January 1956, in connection with a strike, the factory of the Company resumed work on 30th January 1956. Though there was no recorded minutes of proceedings signed by the parties, the Union after resumption of work after the said conference placed the points for discussion before the Hon'ble Labour Minister for confirmation by letter, dated 4th February 1956, a copy of which is enclosed and marked Annexure "A" to the Union's written statement. It is stated that it was agreed as it was mentioned in the letter, Annexure "A" that the workers of the Glass section in case of furnace being found to be not in order would be put in rotation. It is further stated that in violation of the agreement arrived at the aforesaid conference the Company refused either to work the Glass section in rotation or to pay lay-off benefit to the workers. The Company also did not make any consultation with representative of the Union in the matter of furnace, etc. The Union, therefore, claims full wages for the period of unemployment for workmen or in any case lay-off benefits as provided in the Industrial Disputes Act.

The Company in its written statement states as follows: The workers of the factory struck work on and from 16th February 1955 to 16th March 1955. The factory was reopened on 17th February 1955 after a memorandum of settlement, dated 16th March 1955. A copy of the memorandum of settlement appears as Annexure 1 to the Company's written statement. The workers again launched a strike without any notice as required by the Standing Orders of the Company on 19th and 20th October 1955 for limited periods on both these days. On the 21st October 1955, the workers again struck work and stayed within the factory and the Company was bound to declare lock-out in the evening of 21st October 1955 after factory hours when the workers refused to vacate the factory. This strike on the 19th October 1955, 20th October 1955 and also on 21st October 1955 was staged and continued even though a proceeding before the Seventh Industrial Tribunal was pending by virtue of the Government order No. 3568-Dis./D/10-1-106/55, dated 4th August 1955. The strikers left the factory and gave up possession thereof on 28th October 1955 at 8-30 p.m. at the intervention of Labour Commissioner. The Company lifted the lock-out with effect from 2nd November 1955 after issue of appropriate notices. The majority of workers however continued the strike and a negligible number reported for duty on and from 2nd November 1955. A copy of the notice of lifting the lock-out which is dated 31st October 1955 appears as Annexure 1(i) in the Company's written statement. The strikers thereafter continually intimidated the willing workers and stopped them from joining work and even essential personnels were not allowed to go and report to duty. The result of such continued strike and interference even with essential hands was that for want of necessary supervision and feeding required for keeping the furnaces going and to be kept in order, these furnaces were getting chocked and losing their lives. No effective step was taken in spite of the various representations made by the Company to the authorities concerned to keep the furnaces going and as a result, the furnace No. 1 ultimately became out of commission when the factory resumed work on 31st January 1956. In the meantime, i.e., when the lockout was lifted on 2nd November 1955 two notices were issued laying off a number of workers as it was found impossible to resume work both in the Lamp Section and in the Glass Section with intimation that those to whom leave was due would be allowed to avail of leave during this period of "lay-off" with pay. The said two notices are Annexure 5 to the Company's written statement. The Company in its letter, dated 27th December 1955, and marked Annexure 2 to its written statement, wrote to the Joint Secretary, Labour Department, to help the Company to save the furnaces from destruction and loss. On 27th December 1955 the Company also issued notices, individually to 187 persons (Ext. D series) pointing out the difficulties that would result out of such continuous absence and the copy of the said notice is marked Annexure 3. The Company also wrote to the Labour Commissioner on 28th December 1955 (Annexure 4) and on 10th January 1956 (Annexure 6) about the absence of the workers from work and the difficulties confronting the Company. On 27th January 1956, a conference was held in the presence of the Hon'ble Minister, Labour Department, and certain terms were arrived at on the request of the Hon'ble Minister. On the 30th January 1956, Shri S. K. Roy, the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company recorded a memorandum of discussions that took place in presence of the Hon'ble Labour Minister, and in the presence of representatives of Labour Commissioner's office. This letter appears in Annexure 7 to the Company's written statement. The Company also informed by letter, dated 30th January 1956, to the Inspector of Factories regarding the conditions of the furnaces and the apprehension of the collapse of these furnaces.

This letter is Annexure 8. On 3rd February 1956 a further representation from the Company was received by the Hon'ble Minister, Labour Department. On 4th February 1956 Shri S. K. Roy, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Company, intimated and recorded the discussions that took place on 3rd February 1956. A copy of the letter was sent to the Joint Secretary, Labour Department. These two letters are marked as Annexure 9. As a large number of workers were without any work and as no work was available for them due to the unworkable condition of the furnace No. 1 notices of lay-off were issued and a copy of notice was sent to the Joint Secretary, Labour Department. Annexure 10 is a copy of that letter along with a copy of the notice issued on 30th January 1956. The letter to the Joint Secretary was dated 11th February 1956. On 2nd March 1956, the Company received a representation headed by Shri Amiya Ranjan Roy, dated 1st March 1956, regarding certain allegations on "rotations" and "Lay-off". On 6th March 1956 the Company replied to the said representation on allegation of "rotation" and "Lay-off" and these allegations were denied. The representation and reply thereto by the Company were shown as Annexure 11 to the Company's written statement. On 16th March 1956 by a letter addressed to the Labour Commissioner the Company again recorded the talks and the terms that were discussed on 11th May 1956, with Shri S. K. Bhattacharjee, Labour Officer, and this letter is Annexure 12. On 4th June 1956 the Company in a letter sent a resume to the Labour Commissioner regarding the "lay-off" and other incidents or claims arising out of and in connection with such "lay-off". This letter is Annexure 13 and the notices mentioned in this letter are Annexure 14. The Company then states that there was a conference at the instance of the Labour Minister on 27th January 1956 in connection with the strike but it was not a joint conference in the sense that the workers' representative also took part in it. The Company specifically denies that there was any question of "rotation" at all. The Company also denies the allegation that there was any question of consultation with Shri Ajit Sarkar in the matter of furnace as alleged in Annexure A. The Company states that the lay-off was a direct result of an unjustified and illegal strike during the pendency of an industrial dispute and carried on for three and half months and for adoption of "Go-slow" tactics in the working of the Company. The Company denies that the laid-off workmen are entitled to full wages or any wages at all or any compensation as the lay-off was a direct result of their illegal action. It is then stated that the laid-off people are not entitled to any wages under the Industrial Disputes Act.

The question at issue is, if the laid-off workers as mentioned in the list in the order of reference are entitled to any wage or lay-off compensation under the Industrial Disputes Act. The Union's case is that as according to the agreement in the conference before Hon'ble Labour Minister the Company was to lay-off workers in "rotation" in consultation with representative of the Union, and as the Company did not do so, the workers are entitled to wages or at least lay-off compensation for the period of lay-off under the Act. The Company's case is that there was no agreement for laying-off workmen in rotation. There was necessity for lay-off and that as the workers had to be laid-off as a consequence of an unjustified and illegal strike for a period of three and half months and for adoption of go-slow movement prior to the date of strike, the workmen are not entitled to any benefit in the form of wage or compensation during the period of lay-off.

Evidence was addduced by both the parties. P.W. 1 Shri Manindra Sen deposed for the Union and O.P.W. 1 Shri Nirmal Chandra Sen deposed for the Company. Ext. 1 being the list of laid-off workmen with the names of the workers working in the same trade was filed by the Union. Documents Ext. A to Ext. E(35) were marked for the Company. The documents marked as exhibits include the originals of all the Annexures to the Company's written statement.

The order of reference shows the list of the laid-off workers whose entitlements to compensation or wage for the lay-off period is to be decided in this proceeding. There has been some misdescription with regard to some of the workers. It was stated by both the parties that there was no worker of the name of Jagnan Saha, No. 19 in list No. 2, Bungru Singh, No. 53, Naren Das, No. 68, and Bhaskar Jana, No. 81 in list No. 7. It also appears that No. 67 Fazul Haque in list No. 7 left for Pakistan sometime ago. It is also admitted by both the parties that Jahir Ali No. 3 in list No. 5, left the Company's service long ago and Chunilal Chatterji, No. 14 of list No. 7 resigned from the Company's service. It is also admitted by both the parties that Dibya Singh Shasmal, No. 45 in list No. 7, is since dead. It also appears that No. 47 of list No. 7 described as Golam really stands for a worker named Golap. It further appears that there is no worker by the name of Chowneshwar, being No. 19 of list No. 7 and that Chunilal Dey, No. 12 of list No. 7, was dismissed for irregular attendance by the Company sometime ago, and a case under section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act is pending in respect of him. Barring these 11 persons, the order of reference in respect of the list of the laid-off workers appears to be without any defect.

Evidence on record shows that the workers were on strike from 16th February 1955 to 16th March 1955 and work was resumed on 17th March 1955 after a settlement between the parties on 16th March 1955. The Memorandum of Settlement appears in Annexure 1 to the Company's written statement (Ext. E). Paragraph (i) of this document shows that it was agreed between the parties that the workers of the Pot Furnace Section and Lamp Section, in case of emergency, would avail of the due leave and reasonable leave in advance to tide up the situation in those departments and if on availing of the said benefit the Management felt that yet further time had to be taken, the workers might be laid-off in batches and in terms of the Industrial Disputes Act. The workers launched a strike for a short period on the 19th and 20th October 1955, and again on 21st October 1955. On the 21st October 1955 the workers did not vacate the factory and started a stay-in-strike and were in occupation of the factory till the 28th October 1955, on which date, they vacated at 8-30 p.m. The strike was launched at a time when a proceeding before the Seventh Industrial Tribunal in respect of an industrial dispute between the Company and its workmen was pending. The award in respect of this proceeding was published in the Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary, dated 15th March 1956, and the order of reference was made on 4th August 1955. The Company declared a lock-out in the evening of 21st October 1955 and this lock-out was lifted on and from 2nd November 1955 after appropriate notices being issued on the workers. The notice appears in Ext. F(7). The majority of the workers did not attend the factory and the evidence is that the strikers intimidated the willing workers and stopped them from joining work. On the day the lock-out was lifted, the Company issued two notices laying-off a number of workers, as it was found impossible to resume normal work in both the Lamp Section and the Glass Section with intimation that those to whom leave was due would be allowed to avail of the leave with pay. These notices appear as Exts E(31) and E(32). As a result of a conference with the Hon'ble Labour Minister on 27th January 1956, the workers resumed work with effect from 30th

January 1956. A memorandum of the decisions taken at the conference with the Hon'ble Labour Minister was communicated by the Company to the Hon'ble Minister in a letter, Ext. E(28), dated 30th January 1956. The Union's case is that they communicated a memorandum of the details of the talk with the Hon'ble Labour Minister to the Hon'ble Labour Minister by a letter, dated 4th February 1956, being Annexure A to the Union's written statement. Evidence on record shows that even before this strike was launched on the 19th October 1955, the workers adopted go-slow tactics in the factory and this conduct of the workers coupled with the strike which continued for about three and a half months, rendered furnace No. 1 entirely unworkable on 30th January 1956 when work was resumed after the strike. On the instruction of the Hon'ble Labour Minister, the furnace was examined and inspected by the Chief Inspector of Factories, West Bengal, and the evidence on record shows that it was his opinion verbally communicated to O.P.W. 1 that the furnace was entirely unworkable and had to be dismantled. The result was that the Company did not find it possible to employ all the workmen in the Glass Section on the date of the re-opening of the factory on 30th January 1956 and laid-off a large number of workmen for various periods starting from 30th January 1956 to dates as mentioned in the case of seven groups of workmen detailed in the list attached to the order of reference. The dates of the termination of the periods of lay-off in case of the various groups are 12th February 1956, 11th March 1956, 13th March 1956, 27th April 1956, 30th April 1956, 7th May 1956 and till the date of joining of duty in the case of the last group of 90 persons. In the written statement of the Union, this last date has been stated to be 18th June 1956. The lock-out by the Company was lifted originally on 3rd November 1955. The majority of the workers, however, did not join and made the lifting of the lock-out infructuous. Even on that date, the Company found it impossible to employ all the workers of the Lamp and the Glass Sections and issued notices of lay-off on 1st November 1955 in respect of 150 workers in the Lamp Section and 105 workers in the Glass Section. These notices appear as Exts. E(32) and E(31), same as Annexure 5 to the Company's written statement. There is no doubt that the workmen mentioned in the list appended to the order of reference could not be employed on 30th January 1956 and they were laid-off for various periods starting from 30th January 1956, as mentioned above. The Union states that it was agreed that these workers in the Glass Department would be laid-off in rotation in various batches distributing the hardship of unemployment to all workers and that the batches of such rotation of workers were to be selected in consultation with the Secretary and the Assistant Secretary of the Union. This claim has been mentioned in Annexure A to the Union's written statement. It is also stated in the Union's written statement that the Company was to consult the Secretary of the Union, Shri Ajit Sarkar, in the matter of furnace, etc., as agreed to in the conference. The Annexure A to the Union's written statement does not show that the Union Secretary was to be consulted in respect of the furnace. This Annexure in clause (4) shows that it was the Factory Directorate which was to be contacted in respect of the condition of the furnace to ascertain whether it was in order. The Company denies that there was any agreement with the Union to the effect that workers would be laid-off in rotation or in consultation with the Union officials. Ext. E(8) same as Annexure 7, is a letter from the Company to the Hon'ble Minister, Labour Department, stating the details of the talk of the Company's representatives with the Hon'ble Minister on 27th January 1956. This letter is dated 30th January 1956. This letter does not show that there was any agreement as to laying-off of workers by rotation as one of the furnaces had become out of commission, as proper temperature could not be maintained and cracks developed in the recuperator tubes owing to long disuse of the furnace. Ext. E(19), dated 4th June 1956, is a letter by the Works Manager of the Company to the Labour Commissioner, giving a resume of the entire episode of the strike in October 1955, and the lay-off of the workmen as a result thereof. Exts E(1) to Ext. E(18) are papers which show that the Company employed from time to time the laid-off workers as they were found necessary for the working of the establishment. On a consideration of the evidence on record and the circumstances of the case, I do not find that there is any mention of the principle of laying-off of workers by rotation after the re-opening of the factory except in the letter Annexure A to the Union's written statement, dated 4th February 1956, and the representation of the workers in Ext. E(23), dated 1st March 1956. There was a compromise of the dispute before the Seventh Industrial Tribunal between the workers and the Company in which the Company agreed to pay wages for 7 days inclusive of payment for holidays during the pujas in respect of the period of strike on the 19th and the 20th October and thereafter up to the date of rejoining of each individual. It was also agreed in this compromise petition that workers of the Glass Factory shall be laid-off according to the provisions of the Rules and Acts in force and there is no statement of any agreement to lay-off workers in batches by rotation in this compromise petition, which is dated 15th February 1956. The workers in question in this proceeding are those of the Glass Section who were laid-off. In view of all circumstances and evidence on record, it is decided that the claim of the Union that the workers of the Glass Section were to be laid-off in batches by rotation is unjustified. There is nothing to show that the lay-off of the workers as mentioned in the order of reference for the periods in question was in any way unjustified. The only question is whether they are entitled to any payment for the periods of lay-off.

The learned Advocate for the Company pointed out that the laid-off workers were not entitled to any payment for the period of lay-off in view of section 25(E)(iii) of the Industrial Disputes Act, as the lay-off was a result of the strike and slowing down of production on the part of the workmen in the entire establishment. The learned spokesman for the Union pressed that section 25(E)(iii) is not applicable to the present case and was applicable only to the case of lay-off which was due to a strike or slowing down of production on the part of the workmen in another part of the establishment. I have no doubt that in the present case as there was a slow down before the date of the strike on the 19th October 1955, which prevented the Company from completing the furnace as they intended, and there was a strike of the majority of the workmen, which resulted in a closure of the entire establishment, and the essential workers could not also be made to work during the period of strike, section 25(E)(iii) would be applicable, to the case of laid-off workmen in the present case. The workers will not, therefore, be entitled to any compensation for the period of lay-off as laid down in section 25(C) of the Act. The matter can be viewed from another point and it will be found that the claim of the workmen for compensation for the period of lay-off is not also justified. The strike from the 19th of October 1955 was, as has been mentioned above, illegal owing to the pendency of the proceeding before the Seventh Industrial Tribunal between the Company and their workmen. The strike was also a sit down strike from the 21st October 1955 till the 28th October 1955. The Company declared a lock-out on the 21st October 1955, after the workmen staged this sit down strike. This lock-out is to be deemed to be lawful under section 24(3) of the Act, as it was declared in consequence of an illegal strike. The lock-out was formally lifted on 2nd November 1955, but the workers did not attend and willing workers were prevented from attending to work by the striking workers. The result was that the strike continued even beyond 2nd November 1955 till the date of resumption of work on 30th January 1956. The non-employment of a number of workers on 30th November 1956 by laying them off was looking them out for trade reasons and this lockout was lawful and as it was in consequence of an illegal strike, the locked-out workmen were not entitled to any wage or compensation for the period of lock-out being the period of lay-off. It is, therefore, clear that the laid-off workers as mentioned in the order of reference are not entitled to any compensation for the period of lay-off as noted in the list appended to the order of reference.

This issue is accordingly answered.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Smith Stanistreet & Co., Ltd., 18 Convent Road, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Smith Stanistreet Workers' Union, 35-B Wellington Street, Calcutta-13. (Case No. VIII-131 of 1958.)

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI G. PALIT, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Union: Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate.

Present for the Company: Shri N. D. Manna, Counsel.

1. By Government order No. 2465-I.R./D/11L-42/56, dated the 14th June 1958, the aforesaid dispute has been referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal, presided over by me, under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), for adjudication. The said Fifth Industrial Tribunal was constituted under Government notification No. 808-I.R./LR/3A-2/57, dated the 11th March 1957.

2. The reference was received here on 20th June 1958. The written statement was filed by the Union on 15th July 1958. The Company filed written objection on 21st August 1958. The Counsel on behalf of the Company raised a preliminary legal objection on 26th November 1958 against the maintainability of the order of reference. The Union filed its objection thereto. The matter was heard on 3rd December 1958 on the point of legal objection of the Company aforesaid. The decision was reserved.

3. The issues which were raised for determination in the order of reference stand as follows:—

(1) Dearness allowance.

(2) Continuity of service.

(3) Casual leave with pay of workmen employed in the factory.

(4) Duty hours of workmen employed in head office.

AWARD

4. Without going into the merit of the issues raised, I take up the legal objection, viz., how far this case, as framed, is maintainable, as it goes to the very root of the Tribunal's jurisdiction. If the Tribunal lacks jurisdiction, then its award on the issues specified in the reference would be null and void. The learned Counsel on behalf of the management contends that under section 19(6) of the Industrial Disputes Act, as amended, an award does not automatically lapse after a period of one year, as mentioned in sub-section 3. It continues to be binding on the parties until a period of two months has elapsed from the date on which notice is given by any party bound by the award to the other party or parties, intimating its intention to terminate the award. As no such notice or intimation was given in the present case, the award of Shri P. K. Sarkar, Judge, Industrial Tribunal, as per the Government order No. 2748-Lab., dated 6th June 1949, still operates, and continues to be binding on the parties. In that view of the matter, the present reference relating to identical issues cannot be sustained in law. He relies on section 3 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950, in support of his contention.

Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate, on behalf of the workmen, contends that the said section 3 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act is not applicable here because it is not retrospective. He relies on the decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal given in, Calcutta Appeal Nos. 151 and 164 of 1951, dated 30th August 1951, in connection with the case of Bengal Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. Referring to the decision of the Hon'ble Judges of the Labour Appellate Tribunal he contends that the awards of Shri P. K. Sarkar has lapsed after one year. Section 19(6) of the amended Act which came into force on 20th May 1950 could not stop automatic termination of the previous award because this section was not made retrospective. If it was meant to be retrospective having created an obligation, it should have been made expressly or impliedly so.

Turning to the evidence on record I find that the award of Shri P. K. Sarkar was admittedly alive, and in operation on 20th May 1950 when section 19(6) came to be a law. This section made it imperative that an award should continue to be binding till it is terminated by the parties by proper notice. Now, the question is whether this new section should govern also the award of Shri P. K. Sarkar which was passed so far back as in June 1949. If the award of Shri Sarkar was already in operation for one year next before the date when section 19(6) came to be in operation. it could easily be said that the said section could not govern that award. The section aforesaid could not touch an award which had died a natural death by the lapse of one year from the date it came into force under Government notification. In other words, this section 19(6) could not revive a defunct award and make it continue to be binding on the parties. But in the present case the position is not that. It can very well be assumed that it was the law with effect from 20th May 1950 that an award must not automatically lapse after one year, but must continue to be binding until its termination by notice is caused by the parties. The award required to be terminated to cease to be binding. Under the old law an award had automatic termination. Under the new law of 1950 the old law is rescinded or rather modified. Regarding the force of the new law, section 3 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950, is relevant. Under this new Act the said section 19(6) came to be operative. Section 3 of the aforesaid new Act runs as follows:—

> "The provisions of this Act and of the rules and orders made thereunder shall have effect notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any instrument having effect by virtue of any such law".

So the force of this section is that section 19(6) introduced hereunder should override any other legal provision inconsistent therewith. In that view of the matter automatic termination under the old law stands superseded by the new section 19(6). So awards which were subsistent on 20th May 1950 requires to be terminated under this new section. If it is contended that even the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act is no longer the law, since it is abrogated, by the Act of 1956, I do not think that this contention is tenable because in the new Act also section 19(6) has been reproduced verbatim as before.

Regarding the contention of the Union that section 3 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act cannot be construed or interpreted as having retrospective effect, I am unable to agree. Acts which create an obligation or which take away a vested right are required to be made expressly or by implicaton retrospective. But in the present case, section 19(6) does not create any obligation or take away any vested right. It merely confers a privilege on the parties to terminate the award by their own action after the expiry of one year by a notice. It is not open to the Union to contend that the new Act creates an obligation upon the workmen by making the award to continue. If any obligation under the award is cast under the new Act, that is cast on the management. But the management does not oppose it,—rather, it opposes the objection against the automatic lapse of the award. So the section 3 need not be retrospective expressly.

Regarding the observation of the Hon'ble Judges of the Labour Appelate Tribunal in the case of Bengal Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. concerning the scope of secton 19(6) of the amended Act, the objection there came from the Company, and the matter was whether there could be any waiver of such a legal right. Even accepting the interpretation of the Hon'ble Judges in its broadest aspect, I must say that the section was required to be restrospective on its face only when it created a new obligation or took away a vested right. It does not do either in the present case. So I see no reason why section 19(6) should not govern the award which was passed before it came into being, but which was subsisting on the date of its operation and thereafter. The Government notification, which was stressed, to make the award operative only for a year does not go far enough. Awards are no more than recommendations. They become binding only under orders of Government. When Government said that the award would remain in operation for one year, it merely reiterated the provision of the Statute. But when the statutory provision itself was amended, I do not think that the said Government order could be invoked to make the award lapse after one year contrary to the existing law.

Having regard to all these facts and circumstances, I find that the old award not being annulled by a notice under the law, is still operative. Unless it is terminated, the present reference cannot be maintained. This is for obvious reasons because in case the previous award is in operation, I canot give a new award which may militate against it. That will also embarrass the parties as to which of the awards to follow. So I have no option but to reject the present reference. But then I have to see if the issues are identical. I find that they are so. There are in this case issues relating to dearness allowance, casual leave and duty hours of workmen in the Head Office as in the award of Shri P. K. Sarkar. Of course, here the Head Office has been mentioned, but that makes no substantial change. The issue No. 2 about the continuity of service is also covered by the award of Shri S. N. Modak, published in L.A.C. 1953, as admitted in paragraph 17 of the Union's written statement. That award also has not been terminated. So I give an award that the present reference in the absence of termination by notice is liable to be rejected, and I reject it accordingly.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, filed by Shri Shewdeo Singh, an employee of Messrs. Hindusthan Development Corporation Ltd., 38 Tiljala Road, Calcutta-39, against the aforesaid company. (Case No. 34/33A of 1959.)

BEFORE THE SECOND LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI P. C. MAITRA, M.A., B.L., Presiding Officer, Second Labour Court.

An application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act was filed by Shri Shewdeo Singh, an employee of Messrs. Hindusthan Development Corporation Ltd., against the abovementioned company in connexion with the Government order No. 5441-I.R., dated 20th December 1956, before the Fifth Industrial Tribunal. The said Tribunal by virtue of Government notification No. 1916-I.R., dated 13th May 1958, transferred the above case to this Court for adjudication.

Usual notices were served on both the parties and both the parties appeared before me and prayed for some time as the case is likely to be amicably settled. I am glad to note that finally they have come to an amicable settlement.

Facts of the case in brief appears to be that on 19th January 1957, the workman concerned was charge-sheeted by the company for his alleged offence of an attempt to carry away a new round file on his person which is a misconduct entailing dismissal under the certified Standing Orders of the Company. The workman gave his reply and an enquiry was held on 25th January 1957 and on 29th January 1957 the Union wrote to the company for allowing the petitioner to resume his duty as his suspension period was over. On 31st January 1957, the workman concerned received a letter from the company suspending him, pending final permission of the Tribunal. The workman contends that this suspension order is illegal and he prayed for reinstatement with back wages.

The company has denied that there was any victimisation or unfair labour practice on their side and they state further that proper charge-sheet was made to which the workman concerned replied and an enquiry was held in this matter. The workman was kept under suspension pending permission of the Tribunal. The company further contended that the petitioner is guilty of gross misconduct under the Standing Orders and they had rightly dismissed him and the present application under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act is not maintainable.

FINDINGS

After the parties took time for coming to an amicable settlement, the case was fixed for hearing on 11th December 1958 and on that day both the parties appeared before me and filed a joint petition. The company has agreed to pay the petitioner a sum of Rs. 900 only in full and final settlement of all his claims and the company has further agreed to pay the provident fund contribution, both employer's share and employee's share in full, up to January 1957. The workman accepts retrenchment from his service and will not raise any industrial dispute as to termination of his service or otherwise.

In view of the fact that both the parties have come to an amicable settlement and the terms of compromise appears to me to be fair and reasonable, I would give a compromise award into the matter and the petition of compromise will form a part of my award.

Taken at my dictation and corrected by me.

By order of the Governor,
S. C. MUKHERJEE, Asst. Secy.

ORDER

No. 5582-I.R./IR 11L-342/56.—30th December 1958.—Whereas under the Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, order No. 379-I.R./D/11L-342/56, dated the 1st February 1958, the industrial dispute between Messrs. Smith Stanistreet & Co., Ltd., 18 Convent Road, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Smith Stanistreet Workers' Union, 35-B Wellington Street, Calcutta-13, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order being matters specified in the third schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred for adjudication to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal;

And whereas the said Fifth Industrial Tribunal has submitted to the State Government its award on the said industrial dispute;

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the provisions of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the Governor is pleased hereby to publish the said award as shown in the annexure hereto.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute existing between Messrs. Smith Stanistreet & Co., Ltd., 18 Convent Road, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by Smith Stanistreet Workers' Union, 35-B Wellington Street, Calcutta-13. (Case No. VIII-20 of 58.)

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI G. PALIT, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

Present for the Union: Shri D. L. Sen Gupta, Advocate.

Present for the Company: Shri N. D. Manna, Counsel.

1. By Government order No. 379-I.R./IR/11L-342/56, dated the 1st February 1958, the aforesaid dispute has been referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal, presided over by me, for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947). The said Fifth Industrial Tribunal was constituted under Government notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated 11th March 1957.

2. The reference was received here on 5th February 1958. The Union filed written statement on 28th February 1958. The Company filed written objection on 2nd April 1958. After several adjournments the case was taken up for hearing on preliminary ground on 3rd December 1958. Heard both sides. The order was reserved.

3. The issues which arose for determination as per the order of reference are as follows:—

(1) Revision of wages and scales.

(2) Additional bonus for 1956.

(3) Revision of piece-rate wages.

AWARD

4. The learned Counsel on behalf of the management has raised an objection that the present reference is bad in law, and cannot be maintained because there is an award given by Shri P. K. Sarkar, Judge, Industrial Tribunal, in respect of this very Company, as per Government order No. 2748-Lab., dated 6th June 1949. As the said award has not been admittedly terminated in pursuance of section 19(6) of the Industrial Disputes Act, as amended in 1950, it still subsists. In the face of this subsisting award the Tribunal is not competent to pass any fresh award touching the issues which are substantially indentical.

The learned Advocate on behalf of the Union contends that the award of Shri P. K. Sarkar relating to this Company was passed in June 1949 under the old Act. As that Act provided under section 19(3) that an award would lapse after one year from the date it is enforceable under Government order, the award in question has lapsed, and it should be taken as terminated automatically. At that time there was no such provision as in section 19(6) of the subsequent Act requiring the parties to terminate an award by a notice.

Turning to the legal position of the case, I find that I must concur with the contention of the management. Section 19(6) of the Industrial Disputes Act, as amended in 1950, requires an award to be terminated by either of the parties concerned by notice, and till such termination is effected the award continues to be binding on the parties. This provision was introduced on 20th May 1950 under Act No. XLVIII of 1950 styled as Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act of 1950. On 20th May 1950 the award of Shri P. K. Sarkar was admittedly subsisting. It is also admitted that there has been given no notice by either of the parties to terminate the said award. As section 19(6) hits all awards which had been subsisting on 20th May 1950 as also awards given thereafter, the award of Shri P. K. Sarkar must have been hit by this section. If it is so hit, then in the absence of its termination by the parties as aforesaid, it should be taken as subsisting and binding on the parties. In that case a fresh reference relating to the same subject matter substantially cannot lie for obvious reasons because if the Tribunal entertains such a reference and gives an award contrary to the subsisting one, then there will result a clash and the parties will be in an embarrassing position as to which of the awards to follow, and which of the two to subsist. So, unless the previous award is put to a termination or annuled, a fresh award on the same point in respect of the same Company cannot be given in law.

Next, coming further to the legal question, I find in section 3 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act that provisions therein of the Act have been made to be effective notwithstanding anything inconsistent therewith contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any instrument having effect by virtue of any such law. Now, if the award of Shri P. K. Sarkar was to become defunct on automatic termination after one year from the date it was made enforceable, under the old law, then the said law in question is in direct conflict with the present law under section 19(6) as introduced by the Act of 1950 aforesaid. So section 19(6), in such circumstances, ought to prevail. The learned Advocate on behalf of the Union further contends that section 19(6), as amended in 1950 does not appear to be expressly retrospective. If it was meant to be retrospective, it should have been made so either expressly or by necessary implication because, he contends, it was going to take away a vested right of the workmen or was going to create a new obligation. He refers to the decision of the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal in the case of Bengal Chemical and Pharmaceutical Works Ltd. in, Calcutta Appeal Nos. 151 and 164 of 1951. Of course, I must admit that section 19(6) has not been made retrospective in so many words. If it is taken along with section 3 of the Industrial Disputes (Appellate Tribunal) Act, 1950, then to a certain extent this retrospective character of the section becomes manifest because section 3 is sweeping and comprehensive in its scope. Besides, section 19(6) does not take away any vested right. It does neither create nor cast any obligation touching the parties. What is the vested right of the Union that is being taken away? An automatic lapse of an award cannot be construed as a vested right of the Union. There is no obligation imposed on the parties. What is imposed is merely a privilege which the parties did not have before. The termination of an award has been left in the hands of the parties by means of a notice. If the lengthening of the life of an award means the lengthening of obligation, then complaint, if at all, may come from the management. But here the management does not complain,—rather it takes the award as continuing and does not oppose such continuance. In the case before the Labour Appellate Tribunal, as mentioned above, it was the Company which contended that the award was at an end by the lapse of time. So in that view of the matter also it cannot be said that the old award of Shri P. K. Sarkar, Tribunal, has lapsed automatically after one year from the date it was made enforceable, and it is not required to be formally terminated by a notice under section 19(6) of the Act. The Judges of the Hon'ble Appellate Tribunal stressed the fact that by Government notification an award was made operative for one year, and that it must lapse automatically after that period. That the award will last for one year from the date it is made enforceable under Government order also finds place in the new Act of 1950. But, that it will lapse after one year is neither in the Government order nor in the Act. All that follows from the Act is that an award will remain in operation for one year. Its "automatic termination" after one year is a sort of inference which can very well be negatived by an express provision of law as under section 19(6) of the amended Act.

So, regard being had to all the facts and circumstances, I find that section 19(6) of the Industrial Disputes Act, after amendment in 1950, hits the award of Shri P. K. Sarkar, Tribunal, and in the absence of its termination done by the parties, that award is still operative. That being so, the present reference is liable to be rejected.

Here a question may arise, whether the present reference is liable to be rejected in toto or in part. If I place the issues concerned in the last reference side by side with the issues for determination in the present reference, I find that the issues Nos. (1) and (3) in the present reference tally with those in the aforesaid award of Shri P. K. Sarkar. But the issue No. (2) in the present reference, viz., "additional bonus for 1956" is a new one. So the point for decision is whether the present reference should be liable to be rejected only with regard to the issues which are identical with the issues in the past reference, or the present reference as a whole should be abrogated. My decision is that a particular reference is one integral whole, and there can be no two separate awards in respect of one single reference. There may be "interim awards" given, but not separate awards. A reference cannot be split up in parts for separate awards. So, I cannot pass one award in respect of the issues (1) and (3) saying that the reference is not maintainable in law, and the other on merit in respect of the issue No. (2). I am afraid, this is not permissible in law. So I reject the entire reference as bad in law. This is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of an industrial dispute between Messrs. Das Brothers, 14 Garanhatta Street, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by the Press Employees' Association, 249/B Bowbazar Street, Calcutta. [Case No. VIII-133(59)/57.]

BEFORE THE FIRST INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI M. C. BANERJI, District Judge (Retd.), Judge, First Industrial Tribunal.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Labour Department, by order No. 1586-I.R./IR/13L-4/57, dated 17th May 1957, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. Das Brothers, 14 Garanhatta Street, Calcutta, and their workmen represented by the Press Employees' Association, 249/B Bombazar Street, Calcutta, relating to the undermentioned issues to this Tribunal for adjudication.

Issues

(1) Application of the scales of pay under the 1951 Award to all the workmen concerned.

(2) Dearness allowance.

(3) Arrears of increments.

(4) Service condition.

(5) Leave and holidays.

(6) Whether the workmen are entitled to bonus for the years 1955 and 1956 and if entitled what should be the quantum of such bonus?

Notices were issued on both the parties, who filed written statements setting forth their respective cases.

The pleadings of the parties will be considered at the decision of the issues here below.

The appearances for the parties were as follows:—

For the Union: Shri Biswanath Das, Advocate, instructed by Shri Jatin Chakravorty, M.L.A., President, and Shri Indu Bhusan Sarkar, Secretary.

For the Company: Shri N. K. Mukherjee, Advocate.

The issues that were framed for the decision of this case are the same as those mentioned in the order of reference and are as follows:—

Issues

(1) Application of the scales of pay under the 1951 Award to all the workmen concerned.

(2) Dearness allowance.

(3) Arrears of increments.

(4) Service condition.

(5) Leave and holidays.

(6) Whether the workmen are entitled to bonus for the years 1955 and 1956 and if entitled what should be the quantum of such bonus?

The order of reference described the employers as "Messrs. Das Brothers (Printing) Ltd., 14 Garanhatta Street, Calcutta." The Company, in its written statement, pleaded that the description of the employer, as mentioned in the order of reference, was not correct inasmuch as, there was no such Company carrying on business at 14 Garanhatta Street, Calcutta. It was pleaded that in view of this fact, the proceedings upon the order of reference, were not maintainable in law. The Company also stated in its written statement that Messrs. Das Brothers carry on business and maintain a printing press at 14 Garanhatta Street, Calcutta, and unless the said industry was brought on record by a fresh order of reference, adjudication on the present order of reference was not maintainable. The Government, by order No. 5112-I.R./IR/13L-4/57, dated 27th December 1957, issued a corrigendum by which it was stated that the Company Messrs. Das Brothers (Printing) Ltd. as mentioned in the order No. 1586-I.R./IR/13L-4/57, dated 17th May 1957, and its addendum No. 3817-I.R./IR/13L-4/57, dated 27th September 1957, should be read "Messrs. Das Brothers". The name of the employer was, therefore, amended by the order of the Government, dated 27th December 1957.

The learned Advocate for the Company raised the issue that the present reference was incompetent, in view of the erroneous description of the employer on the order of reference, although it was amended subsequently. A fresh Issue is, therefore, framed as follows:—

Issue No. 7: Whether the order of reference is competent.

AWARD

Decisions

Issue No. 7: The learned Advocate for the Company argued at the time of his address that the name of the Company was wrong on the order of reference, dated 17th May 1957, as also on the order of addendum, dated 27th September 1957, and the name was amended to "Messrs. Das Brothers", which was a correct description of the Company, on 27th December 1957. The learned Advocate for the Company stated that this order of amendment, dated 27th December 1957, amounted to a cancellation of the original order of reference and referred to the decision of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the case of State of Bihar versus D. N. Ganguli and others, reported in 1952(II) L.L.J., 634, in support of his contention. The objection of the learned Advocate is unworthy of support. The case of State of Bihar mentioned above relates to one of rescinding or cancelling an order of reference and the Hon'ble Supreme Court decided that the Government could not rescind or cancel the order of reference. In the present case, the order of reference was neither rescinded nor cancelled; it was only amended in respect of the description of the name of the employer. The Government has got the powers under section 21 of the General Clauses Act to amend an order of reference. The case of the Hon'ble Supreme Court mentioned above did not relate to the question of the power of the Government to amend or add to a reference made under section 10(1) of the Act and this fact has been mentioned by the Hon'ble Court at page 644 of the Report (left-hand side column). The question as to whether the Government could amend or add to the order of reference under section 10 of the Act has been considered by the Hon'ble High Court at Calcutta in a case reported in the "West Bengal Labour Gazette," June, 1957, page 10 and the decision was that the Government had the power to amend an order of reference made by it and a corrigendum to that effect was valid. There can be no doubt that this Tribunal is bound by an interpretation of law made by the Calcutta High Court [vide decision of the Bombay High Court in 1955(II) L.L.J., 202]. That being so, it is decided that the amendment of the order of reference as made by the Government on 27th December 1957 was competent and the present order of reference is maintainable.

This issue is accordingly answered.

Issue Nos. 1 and 2: There was an award between the parties, which was published by the order of the Government, dated 22nd June 1949. In that award, (1) minimum basic wages, (2) dearness allowance, (3) grades and scales of pay for the workmen and the supervisory staff and (4) adjustment of the new grades and scales were four of the issues for adjudication. The learned Judge of the Tribunal made an award on these issues generally following his Omnibus Award in respect of 169 Printing Presses on an order of reference, dated 10th February 1949. The learned Tribunal laid down the salary grades and scales of each individual employee of the Company in Appendix C. Appendix A showed the agreed list of classification of workmen with minimum and maximum basic pay. Appendix A(1) showed the scales of increments in the several grades. Annexure B showed the Standing Orders framed by the Tribunal and Appendix C showed the adjusted grades of the individual employees of the Company. There was a Second Omnibus Tribunal in respect of 90 Printing Presses of Calcutta and Howrah in which Shri A. Das Gupta, District Judge, was the Adjudicator, and this award was published in the "Calcutta Gazette," dated 1st March 1951. The present Company was not a party to the First or the Second Omnibus Tribunal Proceedings. In the Second Omnibus Tribunal, published on 1st March 1951, no alteration was made in the grades and scales of pay and dearness allowance, as laid down by the First Omnibus Award. The learned Judge only laid down the grades scales of pay for some special categories of workmen, who were not considered in the First Omnibus Award. In the First Omnibus Award, the learned Tribunal allowed dearness allowance at Rs. 22 per month. This was also maintained in the Second Omnibus Award by the Original Tribunal. This dearness allowance was, however, increased to Rs. 28 per month on appeal by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal and this decision was also upheld by the Hon'ble Supreme Court. In the present case, the Union claims that the Company should introduce with effect from 1st April 1955, the scales of pay of different categories of workmen on the basis of Omnibus Award of 1951 and that the Company should increase from 1st April 1955 the existing rate of dearness allowance to Rs. 28 per month as per abovementioned Press Award. These are the first two issues in this proceedings. The Company, in its written statement, states that there was an award made by Shri A. Das Gupta, Judge, Industrial Tribunal, between the parties, which was published in the "Calcutta Gazette" on 23rd June 1949, in which grades and scales of pay, dearness allowance, rules of service and leave and holidays were also the subject-matter of the adjudication. The employer implemented the provisions of the said award during the period of the operation of the award and also beyond the said period of operation. It is further stated that inasmuch as, there has been no change in the circumstances, no grounds for revision of the grades and scales as prescribed in the award of 1949, has been shown and there is no justification for revision of the same. In addition, it is to be considered that the financial condition of the employer has deteriorated and in view of this fact, no further revision of the grades and scales of pay or dearness allowance should be made. The employer is financially incapable of paying any higher dearness allowance than was prescribed in the award of 1949 between the parties.

Evidence was adduced by both the parties. P.W. 1 Shri Sudhanya Bodak, an employee of the Company and Shri Biswanath Das, a Machineman, under the Company, deposed for the Union. Documents, Exts. 1 to 2 were marked for the Union. O.P.W. 1 Shri Kamal Krishna Das, Partner of Messrs. Das Brothers, deposed for the Company, and documents, Ext. A to Ext. H were marked for the Company. Exhibit A to Ext. E(2) are the balance-sheets of the Company for 1360 B.S., 1361 B.S., 1362 B.S., 1363 B.S. and 1364 B.S. The balance-sheets are all audited accounts. The profits in the several years appear to be as follows:—

	Rs.	a.	p.
1360 B.S.	6,683	15	0
1361 B.S.	8,843	11	0
1362 B.S.	5,614	14	3
1363 B.S.	3,506	3	9
1364 B.S.	2,064	0	8

It, therefore, appears that the nett profit of the Company is gradually decreasing from year to year. Exhibit 1 is a statement showing the basic pay, dearness allowance and participation in Provident Fund of the employees in the Company as submitted by the Union. Exhibit H is a statement showing designation, length of service and basic pay and dearness allowance of the workmen, as submitted by the Company. I shall consider about the cases of the individual workmen, where necessary, hereafter. Considering, however, the fact that the workers are being paid the grades and scales of pay as laid down in the Award of 1949 by the learned Adjudicator, which was formulated on the lines of the First Omnibus Award in 1948 and that there was no alteration of the grades and scales of pay in the Second Omnibus Tribunal in 1951, it is awarded that the workers shall continue to get the same grades and scales of pay as were laid down by the learned Adjudicator in the award published by notification, dated 22nd June 1949. The dearness allowance, however, was increased from Rs. 22 to Rs. 28 per month in the case of the workmen who were parties to the Second Omnibus Tribunal in 1951. Considering the financial capacity of the present Company, it is awarded that the dearness allowance of the workers of this Company shall be raised from Rs. 22 to Rs. 25 per month for the permanent workers. The apprentices drawing a dearness allowance of Rs. 12 per month shall receive dearness allowance at Rs. 12 per month.

It appears from Ext. H that Nitai Ch. Dhar, apprentice, who has been working for 3 years, is getting a basic pay of Rs. 30 with no dearness allowance. This is also the evidence of O.P.W. 1. Satya Charan Ghosh, apprentice, also gets Rs. 30 only. The statement, Ext. H, shows that he has put in 3 years' service, and in the evidence of O.P.W. 1, this fact is supported. The three apprentices, Shri Satya Charan Ghosh, Shri Nitai Chandra Dhar and Shri Ram Krishna Dikshit have put in 3 years' service and they are not getting any dearness allowance. Shri Biswanath Das, Assistant Machineman, has put in 5 years' service. He gets Rs. 30 as basic pay and Rs. 12 as dearness allowance. Shri Ajit Kumar Sil, who has put in 8 years' service, gets a basic pay of Rs. 30 and a dearness allowance of Rs. 12. Shri Saktipada Rakshit also gets Rs. 30 as basic pay and Rs. 12 as dearness allowance after having put in 8 years' service. Shri Lakshmi Ch. Das, who has put in 3 years' service, gets a basic pay of Rs. 25 and dearness allowance of Rs. 15 only per month. These are cases of anomalies. No one should be kept as an apprentice for more than three years and on the completion of 3 years' of satisfactory work the apprentice should be confirmed and given grades and scales of pay, as laid down by the 1949 Award. If the apprentice shows aptitude of work earlier, he may be confirmed before completion of 3 years by the employer and given the grades scale of pay and the dearness allowance for the permanent workers.

It is awarded that Shri Lakshi Ch. Das, Shri Ajit Kumar Sil, Shri Saktipada Rakshit, Shri Biswanath Das, Shri Satya Charan Ghosh, Shri Nitai Ch. Dhar and Shri Ram Kumar Das should be confirmed with effect from the date of the operation of this award and they should be paid basic wage in the scales of salary, as laid down for their category by the 1949 Award and shall be paid a dearness allowance of Rs. 25 per month from that date. Shri Gopal Chandra Roy should continue as an apprentice till the completion of three years of satisfactory work. The apprentices who are confirmed shall get all the benefits of a permanent employee including that of participation in the Provident Fund with effect from the date of their confirmation.

These issues are accordingly answered.

Issue No. 3: The Union states in its written statement that the Company should grant to each workman increment of his relevant scale as due with effect from August 1949. The Company pleads that it was under no obligation to grant the increments of the scales laid down in 1949 Award after the same was terminated by the workmen.

It is awarded that no arrears of increments should be paid by the Company, in view of its financial condition, but increments should be paid on the grades and scales laid down by the 1949 Award with effect from the date of the enforcement of the present award.

Issue Nos. 4 and 5: Service conditions and leave and holidays were fixed by the 1949 Award in Point No. 8. On a perusal of the award, it appears to me that those conditions of service including leave and holidays as laid down by the learned Tribunal in the 1949 Award should continue.

These issues are accordingly answered.

Issue No. 6: The parties came to an amicable settlement on Issue No. 6 as to bonus for 1955 and 1956. This petition appears as Appendix A to this award. On a perusal of this petition, it appears that the terms of compromise on Issue No. 6 are reasonable and should be accepted. I, therefore, accept the compromise petition on Issue No. 6 and award accordingly. Appendix A shall form a part of this award.

M. C. BANERJI,

Judge, First Industrial Tribunal.

Terms of Settlement

In the matter of the dispute as subsequently referred under order No. 4427Dis./D/11L-202/54, dated 20th September 1954, as amended by order No. 1497Dis./D/11L-32/55, dated 11th April 1956.

This is to place on record that the said disputes in so far as they relate to the grades of Stenographers and Typists only and the case of Kedar Nath Ahir, peon, are settled on the following terms:

1. That the employers in the above matters, have agreed to grant a flat increment of Rs. 10 per month to all Typists and Stenographers with effect from December 1956, to those who were on roll on 31st March 1953 and continue in service today except those who were brought up to the maximum by granting an ad hoc increment in April 1953, but who were paid less than Rs. 10 increment to bring up to the grade minimum shall be paid the difference from December 1956, subject to the fact that annual increment given in April 1953 shall not be taken into account. The said flat increment of Rs. 10 will be paid within a fortnight from the date hereof and then the settlement will be effective.

2. The Union on behalf of the Stenos and Typists accept the existing scales of Stenos and Typists—

Typist—(i) Rs. 75—3—90—EB—95—4—135—EB—140—5—175.

Stenos—(ii) Rs. 85—5—110—EB—120—7—170—EB—180—8—220.

Stenos—(iii) Rs. 95—5—120—EB—130—7½—180—EB—190—10—260.

3. That similarly, the employers of Kedarnath Ahir have agreed to give him the grade of peon and D.A. with effect from 20th September 1954 and have assured to pay him the deficient amount to bring it to the minimum wages and D.A. of the grade of the peon with the annual increments if allowed to him for the past services and D.A. That the said payment will be made within a fortnight from the date hereof. The settlement will be effective from the date of payment.

The aforesaid agreement will finally settle the dispute of the Stenographers and Typists in so far as they relate to their grades only. Kedar Nath Ahir's dispute so far as it related to his designation and past claims in terms of the order of reference is settled. This settlement is without prejudice and shall not in any way affect the rights and contentions of the parties as to the validity of the reference either before the High Court at Calcutta or before the Industrial Tribunal and shall not be used or relied upon by either party as a document in support of their respective contentions in the said High Court or the Tribunal.

4. Casual leave and sick leave.
5. Whether Christmas bakshis on collection should be distributed among the employees.
6. Whether the management was justified in dismissing Sk. Ekramuddin? What relief is he entitled to?

DECISION

Issues 1 and 2 are taken up together for consideration.

The dispute relates to the subordinate staff. Shri Sheikh Ekramuddin who was a member of the subordinate staff was dismissed on 28th January 1957 prior to the date of reference while the Head Clerk and the only other clerk filed a joint petition before this Tribunal stating that they were not members of West Bengal Club Employees' Union and did not authorise the said Union to take up their cause. The dispute so relates only to existing 11 members of the subordinate staff. There was previously an award in the matter by Shri P. K. Sarkar which was published in the Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary, on 18th March 1949. The workmen of the Club were represented at the time by a different Union. After the said award the Management of the Club granted increment in basic wages twice at the rate of Rs. 2 to all the members of the subordinate staff in 1955 and 1956. Their existing wages and D.A. after such increments are admittedly as follows:—

		Pay. Rs.	D.A. Rs.
1.	Sheikh Karim, Abdar ...	44	30
2.	Sheikh Enamuddin, Abdar ...	33	30
3.	Maju, Abdar ...	33	30
4.	Md. Yasin, Billiard Marker ...	44	30
5.	Sheikh Shakawat, Billiard Marker ...	36	30
6.	Bana Nayak, Sweeper ...	29	30
7.	Haladhar Suin, Mali ...	34	30
8.	Wahed Ali, Cook ...	33	30
9.	Kanan Bahadur, Durwan ...	28	30
10.	Pulin Behari, Peon ...	28	30
11.	Kamaluddin, Mashalchi ...	25	15

Of the aforesaid employees, Mashalchi Kamaluddin, I am told, left service two months ago and in his place one Abdul Aziz has been appointed on the same salary of Rs. 25 plus D.A. of Rs. 15 per month.

In the written statement before the Tribunal the Union demands incremental pay scales for the aforesaid categories of workmen as also D.A. at the flat rate of Rs. 40 per month. The Union alleges that due to various factors the cost of living has increased abnormally high since the award, while there has been no corresponding rise in wages of the members of the subordinate staff. Hence the demand as above.

The Club opposes the claims. It is stated that the wages and D.A. granted to the employees compare favourably with those of any other Club of the same standing and that it is not financially possible for the Club to bear any increase in the shape of wages and D.A. Regarding incremental pay scales the Club says that such claim cannot be entertained on the issue referred to as also having regard to the fact that no such demand had been made in the charter of demands leading to the reference.

Regarding claim for incremental pay scales I agree with the Club that on the present reference the claim cannot be entertained, more so, when such demand was not made in the charter of demands. The claim of the Union in the charter of demands it appears was only for an increment in their wage (Ext. 3). The claim of the Union in this respect must so fail.

The Club it appears has also no financial capacity to bear burden of incremental pay scales. As to the wages the Union has not filed anything to show that what is being paid as wages to the different members of the subordinate staff by the Club to compare unfavourably to those in Clubs of similar standing. Except Mashalchi the total emoluments in the shape of wages and D.A. do not go below Rs. 58 for any one. Compared to the minimums in the pay scales demanded by the Union for these workmen, it appears that the existing basic wages are generally higher than the said minimums. Then there has been an increment in the basic wages in 1954 and 1956. In the circumstances I do not think that any revision in the existing basic wages is called for. Regarding D.A. this has remained undisturbed since the award in 1949 except for the sweeper. It cannot be disputed that since then there has been great rise in the cost of living index which justifies claim for increase in D.A. The main consideration in the matter of D.A. is neutralisation in the cost of living. At the same time D.A. must be related to the capacity of the employer to pay. Club's contention that it has no capacity to pay any additional D.A., cannot be sustained. From the balance sheets produced (Ext. A series) it appears that its gross income increased gradually from the year 1954. It further appears that it has been earning profits on all its undertakings. During the year ended 31st December 1957 there remained a balance of Rs. 670 being excess of income over expenditure after making provision for reserve for building renovation to the extent of Rs. 1,000, for bad debts to the extent of Rs. 1,000, for legal expenses to the extent of Rs. 1,200 and staff gratuity to the extent of Rs. 640 (vide Ext. A3). So with little adjustment there would be no difficulty for the Club to grant additional D.A. Considering all the relevant factors D.A. is increased to Rs. 33 per month which I think to be fair. There is no justification to treat the Masalchi differently in this respect. His D.A. is accordingly raised to Rs. 33 per month as for others of the subordinate staff.

The issues are answered accordingly.

Issue 3: The Union demands both Provident Fund and Gratuity under this head. The Club in its balance sheet for the year ended 31st December 1957 made provision for Gratuity of the staff. So, the Club cannot in fairness oppose such claim. The Club is accordingly directed to pay Gratuity at the rate of 15 days' pay for each year of service subject to a maximum of 15 months. Ten years' service as the minimum will entitle the workmen to earn the Gratuity.

As for Provident Fund I do not think it will be fair to direct its introduction now having regard to the limited resources of the Club.

Issue 4: The Union demands as follows: (1) fifteen days' casual leave with pay and (2) fifteen days' sick-leave with pay to accumulate up to six months. The Club says that on the basis of the award of 1949 it has been granting 7 days' casual leave with pay to the workmen and 30 days' privilege leave. It is said that no other Club grants 30 days' privilege leave and so the existing provision for casual leave should not be disturbed. There is nothing on the side of the Union to justify claim for additional casual leave. So, the present system of 7 days' casual leave with pay should continue.

Regarding sick-leave it appears that provision was also made in the previous award of 1949 but both the parties lost sight of the said provision. Be that as it may, I direct that the Club should grant sick-leave for 15 days of which 7 days on full pay and 8 days on half pay to the employees. The Club may require a certificate from a registered medical practitioner in case it has reason to doubt about the fact of illness.

Issue 5: No evidence has been adduced in this respect on either side. The Club claimed that it was paying one month's basic salary from the Christmas collections from members as also from its own fund in the shape of bonus to all the employees and that the award of 1949 directed the Club on the issue of bonus to continue the said system. The Union on the assumption that the amounts collected as bakshis from the members not only yield one month's basic salary but also leave surplus demands that the workmen should also be paid additional sum equivalent to D.A. out of the said bakshis. The issue as framed does not arise the real dispute. Besides in the nature of things bakshis cannot be terms of employment and subject-matter of industrial dispute. The issue is accordingly answered against the workmen.

Issue 6: Shri Sheikh Ekramuddin was bearer No. 1 and a cook in the Club. The case as made out for him in the written statement is that following submission of charter of demands on 12th January 1956 the Management of the Club started unfair labour practice and intimidation; that as Ekramuddin was an active member of the Union, he incurred displeasure of the Club authorities; that he was first suspended on 12th November 1956 and was then reinstated on the intervention of the Labour Directorate; that after this he was again given charge sheet to which he submitted explanation but was dismissed without giving him opportunity to defend himself; and that there was thus violation of the principles of natural justice, and the Club acted on both the occasions from a motive of victimisation. The Club denied charges of victimisation and pleaded that suspension for the incident of 11th November 1956 and dismissal for incident on 19th January 1957 were both justified and bona fide. In support of the case the Union examined the workman concerned Ekramuddin (P.W. 2). The Club, on the other hand, examined the President Mr. Wilfred Kanian Battey (D.W. 1) and the Head Clerk Shri Provat Kumar Banerji (D.W. 2) besides filing the connected documents (Exts. C series, D series and E series).

On giving careful consideration to the evidence and circumstances I find nothing to sustain the case of the workmen. That there had been two incidents, one on 11th November 1956 and the other on 19th January 1957 is not disputed. On 11th November 1956 the President of the Club Mr. Battey (D.W. 1) left the Club at about 11 p.m. and then again returned to the Club with some friends soon after 11-30 p.m. to pick up his car and to take coffee and found that the Club had already been closed and that all the bearers including bearer No. 1 Ekramuddin had left. Ekramuddin as also other bearers were to have been on duty up to the mid-night. The President got the Club opened by the durwan and sent him to bring bearer No. 1 Ekramuddin. Ekramuddin did not come forthwith. According to Ekramuddin (P.W. 2), he was at the time taking meal and so could not return forthwith and he thus sent word through durwan that he would be coming after finishing his meal. Be that as it may, as the Club was closed and as Ekramuddin was not available, President left the Club and on the next date (12th November 1956) he wrote to the Secretary of the Club recommending suspension of Ekramuddin pending enquiry as also giving him charge sheet on three counts. The President also expressed desire that the matter be investigated by a committee consisting of other members as he was personally connected with the incident (Ext. C). Thereupon the Secretary gave Ekramuddin charge sheet on 12th November 1956 and suspended him with immediate effect pending enquiry (Ext. C1). The charges were under three heads:

(1) he closed or caused and permitted to be closed the Club premises before 12 p.m. without permission;

(2) he absented himself from duty before his term had expired without permission;

(3) he refused to return to duty after twice being so ordered although his hour of duty had not expired (vide Ext. C1).

Ekramuddin received the charge sheet on that very day (12th November 1956) (Ext. C2). On 13th November 1956 Ekramuddin submitted his explanation (Ext. C3). In the explanation he admitted that the President after leaving the Club premises at 11-15 p.m. returned to the Club at 11-45 p.m. and sent durwan to call him and that he could not come as he was taking meal. He also admitted that the Club had been closed. He sought to explain it by saying that as there was no member in the Club premises, they had all left for their meal. In the explanation (Ext. C3) Ekramuddin admitted the charges except under item 3 which amounted to wilful disobedience. As a matter of fact his evidence shows that he could not return forthwith as he was then taking meal and about which he sent word through the durwan. Be that as it may, an enquiry was held on 14th November 1956. Ext. C4 is the copy of the proceedings of said enquiry. The committee considered the report of the President (Ext. C), the explanation of the bearer and took evidence of the companion of the President Mr. Begbie and the durwan. The committee recommended suspension for 7 days as also a final warning (Ext. C4). Accordingly, Ekramuddin was suspended from duty without pay from 12th November to 18th November 1956, both days inclusive and was given a final warning that any further serious breach of discipline would be followed by a dismissal (Ext. C5). Before this Tribunal Ekramuddin sought to justify the closing of the Club and his leaving before 12 in the night by saying that a former President of the Club, one Mr. Green, had given them permission to close the Club and leave if no member was attending Club after 11-30 p.m. This is clearly afterthought. No such case was made out in the explanation as already referred to. There he had admitted guilt in respect of the charges under items 1 and 2. So on the materials the management was justified to award punishment by suspension for 7 days and the warning. Regarding awarding of 7 days' suspension I find no serious irregularity as the Club under the standing orders formulated under the award could suspend a workman pending enquiry and could further suspend him by way of punishment for four days on proof of guilt. So suspension for 7 days which covered the period pending the enquiry cannot be accepted as contravening the provisions under the standing orders. In any case from this there can be no inference of mala fide on the part of the management.

Regarding the incident on 19th January 1957 it is not also disputed by the workmen that the proposal for alteration of duty roster of all the employees had been going on from before. The President Mr. Battey it appears drew up a routine with two breaks in this connection. When this was shown to the bearers they could not agree and they suggested change. It was then left to Ekramuddin to draw up a routine in consultation with the other workmen. He supplied such a routine on 9th January 1957 (Ext. E). It suggested 10 hours' duty at a stretch from 1 p.m. to 11 p.m. for two workmen. As this was in contravention of the award the President wanted modification of the same. His wish was duly communicated by the clerk to bearer No. 1. Ekramuddin was not prepared to make any change. Clerk made report about it to the President (Ext. E1). Thereupon the President himself drew up a new duty roster for the employees with direction that it should be enforced from Saturday the 19th instant (Ext. D). This was made over to the clerk for communication and compliance (Ext. D). The evidence shows that in the Club communication to the employees is not made by notice in the notice board but personally by the clerk. The clerk D.W. 2 communicated the new duty roster to bearer No. 1 for compliance. According to D.W. 2, Ekramuddin told him that unless all the bearers were consulted he could not say anything in the matter. Then on Friday (18th January 1957) the evidence of the clerk is that he enquired of Ekramuddin in the morning at 11 a.m. what was the result of consultation with other bearers to which Ekramuddin did not tell anything. The clerk said that he again enquired of him at 4 p.m. when he and bearer No. 3 Sheikh Maju wanted the new roster from him. The clerk did not make over the said roster as he had in his possession only the original then. He says he prepared a copy from the original and made it over to bearer No. 1. His further evidence is that on Saturday (19th January 1957) he found that Ekramuddin was working in the morning as before though his duty according to the new roster was to start work that day from 12 noon. He so told him how he was then working when he was according to the new roster to attend from 12 noon. According to the clerk, Ekramuddin then said that they were not going to work according to new roster. It is the evidence of the clerk that on this he rang up the President Mr. Battey and informed him that the bearers were not willing to work according to the new duty roster. After about 10/15 minutes Mr. Battey came there and asked bearer No. 1 why he refused to follow new roster. He replied that he could not do so as other bearers were not willing to work according to it. The President then told him to leave the case of other bearers and reply whether he was himself prepared to follow the new roster or not. He wanted definite answer yes or no from him. It is said that on this Ekramuddin flatly refused to follow the new roster. Thereupon Ekramuddin was given the charge sheet as also order of suspension with immediate effect on 19th January 1957 (Ext. D1). Ekramuddin was asked to show cause by 6 p.m. on Sunday the 20th January why disciplinary action should not be taken against him for refusing to obey the legitimate order following new schedule from 19th January 1957 duly communicated to him on 17th January. He received the said charge on that very day (Ext. D2). On 20th January 1957 Ekramuddin submitted explanation to the said charge (Ext. D3). He denied that the new time schedule was communicated to him. He also denied that he refused to follow the new time schedule. On 21st January 1957 the President made a report about the occurrence to the members of the Club (Ext. D4). In his report it was among others stated that "on the previous afternoon he enquired about Ekramuddin—bearer No. 1 and told the bearers that if Ekramuddin submitted written apology and asked for pardon, it would be considered" (Ext. D4). Then enquiry was held into the charge against Ekramuddin on 6th February 1957. Ekramuddin said that he did not attend the enquiry but I am unable to accept his evidence. In this respect both the President and the Head Clerk said that he attended the enquiry and the recorded proceedings (Ext. D5) also mentioned this. In the proceedings it was not only mentioned that Ekramuddin attended the enquiry but also that after questions, he admitted that he received the new duty roster on the 17th January with instructions that it would be put into force from 19th January and that he had refused to operate the said roster. The evidence of the clerk as already noted showed that a copy of the same was given to him on his requisition for discussion with others. Disclaimer of Ekramuddin that new roster was not communicated to him cannot stand. The committee found him guilty of the charge and having regard to the previous final warning decided to dismiss him from service. He was accordingly dismissed from service with effect from the date of suspension on 19th January 1957 (Ext. D6). The sequence of events as already noted clearly indicates that the management proceeded against him on both the occasions in normal and natural course. The President has also categorically denied that they were in any way actuated in the matter of suspension or dismissal from a motive of victimisation. As Ekramuddin refused point blank to carry out the new roster and as he was not thereafter penitent, I find that he was rightly dismissed. It, therefore, follows that he is not entitled to any relief.

This is my award.

Schedule

Whether the lock-out/strike is justified? To what relief including reinstatement are the employees entitled?

AWARD

This is a reference arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified dismissal of 24 workmen previously employed in (1) Messrs. Sree Hosiery Mills and (2) Sri Sankar Industries (hereinafter described as the Company for the sake of brevity).

The case of the Union in a nutshell is as follows:—

The workmen concerned were employed in Sree Hosiery Mills for about 4 5 years. The Company was very unkind in its dealing towards its workmen. No attendance register was maintained, nor were overtime wages paid and there was no leave with pay. To add to that, the Company dismissed workmen at its sweet will. To ameliorate the conditions of service the Union placed a charter of demands which was pending before the Labour Commissioner on 19th June 1957. The Company discharged one Shri Motilal Das illegally and unjustly. During the pendency of that dispute the Company further discharged Madhusudan Sen, Nilmani Das and Kamal Krishna Dhar. The Company did not stop there, but declared a lock-out on and from 11th July 1957 which the Company agreed to lift on 25th July 1957 through the intervention of Government. On that date the Company opened the factory but again locked out workmen from 26th July 1957 which is still continuing. In order to evade taxes, the Union called into existence another industry namely Sri Sankar Industries of which the workmen never heard before.

The Union, in the circumstances, prays for a direction to the Company to lift the lock-out and to reinstate all workmen with back wages for the period of their unemployment.

The two Companies, viz., Sree Hosiery Mills and Sri Sankar Industries connected with this dispute have put in separate statements in this case. The written statements filed in this reference are very prolix. In a nutshell Sree Hosiery Mills states in its written statement as follows:—

This Company is a small concern doing some processes of tailoring of genzies through people employed on contracts (Furan) basis and the terms of their contract are as follows:—

"(a) That whenever order the Company would receive outted ganjee for tailoring (order) from the market for tailoring they would give to these workmen (contractors) at a fixed rate.

(b) That the Company would have no obligation for more or less work.

(c) That the contractors would do the work at their discretion as and when it would be suitable for them.

(d) That the contractors used to maintain daily production records. When they worked they got it signed by the management and used to draw money weekly and/or then they required against the said records.

(e) That there was no fixed working hours and the workers used to do the job as a part-time and used to come and leave the factory premises at their own discretion.

(f) That the contractors were not bound to remain in the factory during the whole time of factory hours, that is 10 a.m. to 6-30 p.m. That is, they remained in the factory for the period they desired or intended to do work, no matter even if a huge lot of Genzies for tailoring were lying for them to do tailoring.

(g) That the Company had no control over the attendance and work of the alleged workmen and the workmen did not work on all days in a week.

(h) That there was no master and servant relationship between the alleged workers and the Company.

(i) That they were at liberty to give up our job of the Company at any moment (time) without giving us any notice; and in the same way the Company was at liberty to refuse work to them."

The contractors employed were not doing their jobs properly and accurately for some time past which therefore involved the Company in loss. The Company's warnings issued to these contractors from time to time to mend their ways went unheeded and they demanded advances on refusal of which they created various sorts of disturbances. The Company lodged information with the Officer-in-charge, Shyampukur police-station, and also applied to the Criminal Court for issuing a warning notice to these contractors. Matters came to such a pass that the proprietor was once confined wrongfully and he could come out only with the help of the Police. These contractors resorted to a stay-in-strike and also hunger-strike and committed various acts of mischief in the factory and did not allow goods to be sent outside to the customers and further insulted the Manager and threatened him with personal violence. So there was declared a lock-out in the factory on 11th July 1957. There was a conciliation proceeding on 18th July 1957 which also proved abortive. On 24th July 1957 a settlement was arrived at before the Conciliation Officer whereby the contractors agreed to work peacefully and accordingly the management opened the factory on 25th July 1957, but some of the contractors with the help of Shri Fatik Ghose and others pushed and assaulted the proprietor while he was opening the factory, etc., and did not allow the management to run the factory without work being given to other workmen engaged in mischievous actions during the strike. The Company issued a notice on 3rd August 1957 requesting the contractors to resume work but in vain, nor did they allow willing workers to resume work. On 28th August 1957 the contractors committed theft of genzies and left the factory for good. The Company at the end asserts that some of the contractors left their jobs after taking their full dues. Thus the Company contends that the strike was illegal and unjustified and the contractors are not entitled to any relief.

Next, let us refer to the written statement of Shri Sankar Industries. Its written statement is that it is altogether a distinct concern holding a separate trade licence, textile licence and has got a separate set of contractors and its office is at 29 Banstolla Street, and has got no connexion whatsoever with the other Company, namely, Sree Hosiery Mills except that it is a tenant under Sree Hosiery Mills in respect of a portion of the premises No. 55A, Raja Raj Ballav Street where Sree Hosiery Mills runs its business. This Company first started its business at Howrah and transferred it to Salkia whence it came to 55A Raja Raj Ballav Street on the basis of a lease registered on 1st August 1956. This Company started its business with 7 persons on contract (furan) basis of whom 4, namely, Kamal Krishna Dhar, Suren Deb, Gopal Ghose, Jagabandhu, were cutters on various rates of wages for different varieties of work, but they had no fixed hours of work and used to come to work and leave it as they liked and there was no relationship of master and servant between them and the Company. Three other contractors, namely, Sital Chandra Dey, Ram Bharasa Thakur and Jamini Mohón Bera used to iron the Genzies on contract, and one Kameswar Jha started work on 29th January 1957 and left for good, and so did Ram Bharasa on 27th June 1957 and Kameswar on 23rd May 1957. Sital was not working satisfactorily, so he was warned but was again given work, but ultimately he relapsed into his unsatisfactory mode of work and no work was given to him with effect from 6th May 1957. Sital was again given work at the intervention of Sri Kumar Dutta, a Councillor, but he did not improve his work and took all his dues on 4th July 1957 and left his work. Kamal, Suren, Gopal and Jagabandhu took their dues on 4th July 1957 and left the Company for good. Thus the Company contends that the reference is incompetent for misjoinder of two different companies with two different sets of workmen and that the aforesaid contractors left the Company of their own accord and as such there is no dispute outstanding and the said contractors are not entitled to any relief whatsoever.

Decision

Before the points for determination as stated in the Government Order of Reference are taken up, it is necessary to take up another preliminary point raised on behalf of the Company that these people do not fall within the purview of the definition of a workman as given in section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act. If this point is found in favour of the Company, the reference will be wholly incompetent, and in that case, the points for reference do not call for any decision, but if the finding be otherwise, the points for reference will have to be determined. So I take up this preliminary objection first.

In deciding this point the main difficulty is presented by the absence of any written terms and conditions of employment between the parties. As is well known the tests of a workman are laid down in various case-laws. First, I may refer to the case of Dharangadhra Chemical Works Ltd. and State of Saurashtra and others reported in 1957 L.L.J. Vol. I, page 477. The prima facie test is the existence of right of control in respect of the manner in which the work is to be done and that the correct method of approach is to consider, having regard to the nature of the work, if there was due control and supervision by the employee and in doing so all the circumstances of a case have got to be considered. In this connexion, the House of Lords in the case of Short versus J. & W. Henderson, Ltd. [(1946) 62 T.I.R. 427, 429] laid down the four indicia of a contract of service as follows:—

(a) the master's power of selection of his servant,

(b) the payment of wages or other remuneration,

(c) the master's right to control the method of doing the work, and

(d) the master's right of suspension or dismissal.

The pronouncements of Fletcher Moulton, L.J., at page 549 in Simmons versus Health Laundry Company [1910) 1 K.B. 543, 549, 550], may also be profitably referred to as follows:—

"In my opinion it is impossible to lay down any rule of law distinguishing the one from the other. It is a question of fact to be decided by all the circumstances of the case. The greater the amount of direct control exercised over the person rendering the services by the person contracting for them, the stronger the grounds for holding it to be a contract of service, and similarly the greater the degree of independence of such control the greater the probability that the services rendered are of the nature of professional services and that the contract is not one of service."

In this connexion, I may refer to a recent case-law reported in 1958 L.L.J., Vol. II, page 736 (Maharaja Beedi Factory and North Arcot District Beedi Workers' Union and another) wherein the previously decided cases have been reviewed and the principle has been reiterated as follows:—

"Whether or not the test of control and supervision, inclusive of the control over the time of the labourer, is the sole test to apply, that test must be satisfied before the relationship of master and servant is established. That relationship must be established before a person could be said to be "employed" within the meaning of section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act. In applying this test the following factors must be considered: (1) what the industry is, (2) what the activity of the labourer is in that industry, and (3) what is the control exercised in relation to that activity by the person for whom that activity is carried on. The factual position and the economic realities in a given case could not be ignored in applying the test which is by no means an easy one in its application."

In the light of the principles enunciated above and the evidence on record I would hold that these persons are not contractors but they are "workmen" fulfilling the necessary tests. To be brief the Company (Sree Hosiery Mills) admittedly supervised works of these persons, maintained attendance registers Ext. I-1 for the period from July 1955 to December 1956, and Ext. I-2 for the period from July 1957 to December 1957, took disciplinary action against some of them as per charge-sheets (Ext. B series) and this contention was never raised by the Company at any previous stage during the long conciliation proceedings. If the Company really believed these people to be independent contractors and treated them as such, they could have raised this contention before the Conciliation Officers and thus cut short the matter. This contention is really an afterthought and is negatived. The learned Advocate for the Company cited the ruling reported in 1958 L.L.J., Vol. II, page 744 (Palanjappa Mudaliar and Additional First Class Magistrate, Kullittalai, and others), but the facts in that case are quite distinguishable as the people in that case were under no obligation to come and work on any particular day, nor was there obligation on the part of the employer to provide work, nor were the men under any obligation to come at any time and go at any time, nor could they be prevented from working for a competing manufacturer. In this case the workers were required to come at about 10-30 a.m. or 11 a.m. and leave at 6 or 6-30 p.m. as the attendance register shows and this shows that their time was at the disposal of the Company which also supervised their works of cutting, neck-cutting, shouldering, ironing, etc., the genzies and also admittedly charge-sheeted them for bad and unsatisfactory work and also granted them holidays on Sunday and these people could not work at any other time except with Company's permission. The maintenance of attendance register, the drawing up of charges against them, the granting of holidays, etc., the exercise of supervision are circumstances inconsistent with these people being termed independent contractors having no relationship of master and servant between them.

Thus I hold that these people are workmen according to section 2(s) of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Next, it is necessary to state that there is a good deal of controversy between the parties as to whether the two companies are one and the same or they are two different entities. On behalf of the Union, it is contended that they are one and the same, whereas the Company's contention is that these are two distinct entities. In support of its contention the Company has produced an agreement of lease, dated 1st August 1956 (Ext. H) in respect of a portion of the premises 55A Raja Raj Ballav Street embodying various terms of business between them with effect from 1st June 1956 and it is contended that Sri Sankar Industries holds a different trade licence (Ext. G), textile licence (Ext. G1) and a rent receipt (Ext. F) is also produced to show payment of rent for the premises. Banawarilal Dalmia (O.P.W. 1), proprietor of Sri Sankar Industries, states that he first started with 7 workmen of whom 4, viz., Jagabandhu, Kamal, Gopal and Suren were cutters and Jamini, Sital and Ram Bharasa were finishers and produced an attendance Register (Ext. I) showing nine names for the period from July 1956 to December 1956. It is further alleged that on 5th July 1957 none appeared for work, so they were intimated by letters Annexure A, B, C and D, that the business would be shifted to 29A Sir Hariram Goenka Street, but they expressed their unwillingness to work there by letters Ext. E1-E2 , dated 21st July 1957. He has also stated that Sital was charge-sheeted on 21st December 1956, 11th April 1957 and 6th May 1957 as per Exts. B5 to B7, but none replied to them. The Union on the other hand contends that the starting of Sri Sankar Industries is a camouflage to evade income-tax and other taxes and that different processes of work in the making of a genzi are interdependent and no succeeding process can be gone through without its preceeding process being done first! The proprietors of two Companies being relatives, P.W. 2, proprietor of Sree Hosiery Mills, being uncle of P.W. 1., proprietor of Sri Sankar Industries, of course, there arises a suspicion that there is possibly some sort of arrangement between the two proprietors, but in view of the different trade licences, etc., and other evidence on records, I shall not be justified in holding that the two industries are one and the same. But the contention on this score is a prolific source of troubles between the parties as is evident in this case. The two Companies being thus held to be different, there has been a misjoinder of two companies in this dispute and the reference adding two parties as made is incompetent. Assuming that the two companies are one and the same as contended for the Union, I proceed to take up the point of reference.

Both parties have adduced voluminous evidence, both oral and documentary. In this case, admittedly, there were disturbances culminating in a strike prior to 19th October 1956 which was resolved by the agreement (Ext. 5), dated 19th October 1956, through the intervention of Sri Hemanta Kumar Bose, M.L.A. and Sri Kumar Dutt with which we are not concerned in this reference. But we are concerned with the strike and/or lock-out for the period from 10th July 1957 to 24th July 1957. The Union alleges that the Company unlawfully declared a lock-out for the above period, whereas the Company described this to be an unjustified strike and the factory had to be closed for the disturbances caused by the workmen as a measure of security. Now let us refer to the evidence. The Union examined Shri Patik Ghose (P.W. 1), the General Secretary of the Union, representing these workmen in this reference. His evidence in short is that on 19th June 1957, one Shri Matilal Das complained to him that he was dismissed, so he addressed a letter (Ext. 1) to Labour Commissioner on 24th June 1957 and that during the pendency of conciliation proceedings over this the Company locked out Sree Hosiery Mills and that the Company also dismissed several other workmen, viz., Nilmani Das, Ranjit Pal, Sital Deb, Suren Deb, and the Company locked out the factory and gave no work to the workmen. The Union also examined P.W. 2., Shri Amulya Das, P.W. 3, Shri Kamal Dhar, P.W. 4, Shri Madhusudan Sen, P.W. 5, Shri Gopal Ghose. Amulya used to do neck-cutting, Kamal was a cutter, Madhusudan was a chain-machineman, and Gopal was a cutter. In their deposition they have described their works and some of them admitted to have been charge-sheeted and the general trend of their evidence is that the Company wrongfully charge-sheeted and dismissed some workmen and locked out the factory and gave them no work. The Union has also tried to negative the Company's contention that the workmen left the work voluntarily on receiving their dues in full and did no longer turn up. The Union also produced letters Ext. 1-1E being letters to Labour Commissioner, complaining of the alleged illegal and unjustified discharge of Motilal and praying for lifting the lock-out through intervention of officers of the Labour Department. The Union has also produced some charge-sheets Exts. 2-2B against Nilmani, Ranjit, Amulya hearing dates on 29th June 1957 and 7th May 1957 and discharge letters Ext. 3 to Motilal and the judgments Exts. 6 and 6A of the Criminal Court to show that the Company brought false criminal case against some workmen who were ultimately not convicted. The Union also produced Ext. 5 embodying terms of a settlement, dated 19th October 1956, and Ext. 4 showing the length of service of workmen. In the first place, it may be pointed out that the judgments of the Criminal Court are not relevant in this case. All that is shown by them is that the prosecution failed in substantiating the allegations by cogent and reliable evidence. These judgments of the Criminal Court by no means can be construed as enough to brush aside the Company's allegations regarding the disturbances of which the Company gave information at every stage to the Labour Commissioner, Deputy Labour Commissioner, or Assistant Labour Commissioner, and the Officer-in-charge, Shyampukur, on several dates through overwhelming correspondence which need not be referred to in details.

The Company on the other hand examined Shri Basantalal Dalmia (O.P.W. 2), the proprietor of Sree Hosiery Mills, Shri Banawarilal Dalmia (O.P.W. 1), the proprietor of Sri Sankar Industries, and O.P.W. 3, Shri Sanat Kumar Choudhury who owns a like factory at 115 Beniatolla Street. I shall briefly refer to the oral evidence on behalf of the Company. The evidence of Shri Basantalal is to the effect that on 29th July 1957 Amulya Das, Madhusudan, Nilmani, Nityananda, Kalipada and others staged a stay-in-strike of which information was given to O.C., Shyampukur P.S., and that on 6th October 1956 these workmen again created disturbances for exacting advances and surrounded him and threatened him with violence, etc., of which also information was given to the said O.C., Shyampukur (Exts. D4 to D5). Then again from 8th October 1956 workmen surrounded him and did not allow him to move out of the factory (vide letter Ext. D6) and was rescued by armed police whose help was requisitioned, vide letter, dated 10th October 1956. Then there was talk of compromise which failed as their demands were too high. Then there was a stay-in-strike from 8th October 1956 to 19th October 1956 and on receiving no help from any quarters he agreed to advance Rs. 10 to each workman. It will be apparent that O.P.W. 2 produced voluminous correspondences Ext. D series to show how these workmen created disturbances and brought the factory to a standstill and how he was insulted and threatened with personal violence even. On a perusal of the correspondence produced in this case I consider it impossible to throw out the allegations of disturbance caused to the working of the factory, of insults made and threats of personal violence held out to the proprietor at times and the correspondences clearly show how these workmen resorted to an unjustified stay-in-strike for exacting advances from the Company and how the proprietor was ultimately compelled to lock-out the factory in spite of his reasonable attitude to come to terms with these workmen.

As regards the strike I would generally observe that, of course, strike is a recognized weapon of workmen to be resorted to for assisting their bargaining power and for backing up their collective demands upon an unwilling employer and as it has an adverse effect upon production, it is to be resorted to as a last resort when all other avenues for settlement of a dispute as provided in the Statute, have been exhausted and proved abortive, so it is necessary to discourage its misuse.

In this particular case the strike and lock-out during the period from 10th July 1957 to 24th July 1957 is considered unjustified as it was not bona fide launched as it was for exacting an advance amount from the Company which it was not obligatory upon it to pay and on other extraneous considerations over the discharge of some workmen against whom the Company was competent to proceed for their misconduct. The Union should have proceeded in a constitutional manner to recover workmens' just dues from the Company and to better their service conditions and to exonerate the charge-sheeted workmen fairly instead of creating all sorts of disturbances and insulting and threatening the proprietor with violence, wrongfully confining him, etc. The conduct of these workmen reflects no credit on them. In this case admittedly there was a compromise (vide Ext. 5, dated 19th October 1956) between the Company and the workmen through the intervention of Shri Hemanta Kumar Bose, M.L.A., and Shri Kumar Dutta, a Councillor of the Calcutta Corporation, but still there was no end of troubles and workmen were charged with negligence in the performance of their duties and not making goods as per specifications as will appear from the charge-sheets Ext. II series, against Nilmani, Ranjit Amulya and Motilal was discharged as per letter of discharge Ext. 3, dated 7th June 1957. Due to the disturbances caused by the worken at the factory on 10th July 1957 and for some days following the lock-out was declared (vide letters Ext. D12, dated 11th July 1957, to Deputy Labour Commissioner and D29 letter to O.C., Shyampukur).

I have gone through the entire evidence both oral and documentary in this case and am convinced that there was never peace and good feeling between the parties. Originally the trouble started, as it appears over advance money asked for by the workmen and over Company's insisting on searching their pocket before they used to leave the factory. This trouble seems to have been set at rest through the intervention of two gentlemen as will be evidenced per agreement Ext. 5, dated 19th October 1956, whereby Rs. 10 was agreed to be advanced to the workmen. Then again trouble started over the unsatisfactory work done by some of the workmen for which there were charge-sheets but no enquiries were held into those charges and trouble still continued to brew and there were conciliation proceedings whereby the lock-out was agreed to be lifted on 24th July 1957 and workmen would return to work peacefully on 25th July 1957 when the proprietor Shri Basantalal opened the factory but still various disturbances were caused by the workmen and the proprietor was very much insulted and wrongfully confined and threatened with personal violence and there was no end of troubles and criminal law was set in motion against some of these workmen which, of course, ended in their acquittal. From a perusal of the overwhelming correspondences to which I need hardly refer in detail, I am thoroughly convinced that there is considerable unrest still prevailing between the parties. That being so, there can be no peace between the workmen and the Company if the Company be directed to take back these workmen. Some of these workmen, namely Anil, Nilmani, Sunil, Sudhir, Ranajit, Satyagopal, Amulya took their dues in full on 25th July 1957 and left their job. On behalf of the Union it is urged that they did not leave their job after taking their full dues on that date, but circumstances clearly proved the contention of the Company that they left their work on receiving their dues in full and final settlement and some of them gave their signatures also Exts. A2—A5. In view of the disturbances in the working of the factory and the threats and personal violence as evidenced in this case, the proprietor was perfectly justified in declaring the lock-out on 11th July 1957 of which notice (Ext. K6 of 11th July 1957) was given to the workmen with copies to Labour Commissioner, Officer-in-charge, Shyampukur, Chief Inspector of Factories. No factory can continue to function in this state of troubled atmosphere for which the workmen were responsible. No unfair labour practice on the part of the Company is alleged, nor is there any allegation of mala fides. It may be stated that the Union tried to say that the proprietor Basantalal Dalmia removed two chaining machines (vide deposition of Amulya, P.W. 2) on 10th July 1957, but there is no such specific allegation in the written statement of the Union, so this is clearly an unfounded allegation made with a view to show that the strike was provoked by the Company. This allegation deserves no credence and is negatived. The fact is that the workmen resorted to an unjustified strike for exacting advances, etc. and for compelling some workmen who were charge-sheeted and proceeded against to be taken back by the Company. No industry can go on unless there be good feeling between the Company and its workmen but this necessary ingredient for the successful functioning of a management is conspicuous by its absence in this case. The Proprietor Basantalal Dalmia has also stated that some of these workmen took their dues in full and left their job as per Annexure N to the written statement and have since been employed anew at some places and there is no effective denial to the contrary and none of the workmen excepting Amulya, Kamal Dhar, Madhusudan Sen, Gopal Chandra Ghose came to deny the allegations on this score. I would therefore find that in view of the disturbances caused, etc., the Company (Sree Hosiery Mills) was entitled to terminate the services of these workmen though no regular procedure was gone through in this behalf.

I would therefore find that the strike during the period from 10th July 1957 to 24th July 1957 in this case was unjustified and the lock-out declared by the Company was justified and the workmen are not entitled to be reinstated or wages.

If any authority be needed, I may refer to the following cases:—

(1) Mahalaxmi Cotton Mills case, reported in 1952 L.A.C., page 370,

(2) the case of United Commercial Bank Ltd., reported in 1954 L.A.C., page 498,

(3) the case of Express Newspapers Ltd., Madras, reported in 1957 L.A.C., page 75, and

(4) the case of Western India Match Company Ltd., reported in 1957 L.A.C., page 322.

All the above cases lay down in substance that if the employer is not guilty of any unfair labour practice, the workmen who had gone on an unjustified strike really courted unemployment and are not entitled to any wages for the strike period. The law on this subject seems to have been clearly laid down in the case of West Bengal Flour Mills Mazdoor Congress, reported in F.J.R., Vol. X (1956-57) page 240 as follows:—

"The workmen may have their fundamental right to do work and withhold it at their pleasure. They were free to choose their own time to launch a strike; but this right has nothing to do with the right to get wages during the period of strike. One has no legitamate connection with the other. The benefits obtained out of a strike exclusively belong to the workmen in full measure. Ordinarily, they are not supposed to be compensated for any loss that may be sustained by them in the venture. The strike, being a deliberate act on the part of the workmen, they must be prepared to take all of its consequences. The workers no doubt suffered loss during the period of voluntary unemployment. Under the Standing Order 12 the Company is entitled to treat the workmen involved in a strike as suspended during the period of strike. The period of strike will be considered as dies non. Accordingly, the workmen are not entitled as of right to any wages for a period of strike in terms of their employment. Further, the relief asked for, is not a normal legal relief. It is granted on compassionate and equitable grounds. It is, however, invariably refused when the strike is forbidden by law and/or found to be otherwise unjustified. Also it is refused when it is found to be not bona fide or launched on extraneous consideration or where its purpose is not lawful and/or when it is conducted in a disorderly maner. It is not only the end but the means also must be reasonable and just."

Thus in fine I find that the strike in this case during the period from 10th July 1957 to 24th July 1957 was unjustified and the lock-out justified due to disturbances caused by the workmen.

To sum up, the reference is found to be incompetent as two different Companies having two different sets of workmen are made parties to it which has vitiated the reference for misjoinder of parties and that the strike and lock-out for the period from 10th July 1957 to 24th July 1957 were respectively unjustified and justified and that the workmen in this reference are entitled to no relief.

This is my award.

ANNEXURE

In the matter of a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, filed by Shri Bhupesh Chandra Roy against Messrs. Bengal Porcelain Co., Ltd., in connection with Government order No. 3178-I.R./IR/11L-368/57, dated the 20th August 1957.

BEFORE THE THIRD INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI J. N. MAITRA, Judge, Third Industrial Tribunal.

Miscellaneous Case No. 7 of 1958 under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Shri Bhupesh Chandra Dey, 64 Feeder Road, P. O. Belghoria, district 24-Parganas—Petitioner,

Messrs. Bengal Porcelain Co., Ltd., Belghoria, 24-Parganas—Opposite party.

Present for the workman: Shri Ram Sen.

Present for the Company: Shri B. Roy Chowdhury.

AWARD

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by Shri Bhupesh Chandra Dey. He was a Store Clerk in the Company On the advice of the physician he applied for 3 months' leave but the management granted 2 months' leave to him. According to the petitioner he applied for extension of leave up to 16th November 1957 by his application, dated 10th October 1957, as he was not till then physically fit to carry on work. The opposite party company, however, discharged him by notice, dated 31st October 1957, said to be in violation of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act. Hence the complaint.

The opposite party contends that the application is not maintainable inasmuch as it has not disclosed contravention of any of the provisions of section 33.

Decision

Foundation for a complaint under section 33A is contravention of the provisions of section 33. In the present case the petitioner has not been able to show contravention of any of the provisions of section 33. Section 33(1) is not attracted as according to showing of the petitioner the misconduct for which he was discharged is not connected with the dispute pending adjudication before the Tribunal. Similarly, section 33(2) is not attracted as the opposite party had no standing orders at the time. The standing orders contemplated in sub-section (2) of section 33 are those contemplated and certified under the Industrial Employment (Standing Orders) Act or laid down under an award. As the Company had no such standing orders at the time, section 33(2) is not also attracted As there has been no contravention of any of the provisions of section 33, it is obvious that the complaint under section 33A is not maintainable. It is awarded accordingly. The petitioner may, however, seek redress by way of a reference under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Bengal Porcelain Co., Ltd., Belghoria, 24-Parganas, and their workmen represented by the Pottery Workers' Union, 64 Feeder Road, Belghoria, 24-Parganas, regarding the issues mentioned in the said order, being matters specified in the Third Schedule to the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), was referred to the Third Industrial Tribunal for adjudication;

And whereas during the pendency of proceedings before the said Industrial Tribunal Shri Chokauri Harijan, a workman of the said Company, made a complaint in writing to the said Industrial Tribunal against the said Company alleging that the said Company had punished the said workman concerned in such dispute;

ANNEXURE

In the matter of a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, filed by Shri Chokauri Harijan against Messrs. Bengal Porcelain Co., Ltd., in connection with Government order No. 3178-I.R., dated 20th August 1957.

Miscellaneous Case No. 16 of 1958 under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act.

Shri Chokauri Harijan, 64 Feeder Road, P.O. Belghoria, district 24-Parganas,—Petitioner,

Messrs. Bengal Procelain Co., Ltd., Belghoria, 24-Parganas—Opposite party.

Present for the workman: Shri Ram Sen.

Present for the Company: Shri B. Roy Chowdhury.

AWARD

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by workman Shri Chokauri Harijan. He complained during the pendency of an adjudication proceeding in respect of an industrial dispute between the opposite party company and their workmen, that he was not permitted to resume work on reopening of the factory after Pujah holidays on 14th October 1957 and as such the opposite party contravened the provisions of section 33.

The Company contends that the application is not maintainable as it has not disclosed any contravention of section 33.

Regarding merits it is said that the petitioner was at the time a casual worker. Besides he has rejoined the company on and from 17th October 1957.

Decision.

Foundation for a complaint under section 33A is contravention of the provisions of section 33. In the present case the petitioner has not been able to show any contravention of section 33. Section 33(1) is not attracted as according to his own showing the matter complained of is not connected with the dispute pending adjudication before the Tribunal. Similarly, section 33(2) is not attracted as the opposite party has at the time no standing orders. I, therefore, agree that the complaint under section 33A is not maintainable.

It is awarded accordingly.

ANNEXURE

(Case No. VIII-C-274/58.)

BEFORE THE SECOND LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL.

PRESENT:

Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, under Government order, No. 4524/I.R./IR/11L-292/57, dated 31st October 1958, referred to me an industrial dispute between Messrs. Union Paper and Board Mills Ltd., and their workmen represented by the West Bengal Paper and Board Mills Mazdoor Union, for adjudication.

Issue formulated in the order of reference is as follows:—

Whether the dismissal of the workmen named below was justified. To what relief are they entitled:—

(i) Shri Radhe Singh, (ii) Shri Bajari Singh, (iii) Shri Prema Singh, (iv) Shri Din Dayal, (v) Ranjit Dubey, (vi) Jew Nath, (vii) Shri Ram Singh.

FINDINGS

Notices were issued on both the parties, but the Union did not file their written statement and prayed for time. On 27th December 1958, both the parties appeared before me and filed a joint petition of compromise incorporating the terms. It would appear from the compromise petition that grievances of all the workmen concerned in the order of reference have been satisfied. I have gone through the compromise petition and I think that the terms of compromise are reasonable and fair. I would therefore give a compromise award in terms of the petition of compromise which will form a part of my award.

BEFORE THE FIRST LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI N. C. CHATTERJEE, Judge, First Labour Court.

This is a complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act by Shri Sudhir Chandra Bhadra and Shri Amir Hossain against Messrs. Regent Cinema, Cossipore, Calcutta-2 (hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity) for contravention of the provisions of section 33 of the Act, on the allegation that during the pendency of a dispute between the aforesaid company and their workmen represented by Bengal Motion Pictures Employees' Union, the Company aforesaid refused the applicants-workmen to allow them to join their duties illegally, nor paid them their due wages.

Notice was served upon the Company to put in its written statement and the Company filed a petition praying for time to file written statement by 16th October 1958, but on that date, no written statement was filed and ultimately, it appears that on 26th December 1958 the applicants-workmen represented by the aforesaid Union have put in a petition praying for permission to withdraw the complaint because of a reference under section 10 of the Act said to be pending before this Court.

I find no objection to the applicants' prayer for withdrawal of the complaint being granted. This complaint is therefore treated as withdrawn and the case is disposed of accordingly.

This is my award.

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal dismissal of a Driver namely Shri Gaya Prasad previously employed in Messrs. Narsingh Sahay Modun Gopal, Managing Agent: The East India Electric Supply & Traction Co. Ltd., 3 Jogindra Kaviraj Row, Calcutta-7 (hereinafter described as the Company for the sake of brevity).

The Union's allegation in brief is that Shri Gaya Prasad was appointed as a Driver in August 1955 on a monthly salary of Rs. 105. The Company did not grant him any public holiday, nor overtime allowances for overtime work. The workman demanded fixation of working hours and overtime allowances which the management did not take in good grace, and ultimately dismissed him from service with effect from 4th November 1956. The Union, therefore, contends that this dismissal is utterly unjustified and illegal and seeks to recover arrears of pay for 4 days of November 1956, notice pay, leave pay and gratuity. In all his claim is laid at Rs. 329 only.

The Company, on the other hand, denies the allegations of the Union and contends that the workman was paid overtime wages as stated in the written statement and that the driver was not dismissed and that he is entitled only to the arrears of pay as claimed and nothing else.

The driver examined himself in this Court and stated that the Company turned deaf ears to his demand for overtime wages. None was present on behalf of the Company at the time of trial, so the evidence of the driver stands uncontradicted. According to his evidence he was appointed in August 1955 and dismissed on 4th November 1956. It is common ground that his wages for 4 days of November 1956 are outstanding and that his monthly salary was Rs. 105, so he is undisputedly entitled to 4 days' wages of November 1956. It appears that he was not given any notice prior to his dismissal, so he is entitled to one month's pay in lieu of notice.

As regards his dismissal, there is nothing to controvert the statement of the driver that he was illegally dismissed for his demanding overtime wages.

In all fairness, the driver is entitled to another half month's pay as compensation for his loss of service. So, he is found entitled to Rs. 105 as notice pay, plus Rs. 52.50 nP. as compensation for loss of service, and Rs. 14 for 4 days of November 1956, in all Rs. 171.50 nP.

As the workman has not prayed for reinstatement because he is working temporarily elsewhere, the same is not granted. Thus the Company is directed to pay Rs. 171,50 nP. to the workman within seven days of the publication of this award.

This is my award.

(Case No. VIII-C-64/58.)

BEFORE THE FIRST LABOUR COURT, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI N. C. CHATTERJEE, Judge.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 1130-I.R./IR/11L-112/58, dated 19th March 1958, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), an industrial dispute between Messrs. Chandana Shoe Mart, E-87A College Street Market, Calcutta-12, and their employee, Shri Dilip Kumar Das, represented by the Shop Assistants' Association of Bengal, 7 Padda Pukur Road, Bhowanipur, Calcutta-20, regarding matters specified in the Second Schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication.

Schedule

Whether the refusal of the Company to employ Shri Dilip Kumar Das was justified? What relief is he entitled to?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal and unjustified dismissal of one Shri Dilip Kumar Das previously employed in Messrs. Chandana Shoe Mart (hereinafter referred to as the Company for the sake of brevity).

The case of the Union, in a nutshell, is as follows:—

Shri Dilip Chandra Das was employed as a salesman in the Company from October 1955 to 13th October 1957 on a monthly salary of Rs. 90. The Proprietor Shri Suresh Chandra Paul, unjustly discharged him on 13th October 1957 without any chargesheet, enquiry or reason whatsoever. There were three tripartite conferences over this dispute which ultimately, however, ended in smoke. The Union therefore seeks the reinstatement of this workman together with wages for the period of his unemployment.

The Company, on the other hand, denies the allegations in the written statement of the Union and contends that the allegations of dismissal are entirely false but the fact is that this workman wrongfully, unjustly and dishonestly left the job of his own accord on and from 13th October 1957 without any previous notice. The Company further avers that the workman was very careless in his work for which the Company was very often involved in loss and the Company later on discovered that a few pairs of shoes were missing. The Company has further stated that this employee has later on started a Cycle Shop and is not keen about his work. In the circumstances, the Company asserts that the workman is not entitled to any relief.

Today (29th December 1958) was fixed for hearing of the case, but on this date, it appears that both parties have put in a joint petition of compromise stating that the dispute has been fully and finally settled out of the Court and that the workman shall have no further claim on the employer either by way of reinstatement or compensation or any other relief.

The terms of the petition of compromise appear to be fair, reasonable and lawful and may be given effect to. This reference is thus disposed of in terms of the petition of compromise which do form a part of my award.

This is my award.

BEFORE THE FIFTH INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, WEST BENGAL

PRESENT:

SHRI G. PALIT, Judge, Fifth Industrial Tribunal.

By Government order No. 4845-I.R./IR/10L-73/56, dated 11th December 1957, the aforesaid dispute has been referred to the Fifth Industrial Tribunal, presided over by me, for adjudication under section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947). The said Fifth Industrial Tribunal was constituted under Government notification No. 808-I.R./IR/3A-2/57, dated 11th March 1957.

The reference was received here on 13th December 1957. The Union filed its written statement on 31st January 1958. The Company after several petitions for time, filed its written objection on 7th August 1958. After several adjournments the case was set down for hearing on 4th October 1958. It stood over to 20th December 1958 when the case was taken up for hearing. The parties concerned did not take any steps on that date. There was already a petition filed by the management that the workers had directly entered into a settlement with regard to three issues in the reference out of the four. The Tribunal reserved its award.

The issues which stood for adjudication as per the order of reference are as follows:—

(1) Basic wages and scales of pay.

(2) Dearness allowance.

(3) Bonus for 1956.

(4) Whether the management was justified in dismissing Shri S. C. Ghosh and Shri A. Latiff. What relief are they entitled to?

AWARD

Issue Nos. 1, 2 and 3: In the petition filed by the Company on 12th December 1958 it appears that the representatives of the Company and the workmen, after negotiations, met at a meeting and settled up all the disputes referred to the Tribunal themselves as also other disputes between the parties. A written agreement of settlement in this respect was signed by the workmen and the representative of the Company on 15th October 1958. As per the paragraph 1(c) of the memorandum of settlement, it appears that all the issues pending before the Tribunal have been amicably settled. In the said settlement the workers who represent the entire body of the establishment, state that they are not in any way interested in the alleged disputes with regard to the issue No. 4 in the reference, and they do not support the alleged disputes in respect of Shri S. C. Ghosh and Shri A. Latif as per the aforesaid issue No. 4. So, it may very well be taken that the issue Nos. 1, 2 and 3 in the order of reference do not require any adjudication by the Tribunal. They are accordingly disposed of without any direction. This order is based on the memorandum of settlement filed by the workers and the management jointly before the Tribunal, which forms a part of my present award in respect of the issue Nos. 1, 2 and 3. It finds place in the Appendix A.

Issue No. 4: Now, it may very well be contended whether even after the amicable settlement of the issue Nos. 1, 2 and 3, there should be adjudication required on the issue No. 4. Conceding for the sake of argument that this issue No. 4 still survives, I should find that the issue in question is liable to be rejected after the disclaimer by the entire body of the establishment of the case of Shri S. C. Ghosh and Shri A. Latif. The dispute over their dismissal now is no other than an individual dispute. Being an "individual dispute" it cannot come within the definition of "Industrial Dispute". That an individual dispute is not within the scope of jurisdiction of an Industrial Tribunal has been held in series of decisions as per 55 C.W.N., page 256, and 57 C.W.N., page 169, decided by the Hon'ble Calcutta High Court. There was some conflict of decision as in the case reported in 1953 L.L.J., page 757, decided by the Hon'ble Labour Appellate Tribunal of India and the case decided by the Madras High Court as reported in 1955 L.L.J., page 477. The final word however, came to be said by the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case reported in 1953 L.L.J., page 195. It was held that a single employee's case may develop into an industrial dispute if it is espoused by the other employees of the establishment or at least by a substantial body of them or by the Union representing those workmen. But in the present case the entire body of workmen of the establishment have dissociated themselves from the dispute in question. There is also no evidence before me that the Union composed of workmen of this Company had taken up this dispute from the beginning. If the Union had taken this up even from the beginning, it seems to have thrown the cases of these two workmen overboard at the time of hearing not having entered appearance before the Tribunal. So, in any view of the matter the issue No. 4 is answered against the two workmen concerned, namely, Shri S. C. Ghosh and Shri A. Latif. They are entitled to no relief from the Tribunal in the present circumstances. This is my award.

3. On filing the agreements as made duly signed by the workers and after disposal of the case before the Tribunal in terms of the agreement, the Company agrees to pay and will pay all its workers two months' basic salary/pay as bonus for the financial year ending June 1958. The club has arrangement for supply to its Members on payment tea, snacks, breakfast and lunches on requisition but not dinner. It also maintains a bar from which the members can have drinks on payment. According to the club, it has on its pay roll 102 employees of different categories.

There had been an award in respect of an industrial dispute between the club and their workmen represented by the Royal Calcutta Golf Club Workers' Union on 25th September 1948. Subsequently the present union —Royal Calcutta Golf Mazdoor Union (hereafter called the union) was formed. The union on behalf of the workmen presented a Charter of Demands in 1955 but the Government declined to intervene on the ground that the existing conditions were unsatisfactory and intimated the union accordingly by its letter, dated 22nd June 1955 (Annexure A to club's written statement). Thereupon the union filed a case in the High Court under Article 226 for redress but the case was dismissed. Then the union on the allegation that there has been change in the service conditions since the award, presented similar Charter of Demands as in 1955 to the Management of the club on 24th October 1956 (Annexure A to union's written statement and Ext. 1) with copy to the Labour Commissioner. Thereupon conciliation proceedings started. During the pendency of the conciliation proceedings, the Management of the club laid off 8 female coolies named in issue No. 3 with effect from 15th January 1957 with intimation that permission to discharge them was being sought for from the authority concerned on the ground that they were rendered surplus due to abolition of system of work on which they were employed and as there was no other alternative work to offer to them (Ext. 2 series). Subsequently on 3rd April 1957 the club intimated these 8 workmen that they were discharged from that date. By that letter they were also informed that they should collect their dues on any day during office hours (vide Ext. 3 series). Thus arose the dispute on this head in addition to items in the Charter of Demands (Ext. 1). As no settlement was possible in course of conciliation the dispute was referred to this Tribunal for adjudication on 11th July 1957. Subsequently dispute as to Puja bonus for the year 1956 was also added by the Government by order, dated 8th September 1957. Now let us consider the issues separately.

Issue 1: This relates to wages and Dearness Allowance of all categories of workmen in the employ of the club. Their existing wages and Dearness Allowance are shown by the club in the statement Ext. E. The union does not challenge the statement as incorrect. The union demands revision of them in the manner as indicated in Annexure A to its written statement (Ext. 1). The club opposes the claim mainly on the ground that it is not a profit-making concern and judged as such the wages and Dearness Allowance which it has been paying to the workmen are quite adequate and fair in view of the limited resources of the club and having regard to the nature of the duties performed by the workmen. It is further said that the wages and Dearness Allowance as are granted to the workmen compare favourably with those in club of similar standing and that it is not financially possible for the club to bear any increase in wages and Dearness Allowance. Besides, the club has a preliminary objection that the wages and Dearness Allowance having been fixed under the previous award on 25th September 1948, the present claim is barred without proof of change in circumstances since the award, which there has been none.

It, however, appears from the previous award that question of Basic pay not of all categories of workmen was before the said Tribunal but only of five categories, namely, (1) male and female coolies, (2) cooly sardars and sardarnies, (3) caddies, (4) pumpmen and machinemen and (5) drivers. The preliminary objection can, therefore, hold good only in respect of the five categories as above and not with respect to other categories for whom the claim has been made for the first time before the Tribunal. Regarding the said five categories the learned representative of the union concedes the principles that without proof of change in the circumstances, union's claim would be barred but he contends that there has not only been over-all rise in prices since the award but also progressive improvement in the position of "members' capital account" of the club apart from progressive ideas and recommendations made by Fair Wages Committee and Central Pay Commission which call for revision, more so when the basic wages of the workmen concerned have not undergone any change since the award. I agree that in the circumstances a claim for revision of the wages of these categories of workmen may be maintained.

Regarding merits it has already been noted that the club claims that the wages as are being paid to its workmen are fair and equitable and compare favourably to those in similar clubs. The union has no evidence about wages in comparable industries to displace the said claim of the club. The award relating to 9 clubs as published in the Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary, dated 18th March 1949, on the other hand points in favour of such claim of club. Compared to the pay structure laid under the award for workmen of these different 9 clubs, it cannot be said that the wages which this club has been paying are inadequate. The claim of the union on the basis of award between Bengal Club and their workmen for a minimum of Rs. 80 overlooks that the said minimum of Rs. 80 is composed of basic wage of Rs. 25 and Dearness Allowance of Rs. 55. In the present case the statement as to wages (Ext. E) shows that in no case a workman gets basic wage less than Rs. 25 per month except the caddies. These caddies it may be noted are not wholetime employees of the club, but part-time workers having to do work for four hours in the morning from 6 a.m. to 10 a.m. for the club with right of employment as caddies in the afternoon by the golfers when they play golf for which they are paid by the members playing whom they accompany. Regarding the amount of Dearness Allowance, it is a different matter as it is dependent upon the capacity of the employer to pay. In the present case none except the caddies get total emolument below Rs. 55. The said sum cannot be considered to be inadequate as minimum having regard to what prevails in other clubs. The minimum as are prevalent in purely industrial concerns such as engineering, jute, etc., cannot fairly be claimed as unlike them, the club though an industry within the meaning of the Act is not a profit-making concern like them. The club's undertakings like bar, messing and soda factory are in furtherance of its object as a club to provide amenities to its members and not for profit-making as such. Then again the financial position of the club as disclosed, it appears, is not such which can admit increment both in the basic wages and Dearness Allowance. As Dearness Allowance is more appropriate to neutralise rise in the cost of living index, I think the increment if it is to be granted, should be in respect of Dearness Allowance and not in basic wages. I, therefore, do not feel that a revision in the basic wages is called for in this case. Regarding the caddies, about whose wages the union made much comment, their pay and Dearness Allowance were fixed in the last award having regard to the nature of the duties they performed and having regard to the fact they were to do work for the club only for four hours in the morning from 6 a.m. to 10 a.m. with guarantee of employment in the afternoon when golf is played for which they were receiving payment from the players whom they accompanied and also having regard to the rate prevailing in Tollygunge Golf Club and the other amenities they were enjoying. The last Tribunal thus fixed their basic wage at Rs. 5 and Dearness Allowance Rs. 15 per month for their part-time work under the club. Since then their basic wage has been raised to Rs. 6 for four of them and Dearness Allowance to Rs. 17 for all of them (vide Ext. E). As to the remuneration which a caddy is eligible to receive from the player whom he accompanies, the evidence is that it is Rs. 1-8 for a round of play (vide P. W. 5). The statement Ext. A shows what actually a caddy earned from the players in the month of December 1956, May 1957 and August 1957. Their average is Rs. 63.96 nP. These earnings plus what they get from the club in the shape of basic wage and Dearness Allowance would yield a total emolument between Rs. 84 and Rs. 87 which cannot be considered to be unsatisfactory. In this view of the matter I think no revision in their basic wages is also called for.

Regarding Dearness Allowance there has been admittedly high rise in the cost of living index but there has been no corresponding increase in the amount of Dearness Allowance. The increments which the club granted since the award are not commensurate with the rise. The club contends that it cannot bear further burden by way of any increment in wages or Dearness Allowance to the staff. It is said that the club made a heavy loss of over Rs. 14,000 during the year ended 31st August 1957 and that its future prospects are extremely bleak due to the recent restrictions on equipment and drinks. I am unable to accept the position as bad as the club seeks to portray. The balance sheets and income and expenditure account as produced from the years 1954 to 1958 (Ext. B series) do not show as bad state of affairs as sought to be depicted by the club. They, on the contrary reveal that there has been working profits in all the years from 1954 to 1958—Rs. 3,380 in 1954, Rs. 15,103 in 1955, Rs. 30,725 in 1956, Rs. 7,977 in 1957 and Rs. 2,533 in 1958. It further appears that up to 1956 the balance left after appropriation from the working profits was transferred to members' capital account which as a result of addition year after year gradually augmented to Rs. 3,88,978. In 1957 there has been, of course, excess of expenditure over income to the extent of Rs. 14,985 and in 1958 to the extent of Rs. 19,261 but this was on account of provision made for redemption of debentures to the extent of Rs. 22,962 and Rs. 22,005, respectively. It is to be noted that these provisions for redemption significantly coincided wth workmen's demands for increment. Be that as it may, the club may have obligation to redeem the debentures but at the same time it cannot close its eyes to the just needs of its employees who have been hard hit by the rise in the cost of living. There would be so no justification to provide such big sums for redemption without spreading them over to different years. The undertakings of the club, namely, bar, messing, soda factory it appears have been yielding profits every year. Though the income from the bar has of late not been as much as in the past, there would be no valid ground for apprehension on this score as even in the year just closed, namely, 31st August 1958 it yielded income of Rs. 51,327. Furthermore there are other sources of income particularly from the "greens" which has possibility of expansion. So it appears that with little adjustments here and there, there would be no difficulty for the club to grant an additional Dearness Allowance of Rs. 3 to meet the rise in the cost of living. In this connection it will not be out of place to mention that the club submitted a resolution proposing to increase membership fee by Rs. 5 which if it were passed, would yield a considerable amount. Considering all revelant factors, I grant an increment of Rs. 3 in Dearness Allowance which I think to be fair. The Dearness Allowance would thus be Rs. 20 per month for caddies and Rs. 33 per month for all other categories.

The issue is answered accordingly.

Issue 2: The case of the union under this head is that the club employs the workers for 14 to 15 hours on Saturdays, Sundays and on all other holidays. The workmen have got no fixed hours of work either in a day or in a week. By this method the club wrongfully employs them to work equivalent to 1½ to 2 men's work without paying them extra wages. The union accordingly demands that the working hours should not exceed 8 hours a day and 48 hours in a week.

The club denies that the workmen are employed for 14/15 hours a day and pleads that the hours of work for kitchen staff and bearers are limited to 8 hours per day on week days and 10 hours a day on week-ends, Sundays and holidays. It is said that having regard to the nature of the undertaking and the nature of the duties involved, the said hours of work have been fixed. Besides the club is mainly a weekend club, the members not usually attending on week days. There is so a negligible load of work for the staff during week days. The club submits that the hours of work are not excessive and less than those laid down for employees covered by the Shops and Establishment Act.

On giving careful consideration to the matter it does not appear that any revision in the existing arrangement is required. The factory hours are not applicable to a club. Shops and Establishment Act has also no application to a club. In the absence of laws prescribing hours of work, the hours of work have to be regulated by various considerations such as conditions of work, hours of work in comparable industries, amount of fatigue and so on. In the present case the union's case that the workmen are employed on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays for 15 hours is not borne out on the materials placed. P.W. 4 Md. Mostab, Masalchi, who has been examined in this respect by the union, said in his examination-in-chief that they had to work for 15 hours from 6 a.m. to 11 p.m. with breaks for 2 hours at different times for different workmen. From his evidence in examination-in-chief, their actual working hours comes to 13 hours excluding the break. In cross-examination he, however, admits that they (two) work alternately in the house of the Secretary upstairs from 6 a.m. to 9 a.m., for which they each get extra sum of Rs. 3 per month from the Secretary and that the other man who works in the kitchen downstairs (when he works in the house of the Secretary upstairs) is free to leave the club at 8 p.m. This lends support to the case of the club that on week-ends, Sundays and holidays—the kitchen staff have not more than 10 hours' work. Work of the kitchen staff is of peculiar nature. There is no knowing at what hours meals and snacks may be required and how many members will attend on a particular day and at what time. Ext. G, gives the volume of work of the kitchen staff on a particular week. From this it appears that they have not much to do during weekdays. Regarding week-ends, Sundays and holidays when the members generally attend, it appears extra men are employed to assist the regular staff. The statement (Ext. F2) gives the working hours of the kitchen staff, and narrates how it is not possible to fix any rigid hours for them. The work which they have to do is neither strenuous nor continuous. Ext. F2 categorically states that on weekdays kitchen is normally closed by 7-30 p.m. and on week-ends, Sundays and holidays by 8-30 p.m. at the latest. Regarding the bearers, Ext. F1, shows that they have 8 hours' duty on week-days from Monday to Friday. While according to written statement of the club, they had 10 hours' duty on week-ends, Sundays and holidays. Their work is neither strenuous nor continuous. Ext. F gives the hours of work of Khit Madgars and Abdars during the week-days from Monday to Friday. This shows that they have 8 hours duty a day from Monday to Friday and 10 hours' duty on week-ends, Sundays and holidays. Their work too is not strenuous or continuous. Ext. H shows that in case of employment of Khit Madgars and bearers and barman after 8-30 p.m., they are eligible to overtime at the rate of Re. 1 up to 10 p.m. and at Rs. 2 up to 11 p.m. The reason assigned by the club, how it is not possible to reduce the working hours of kitchen staff, bearers, etc., on week-ends, Sundays and holidays, without giving go-by to the object for which the club exists, is substantial. It has not been shown by the union that in similar other clubs the workmen of the categories involved have 8 hours' duty on week-ends, Sundays and holidays. In the circumstances, I find no justification to limit the working hours for Saturdays, Sundays and holidays to 8 hours. But at the same time when 8 hours' duty is the normal per day, I think the workmen can in fairness demand extra sum for employment beyond 8 hours and up to 10 hours on those days. The existing hours are, therefore, left undisturbed, subject to the condition that for employment beyond 8 hours and up to 10 hours a day on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, the workmen concerned will be eligible to get extra sum of annas 8 per head. For employment after 8-30 p.m. all of them will be eligible to get overtime at the rate mentioned in Ext. H, that is, at the rate of Re. 1 up to 10 p.m. and at Rs. 2 up to 11 p.m.

The issue is answered accordingly.

Issue 3: In the written statement before this Tribunal the union alleged that the 8 female workers named in this issue were workmen under the club doing work as coolies for periods varying between 15 and 30 years.

Due to presentation of Charter of Demands and activities of active members of the union, the club Management became enraged and discharged the 8 female workers on false and malicious grounds. The union accordingly prayed for reinstatement with wages for the period of unemployment.

The club denied charge of mala fide. It pleaded that it used to employ temporary female workers for certain jobs on the Course. For some years it has been the endeavour of the club to abolish the system of employing female workmen. This fact has been mentioned by Shri P. K. Sarkar in his award, dated 25th September 1948. The club in order to obtain maximum efficiency of work changed the then existing system of work which rendered the female workers concerned redundant to requirements. In the circumstances the club submitted that the discharge of the female workers was not illegal and was carried out in the interest of the club work and was a normal function and, therefore, wholly justified.

On the evidence and circumstances, I am unable to accept the union's case that the discharge was by way of victimisation or mala fide. It appears from the award, dated 25th September 1948, of Shri P. K. Sarkar that the club even then expressed its desire to do away with the system of employing the female coolies. It further appears that in pursuance of the said policy the club discharged on 23rd January 1948, five female coolies, namely, Kusum, Tarangini, Saraswati, Rani and Kiron out of 20 female coolies in its employ at the time, and that union's demand for their reinstatement could not be acceded to by the Tribunal of Shri P. K. Sarkar as the discharge took place subsequent to the date of reference and as the club took the plea of want of jurisdiction of the Tribunal in the matter. It further appears that out of the remaining 15 female coolies, 7 left employment of the club leaving only the 8 female coolies on the work. According to Satyabala (P.W. 3) they were the only 8 female coolies who were working in the club for last 5/6 years. So the case of the union that because of presentation of Charter of Demands which it has already been noted, took place on 24th October 1956, these 8 female workers were discharged, cannot be sustained. Though the Secretary of the union P.W. 1 said that out of the 8 female workers, three—Satyabala (P.W. 3), Noni Bala (P.W. 6) and Subhas No. 1 have been members of the executive committee of the union, P.W. 3 and P.W. 4 who have been examined before this Tribunal, did not claim to have had any union activities. The evidence of the Secretary (P.W. 1) that those 3 female workers had discussion regarding the Charter of Demands with the Management subsequent to presentation of the Charter of Demands and also during conciliation proceedings, is given direct lie by Satyabala herself (P.W. 3). Satyabala admitted that she had never occasion to discuss about workers' demand with the Management. She also admitted that she had no quarrel with the Management. P.W. 6 Nonibala did not impute any motive to the Management or made any complaint against the club. It will, therefore, appear that the discharge in question was made in normal and natural course in pursuance of a policy adopted long ago and that there was no lack of bona fides on the part of the Management of the club in the matter. There has been no irregularity or illegality in the matter either as contended by the union during hearing. During the pendency of the conciliation proceedings there had been no discharge but only lay-off from 15th January 1957 by the notice, dated 14th January 1957 (Ext. 2 series). Section 33, as it then stood, did not attract a lay-off. Besides in the notice of lay-off the club gave the reasons and stated that permission was being obtained from the authority concerned to discharge them (vide Ext. 2 series). It will, therefore, appear that there was no irregularity or illegality in the matter. Subsequently after the conciliation proceedings were over, the club discharged the workers from 3rd April 1957 (vide Ext. 3 series). So the club did not violate the provision of section 33.

Now the question is whether the discharge is justified. The reason assigned for the same in the notice (Ext. 2 series) is that the workers have been rendered surplus to the requirements due to the abolition of the system of work on which they have been employed as also on account of the fact that there is no other alternative work to offer to them at the time. When the work has been continuing and when the said work is being carried on by male workers, it cannot be said that the female workers became redundant to the requirements. The club no doubt adopted a policy of not employing female workmen but these can have application in fairness only when vacancies arise in future and not with reference to those already in employment. There will be no justification for retrenchment of the existing workmen if the work on which they are employed does not cease to exist but continues. To have the same work done by male workers in replacement of female workers already in employment is not the same thing as change in the system of work but only a change in the personnel. This, however, is not permissible. When the work is there, there would be no justification to replace the female workers by male workers even assuming that the male workers would be more efficient. When the female workers were doing the work for these long years, they cannot be sacked to make room for male workers under the cover of abolition of system of work. When it is a case of retrenchment as per notice of the club, it has also obligation to follow the principles of "last come, first go" on the basis of category irrespective of sex of the workers. In the circumstances, I am unable to uphold the retrenchment. The discharge by way of retrenchment is accordingly held to be unjustified. I, therefore, direct the club to reinstate the workmen with continuity of service on their reporting for duty within 15 days from the date of publication of the award. As, however, there has been no mala fide on the part of the Management of the club in the matter, and as the club has not the benefit of the service of the workmen, I do not saddle the club with liability for full wages during the period of unemployment of the workmen. The workmen are allowed 1/3rd of their total emoluments for the period. The club is directed to make the payment within a month from the date the award becomes enforceable.

Issue 4: This issue was added subsequently on 18th September 1957. Thereupon the parties were directed to file supplementary written statements which they did. The issue as referred to speaks of Puja Bonus for the year 1956. In the Charter of Demands presented on 24th October 1956 (Ext. 1) on the basis of which reference has been made, the union also claimed such Puja Bonus equivalent to 2 months' pay. So the bonus claimed and referred to is one for customary bonus as distinguished from bonus out of available surplus as per Full Bench Formula. Union's claim at the hearing for a bonus out of profit for the year 1956 cannot, therefore, be sustained within the scope of the issue referred to. Claim for customary bonus can be upheld only on its being a condition of service. To raise an inference of its being a condition of service, the payment must have been made for a long period and continuously, especially in years of loss. The Union has no evidence to prove so. According to the club it is not a condition of service of workmen in its employ. P.W. 2 Charu Chandra Das admitted that what they used to receive as bonus was a variable amount paid as Christmas Bonus between March and August. He could not, however, say the source of the money paid as bonus and whether it was a bakshis paid by members during Christmas time. P.W. 4 Md. Mostab admitted that it was bakshis in connection with Christmas every year. His evidence also reveals that the said bakshis was paid in 1957, apparently the bakshis relatng to Christmas of 1956. The evidence also reveals that the said bakshis is not paid to all the employees but only to the members of the house staff. I, therefore, accept the evidence of P.W. 1 and find that it is not a condition of service. The claim for Puja Bonus must, therefore, fail.

This is my award.

The Government of West Bengal, in the Department of Labour, by order No. 4390-I.R./IR/7L-43/57, dated 21st November 1957, —referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), an industrial dispute between Messrs. Shree Ambica Jute Mills Ltd., Belur, Howrah, and Shri Satish Chandra Jagnik, one of their workmen, represented by West Bengal Jute Mills Clerks' Federation, 12 Rajnarayan Roy Choudhury Ghat Road, Sibpur, Howrah, regarding matters specified in the second schedule of the Act, to this Court for adjudication.

Schedule

1. Is the dismissal of Shri Satish Chandra Jagnik justified? To what relief including re-instatement and/or compensation is he entitled?

AWARD

This is a case arising out of alleged illegal dismissal of one Shri Satish Chandra Jagnik previously employed in Messrs. Shree Ambika Jute Mills Ltd., Belur. Howrah (hereinafter described as the Company for the sake of brevity).

The Union's case in short is that Shri Satish Chandra Jagnik entered the service of the Company in April 1951 as a lapping clerk in the Finishing Department where he continued as such up to June 1954 and then in July following he was transferred to the Mechanical Department and was asked to work both in A and B shifts in which capacity he worked up to 12th July 1956. Ordinarily the Management had to maintain two clerks, one for A shift and another for B shift, but during the material period from July 1954 to July 1956 this clerk worked single-handed and managed all the clerical works of both the shifts. Accordingly the workman insisted on having his overtime wages for which he eventually incurred the displeasure of the Manager though the Manager in the beginning gave him assurance that overtime wages would be paid to him. Suddenly on 1st August 1957 the Manager served a charge sheet on this workman on false allegations of (1) indiscipline and insubordination, (2) negligence and carelessness in work and (3) excess payment and loss to the property of the Company. The workman gave his reply, dated 3rd August 1957, contradicting the allegations. Thereupon an ex-parte enquiry was held into the charges and he was dismissed by order, dated 13th June 1957, and this dismissal is contrary to the Standing Order, rule 14(c) of the Company. To add to that, the Company brought a false charge against him and prayed for prosecution under section 59 of the Factories Act and this prosecution was nothing but a counterblast to the workman's demand for overtime wages. On these allegations the Union seeks the reinstatement of the workman together with other reliefs as he is found entitled to.

The Company, on the other hand, in its written statement denies the material allegations in the written statement of the Union and contends, inter alia, that the conduct of this workman was most unsatisfactory, perfunctory and much below the standard of efficiency during the period particularly from July 1954 to July 1956 and he was a habitual late comer since November 1954 and the Management received innumerable complaints for his gross negligence resulting in severe monetary loss of the Company and several warnings were given to him but to no effect. The Management out of compassion in view of the age of the petitioner did not take any drastic steps against him but allowed him to attend as a special measure from 7 a.m. to 12 noon and from 3 to 6 p.m., and the Company asserts that this concession allowed by the Management is now being utilised by the workman only to set up a false plea of working in double shifts to base thereon his false claim to overtime wages. The Company had no mala fides in the matter, nor did the Company adopt any unfair labour practice. The Management therefore duly charge-sheeted him and dismissed him on enquiry in the interests of discipline. The Management therefore contends that this workman is entitled to no relief whatsoever.

Decision

There is no dispute in this case that the workman was originally appointed as a lapping clerk in the finishing department of the Company in 1951 where he worked till sometime in 1954 and then he was transferred to the Mechanical Department in July 1954 where he worked till July 1956. The whole trouble between the parties centres round the allegation of non-payment of overtime wages which the workman claims on the basis of his having worked in both A and B shifts. Admittedly, A shift in the Mills continues from 6 a.m. to 11 a.m. and then again from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. It is common ground that to suit the convenience of this particular workman, the Management compassionately due to his old age changed the timings of his attendance from 7 a.m. to 12 noon and from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. Admittedly, each shift is for 8 hours a day. The gravamen of the grievance of this workman is that he worked in both the shifts single-handed but he was not granted any overtime allowances though he was given an assurance that he would have it. The Company's case on the other hand as already referred to above, is that he worked partly during the ordinary timings of A and B shifts as he attended from 7 a.m. to 12 noon and from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. which he utilises as a basis for his false claim to overtime allowance. It is evident that the special timings during which the Management agreed to allow this workman to attend partially overlapped the timings of both A and B shifts. In support of his claim the workman is under a delusion that the attendance register supports him. Curiously enough, there is not a single application on his part to show that he ever specifically demanded overtime wages for working in both A and B shifts extending over 16 hours a day. If his main grievance were non-payment of overtime allowance, we would expect that there should be at least one application in writing during the long two years to show his demand for the same. The workman in support of his claim examined one Shri Ram Chandra Roy whose evidence does not really help him because this witness (P.W. 3) was a workman in the factory of the mechanical department of the Company, thereas the workman concerned was working in the office and that the witness had no personal knowledge about what works the workman concerned did and what works he did not do. Towards the end of his cross-examination this witness broke down when he admitted that the workman Satish Jagnik used to work both in A and B shifts because he found the workman at work at 6 a.m. and found him also at work at 12 noon which is not inconsistent with the special timings of his attendance in the Mills. Thus I hold that the workman has not been able to prove that he worked single-handed for both A and B shifts during the period from July 1954 to July 1956.

Next, let us turn to the otherside of the shield as presented by the Company. The Company drew up two charge sheets Ext.-D, dated 1st August 1956 and Ext.-D1, dated 13th June 1957. The charges in Ext.-D, dated 1st August 1956, are grouped under three heads, viz., (1) indiscipline and insubordination, (2) negligence and carelessness in work and (3) excess payment and loss to Company and the charges in details are quoted as follows:—

Indiscipline and Insubordination

"You were asked to work in B shift on 16th July 1956 but you continued your work in A shift for 1½ days contrary to my repeated orders when there was no need of two clerks in A shift.

You were asked to compile the production report for night shift workers, which you have refused.

You were given standing instruction to take and record the weight of steam coal received at our end but you have systematically failed to do so keeping the challans pending for long periods. Two wagons Nos. 11273 and 39725 containing steam coal were unloaded on 6th July 1956 but there is no record of the weight maintained by you, having been checked. As a result, challan of the party is lying still pending for my certification, which I cannot certify, unless I am satisfied that actually the material came and the weight is corrected and checked.

Goods consumed in Foundry shop at the time of casting not entered after 5th May 1956 in casting books in spite of my repeated instructions. Your lame excuse of getting no time has been exploded as the new clerk has brought the books up-to-date.

On 17th July 1956 when you were going away I sent Purna to tell you to see me, but you refused to see me and went away.

One letter written to you on 20th July 1956 and remarks given by me in overtime book in your name on 25th July 1956 regarding taking production of night shift work, were refused by you to attend. Not only this, but remark given to Head Clerk on 26th July 1956 to direct you to see me on next day at 11 a.m. but you have not come to me to explain your vindictive attitude.

Negligence and carelessness in work

You have not done your work regularly and attentively which has resulted in 3 or 4 weeks' overtime slip of 4 workers have not yet been made and issued to T. K. (General) for the payments. For this carelessness following complaints are received as a result of mistakes committed by you:—

Baidya Nath T.N. 56, Furnaceman, worked overtime on 14th July 1956 but overtime slip has not yet been sent to T.K. (General) for payment. It is a fact that you were on leave on 14th July 1956 but it was your duty to send the same on 16th July 1956 when you joined your duty.

One worker Niamat T.N. 6 worked overtime in April 1956 for urgent work but the overtime slip has not yet been made and sent to T.K. (General) for payment. As a result, this payment is still pending. For which you have accepted your mistakes.

One worker Hari Ch. Samanta T.N. 198 worked overtime on urgent job on 4th July 1956, but his wages is also pending due to your mistake which you have accepted.

One worker Jairam T.N. 261 worked overtime for urgent breakdown job on 21st June 1956 and 13th July 1956 but he is not yet paid due to your negligence that you have not yet made the overtime slip and sent it to T.K. (General).

Excess payments and loss to Company

It has come to my notice that the following men have been paid excess due to your carelessness in work in the week ending 21st July 1956 for which a loss to the Company has occurred. I had to stop excess payment in writing to T.K. (General).

(1) Sunil 98, (2) Bejoy 111, (3) Ajit 220, (4) Gour 108, (5) Dukhi 273, (6) Subal 299, (7) Zamir 225.

That you are habitual late commer in spite of repeated verbal warnings. In addition, you while away your time in office after signing the register and attend the shop 15 or 20 minutes after the whistle. As a result of which you have never checked attendance of scheduled workers as instructed.

It has further come to my knowledge that you have issued (without being authorised) gate passes to some night shift workers to quit their work and pass out of Mills one or two hours earlier than the scheduled time.

From the above facts it is quite clear that your work has been most unsatisfactory in that you have committed glaring mistakes in spite of repeated warnings verbal or otherwise. You have been habitually keeping your work in arrears which has resulted in financial loss to the Company, caused delay in sending coal, pig iron and fire reports which is detriment to Company's interest. Your attitude in the face of these shortcomings have been most objectionable and vindictive and you have been responsible for breach of discipline and insubordination. It has further come to my knowledge that you have been indulging in trade union activities along with a handful of dishonest workers who are indulging in spreading dissatisfaction against the management."

The second charge sheet relates mainly to allegation of the workman's falsely and maliciously complaining to the Chief Inspector of Factories that he was not being paid overtime wages and he was called upon to show cause why he should not be prosecuted under section 59 of the Factories Act. The workman, however, showed cause as per Ext.-F, dated 2nd August 1956, and Ext.-F1, dated 14th June 1957, and his replies are substantial denials of the allegations made in the charge sheets and assertions that he served very satisfactorily and that he was never late in attendance and that he never issued any unauthorised gate passes and that he worked for 16 hours a day for both the shifts. The Manager Shri Sunil Krishna Ghose (O.P.W. 1.) in his deposition before the Court has stated that he duly enquired into the allegations and was satisfied of the charges levelled against this workman and ultimately passed orders dismissing him from service with effect from 17th June 1957. One thing that strikes me in this case is that there are no written proceedings of enquiry into the charges. The Company has, however, produced evidence both oral and documentary in this case on the basis of which the Court has duly considered the charges and on an independent enquiry held by this Court which the Court is entitled to do (vide the case of Vithal Shetty and Chokshi Silk Mills) reported in 1956 L.L.J., Vol. I, pages 132-138) safely pronounce that the Company was quite justified in passing the orders of dismissal in this case and that no prejudice appears to have been caused to the workman by the absence of any written proceedings of enquiry. The absence of written proceedings of enquiry in cases where the workman is not prejudiced in his defence does not affect materially the result of the enquiry. This view has been pronounced in the case of Assam Oil Company v. Appalsami, reported in 1954 L.L.J., Vol. II, page 323, at page 233 where it is laid down as follows:—

> "Rules of procedure are only handmaids of justice and any departure from such rules of procedure laid down in the Standing Orders would not be material, unless it is shown that the workman concerned had materially been prejudiced by the adoption of an irregular procedure."

This case has been referred to in the recent case of Chunilal D. Singrani and B. E. S. T. Undertaking, Bombay, reported in 1958 L.L.J., Vol. I, page 699.

I may in this connexion refer to certain documents which would go to show that this workman was administered several wornings for his late attendance and unpunctuality, vide Exts. A to A3 receipt of which was acknowledged by the workman by Exts. B, B1. Then again, I may refer to the admissions made by the workman in his cross-examination that he did not compile the production register for shift workers while he was working in the B shift and that he did not record the weight of steam coal received from wagons Nos. 11273 and 39725 which he did after receiving the charge sheet. He also admitted that from May 1956 till his dismissal he could not make entries for goods consumed in the Mills as he had no time and that arrears had to be made up by a new man. As a ground of his inability to make up the arrears he has stated in Court for the first time that there were one table and one chair in the mechanical shop but one day he found that the same were removed to the mechanical store and that was locked up. He has also admitted that on 17th July 1956 he did not see the Manager who sent for him through one Purna which is nothing short of indiscipline. Next, the Company has shown that the workman did not issue the overtime slips for overtime wages of some workmen which considerably inconvenienced such workmen as therefore made complaint against him as per Ext. C series (complaints made by Niamat, Haricharan and Samanta). Thus the workman concerned tried to explain away in vain by saying either that he did not receive the overtime slips or that he had no time or that he forgot and so on and so forth. The Company further confronted the workmen while in the box with the allegations that he left his table after signing the attendance register and whiled away his time elsewhere and that he was detected by the Manager sleeping by placing his legs on the table and that he was detected in gossiping in the dispensary and that he issued gate passes without authority to some workmen one or two hours before the scheduled time. So far as the allegation of gossiping at the dispensary is concerned, the workman stated that he had been there to take influenza tablets but the Manager Shri S. K. Ghose in his deposition has stated that he consulted the distribution list for a week and other registers maintained at the dispensary and found that his plea of taking influenza tablets was false as his name did not find mention in the distribution list for seven consecutive days. The Manager has stated further that once he found him sleeping in the pin shop and he also detected him playing on the table as if he were playing on a "Tabla" during duty hours. The Manager has further categorically stated in this Court that the workman never did any overtime work from June to July 1956 and that he (the Manager) never assured the workman that he would get overtime wages, nor that he ever demanded overtime wages. There is the further charge that the workman did not make entries regarding coal receipts for which coal reports could not be forwarded to Government and certain bills could not be prepared. As regards the allegations of his working in both A and B shifts the evidence of Manager is that the workman was working from 6 a.m. to 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. to 5 p.m. in A shift in July 1956 and from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. and from 5 p.m. to 10 p.m. in B shift in August 1956 and that he never worked for 16 hours a day as he tried to make out. In December 1956 he was transferred to A shift and sometimes he was working in A shift and sometimes in B shift and in August 1956 he was working in the B shift and Ram Sankar Choubey was working in the A shift. I have no reason to disbelieve the Manager, nor is there any allegation of enmity between him and the workman. The Manager personally held the enquiry into the second charge sheet when the workman was present. I have carefully considered the charges, his replies and the oral and documentary evidence on record and am convinced that the finding at the domestic enquiry is not vitiated by any element of mala fides or unfair labour practice or perverse finding or any basic error on facts. Therefore the decision of the Management at this enquiry is a possible view and the Court cannot interfere with it.

As regards the punishment, there are decided cases to show that the punishment is in the sole discretion of the Management as laid down in the case of Caltex (India) Ltd., Appellant, v. E. Fernandes and another, Respondents, reported in A.I.R. 1957 S.C., 326 wherein it is laid down as follows:—

> "Once the Industrial Tribunal came to the conclusion in the present case that the enquiry which was conducted by the appellants was fair and no principles of natural justice had been violated in the conduct of the enquiry and the appellants bona fide came to the conclusion that dismissal was the only punishment which should be meted out by them to the first respondent, the Industrial Tribunal had no power to substitute another punishment for the one which was sought to be meted out."

The punishment is also well called for by his past bad record of service and warnings given to him in vain (vide the ruling reported in 1955 L.L.J. Vol. II, page 343, Tungabhadra Industries Ltd. and D. Ranga Reddi).

In the circumstances, the punishment awarded by the Company to the workman, having regard to his past bad record of service, stands and the Court cannot interfere with the punishment.

To sum up, the Manager rightly found the workman guilty of misconduct as per clause 14(c)(vi) (habitual late attendance) and (ix) (habitual negligence or neglect of work) of the Standing Orders of the Company and thus his dismissal is found justified and he is found entitled to no relief.

This is my award.

AWARD

The Government of West Bengal, Labour Department, by order No 2706-I.R./IR/11L-399(A)/57, dated the 25th July 1957, referred under sections 7 and 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (XIV of 1947), the industrial dispute between Messrs. East Bengal Society (Cloth Merchants) Ltd., 218 Harrison Road, Calcutta-7, and two of their employees mentioned in the issue represented by Shop Assistants' Association of Bengal, 7 Padmapukur Road, Calcutta-20, relating to the undernoted issue to this Tribunal for adjudication.

Issue

(1) Are Sarvasri Jagadish Chandra Modak and Haripada Chanda entitled to compensation as provided for under section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act? If so, what will be the amount due to each of them?

Notices were issued on both parties on 14th August 1957, Shri Nikunja Behari Datta, Secretary of Shop Assistants' Association of Bengal, appeared and filed a petition for the Union for three weeks' time to file written statement. Time was granted up to 10th September 1957. On 10th September 1957 the Secretary of the Association appeared and filed a written statement. As the notice upon the Company was returned unserved attempt was made to secure fresh address. After several reminders a letter was received from the Government on 15th October 1958 furnishing the present address of three proprietors of Messrs. East Bengal Society and notices were issued on all the three proprietors of the Company as also on the Union on 6th December 1958 fixing 23rd December 1958 for their appearance. Notice was duly served on the Union but no one appeared for the Union on 23rd December 1958 Notices were served on two of the propritors, namely, Sm. Hironmoyee Modak and Sarada Ranjan Modak who appeared and filed separate petitions stating that they had no concern with the Company since 1955. The notice upon the other proprietor Shri Chittaranjan Modak was not received back after service. The Union did not appear on 23rd December 1958. The case was fixed for hearing on 26th December 1958. On 26th issue preferred to form a branch of the West Bengal Chah Sramik Union with the workmen of the Garden. In the middle of August 1954 Shri Raphael Kuzur and his four associates, viz., Shri Ram Munda, Shri Palhad Kherwar, Shri Mahali Munda and Shri Muta Munda and others organised a meeting of the workers of the Ethelbari Tea Estate with Shri Deben Sarker, Secretary, West Bengal Chah Sramik Union, in the chair with the idea of setting up a branch of the said Union and to discuss various problems of the workmen of the Ethelbari Tea Estate. Soon after the said meeting was held, the Company without assigning any reason, without any charge-sheet and without any scope of defence whatsoever, drove Shri Raphael Kuzur and 11 other workers mentioned in the order of reference out of the Garden on 29th August 1954. The Union made efforts to settle the matter with the Management or to resettle the workers somewhere in the meantime but failed. A dispute was set up by the Union and a conciliation proceeding was started by the Labour Officer, Jalpaiguri. The Company disowned the responsibility of dismissal of the workers by falsely stating that the workmen had left the Garden themselves according to the decision of the Works Committee, the existence of which was challenged The Works Committee has no existence in effect and there was no Resolution of the said body. The dispute has then been referred to the Tribunal The Union prays that the Tribunal should hold that the termination of service of Shri Raphael Kuzur and 11 other workmen specified in the order of reference was unjustified, mala fide and was by way of victimisation and unfair labour practice and that they should be reinstated with all back wages and amenities.

The Company, in its written statement, denies all the allegations of the Union and states that Shri Raphael Kuzur and nine other workmen left the Garden following a domestic quarrel between themselves and some other workers, with which the Company had nothing to do. The Company has no knowledge of any meeting held in the year 1954 at Ethelbari Tea Estate in which Shri Deven Sarker presided. The Company denies the allegations regarding a meeting presided over by Shri Deven Sarker. During August 1954, several meetings were held by the representatives of the workers of the Ethelbari Tea Estate following serious domestic quarrels between two groups. It was alleged by one group that Shri Raphael Kuzur with some other workers committed certain grave misconduct against other workers. The minutes of the meetings thus held by the workers of the Ethelbari Tea Estate were sent to the Labour Officer and other authorities. A meeting was held by a large number of workers of Ethelbari Tea Estate on 29th August 1954, in which Shri Raphael Kuzur along with four other workers, viz., Shri Muta Munda, Shri Mahali Munda, Shri Ram Munda and Shri Palhad Kherwar were present. In this meeting, it was held that Shri Raphael Kuzur and the abovementioned workers were guilty of serious criminal misconduct and these five persons, including Shri Raphael Kuzur admitted their fault and prayed for pardon. The workers assembled at the meeting, however, did not agree to pardon them. At this, Shri Raphael Kuzur and his four associates mentioned above, preferred to leave the Garden forthwith and approached the Company for their dues with the express intention of leaving the Garden on account of the attitude taken by the majority of the workers in the meeting. All dues were paid to Shri Raphael Kuzur and his said associates, who signed their respective receipts and left the service of the Company of their own accord. In the conciliation proceeding that was held by the Labour Officer, Jalpaiguri, the Company submitted the minutes of the proceedings of the meetings abovementioned. The Company denies that it acted with a motive to victimise the said workmen, or that there was any violation of the principles of natural justice or that the workmen in question were wrongfully dismissed. It is, therefore, clear, that Shri Raphael Kuzur and his four associates and the other workmen mentioned in the order of reference, who were members of the families of these four other workers, left the factory of their own accord on receipt of full payment of their dues following a domestic quarrel between the five workers mentioned above and other workers with which the Company had no connection. Long after leaving the services of the Company stated above, Shri Raphael Kuzur and the other workers raised the present claim of reinstatement, which is unjustified and unwarranted on merits. The termination of the services of the workers mentioned in the order of reference was at their own seeking and justified and they are not entitled to any relief.

The point for decision is whether the termination of services of Shri Raphael Kuzur and the other eleven workmen mentioned in Issue No. 1 was justified and if they are entitled to any relief. The Union's case is that the 12 workers mentioned in Issue No. 1, were driven away by the Company without any charge-sheet or any scope of defence or any intimation to the Labour Directorate, because they tried to form a Union and organised a meeting with Shri Deben Sarker, Secretary, West Bengal Chah Sramik Union, in the chair. The Company's case is that Shri Raphael Kuzur and four other workers, being workmen Nos. 1 to 5 mentioned in Issue No. 1, committed misconduct and were taken to task for such misconduct by other workers in a meeting and were not excused by the other workers and Shri Raphael Kuzur and his four associates thereafter preferred to leave the Garden on receiving their dues from the Company. The other seven workers mentioned in Issue No. 1, being Nos. 6 to 12, are only members of the families of the four associates of Shri Raphael Kuzur, who left the Garden with them. It was, therefore, a voluntary abandonment of service by the 12 workers according to the Company's case.

Evidence was adduced by both the parties. P.W. 1 Shri Raphael Kuzur, and P.W. 2 Shri Sorma Munshi deposed for the Union. O.P.W. 1 Dr. Samar Sinha Roy, Resident Medical Officer of the Garden, and O.P.W. 2 Shri Dharani Prosad Bhowmik, the Manager of the Garden, deposed for the Company. Documents Ext. A to Ext. H were marked for the Company.

The twelve workers that are involved in this case include the Second Factory Assistant, Shri Raphael Kuzur, a member of the clerical staff and four members of the subordinate staff, being Shri Muta Munda, Shri Ram Munda, Shri Palhad Kherwar, Shri Mahali Munda. The other seven persons named in the order of reference are ordinary mazdoors and members of the families of the four subordinate staff abovementioned. These workmen may be described as follows:—

	Name.	Designation.	Category.
1.	Shri Raphael Kuzur	Second Factory Assistant.	Clerical staff.
2.	Shri Muta Munda	Head Engine Driver	Sub-staff.
3.	Shri Ram Munda	Oilman	Ditto.
4.	Shri Palhad Kherwar	Electric Man	Ditto.
5.	Shri Mahali Munda	Head Markaman	Ditto.
6.	Shri Samaro	Mazdoor	Wife of No. 5 Shri Mahali Munda.
7.	Shri Balku	Ditto	Nephew of No. 5 Shri Mahali Munda.

	Name.		Designation.		Category.
8.	Shri Saniaro II	.	Mazdoor	..	Daughter of No. 5 Shri Mahali Munda.
9.	Shri Sanichariua	..	Ditto .	..	Husband of No. 8 Saniaro II.
10.	Shri Karmi	..	Ditto ..	..	Wife of No. 4 Shri Palhad Kherwar.
11.	Shri Sudhu	..	Ditto ..	.	Brother in law of No. 3 Shri Ram Munda.
12.	Sari Biran	..	Ditto ..	..	Wife of No. 3 Shri Ram Munda.

The termination of services of these workmen occurred on 29th August 1954. The evidence of O.P.W. 2 Shri Dharani Prosad Bhowmick, Manager of the Garden, who has been in continuous service of the Ethelbari Tea Estate for the last 37 years since 1922, shows that No. 7 Shri Balku, nephew of No. 5 Mahali Munda and No. 11 Shri Sudhu, brother-in-law of No. 3 Shri Ram Munda, were never workers in the Garden. This fact was not pointedly raised in the written statement of the Company, but is supported by the fact that this written statement related the matter of 10 workers including Shri Raphael Kuzur, leaving the Garden on 29th August 1954 under circumstances as stated. The question as to whether Shri Balku and Shri Sudhu were workers in the Garden, whose services were terminated, will not be of much moment, in view of the decision of the issues made herein.

P.W. 1 Shri Raphael Kuzur states that he and the other 11 persons named in the order of reference, were discharged on 29th August 1954 without any charge-sheet, or any letter of discharge. He states that there was no Works Committee in the Garden, and it was not a fact that he assaulted anybody in the Garden, or that the Works Committee sat on judgment over him and his companions, found them guilty, they then asked for pardon of the Works Committee and not being pardoned, they left the Garden on receipt of their dues. The witness further states that meetings are held only for decision of social matters and not criminal offences, as is alleged by the Company in this case. The witness also states that he, his four companions, Shri Muta Munda, Shri Ram Munda, Shri Palhad Kherwar and Shri Mahali Munda, along with the other seven persons, being the members of their families, were loaded in a lorry, taken out of the Garden and left at a distance of six miles on the bank of the river Kalwa. They halted for the whole night and then came to Deben Babu, the General Secretary of the Union. The reason for his discharge as stated is that he and his companions wanted to set up a P.S.P. Union and called Shri Deben Sarker for the purpose. He states that he and his companions were discharged, because they tried to form a Union. In the written statement, the Union states that a meeting was actually held with Shri Deben Sarker in the chair and the workmen in question were driven out of the Garden without any charge-sheet, or any scope of defence on 29th August 1954. The evidence of Shri Kuzur does not clearly show that a meeting was actually held with Shri Deven Sarker in the chair. Shri Kuzur states that he got a salary of Rs. 156 per month and was now getting only Rs. 52 per month in a different Garden. The receipt, Ext. G, shows that Shri Kuzur was paid Rs. 154-14 as his pay for August 1954. It appears in evidence that the other workers were all working in other Gardens in the Karbala and Dhalgaon areas.

The plea of the Company for the termination of the services of Shri Raphael Kuzur and his companions is that there was a quarrel relating to

No. 8 Shri Saniaro II, daughter of No. 2 Shri Muta Munda, Head Engine Driver, who worked as a maid servant in the house of Shri Raphael Kuzur. Shri Raphael Kuzur and his four companions are alleged to have assaulted two other workmen of the Garden, viz., Shri Sukda and Shri Janglu over a question relating to Shri Saniaro II. This caused resentment in a large body of workers, who took up the cause of Shri Sukda and Shri Janglu, and the Works Committee of the Garden, along with a large body of workers, held meetings on the 18th and 29th August 1954, over the matter of assault on Shri Sukda and Shri Janglu. The situation was tense and the general body of workers and the Works Committee decided that Shri Raphael Kuzur and his four companions should leave the Garden forthwith. These five persons with their families apprehended trouble at the hands of the other workers and received payments and left the Garden on 29th August 1954. They were supplied with a lorry as transport by the Manager at their request.

In his cross-examination, P.W. 1 Shri Raphael Kuzur denied the quarrel over Shri Saniaro II. He also denied knowledge of the existence of any one named Sukda in the Garden and denied also the existence of a Works Committee in the Garden during his time. He admitted that he and 11 others got payment of their dues before they left the Garden and admitted the receipt, Ext. G. Ext. G shows receipt of Rs. 140-15 on account of bonus for 1953, and Rs. 154-14 on account of pay for August 1954. Shri Raphael Kuzur received Rs. 295-13 in total. Exts. G(1) to G(4) are the receipts of the four subordinate staff showing payment of their pay for August 1954. The witness states that he did not inform the police after he and the other workers were driven away by the Company, as alleged by him, but made such a statement before the Labour Officer, Jalpaiguri, evoking only the reply that he and his friends should go to the Management and ask for re-employment and if the Management not do anything, he could not be of any help in the matter. It is necessary to note that the conciliation proceeding was held in December 1954, and there was no reference of the dispute till January 1957. Further, in his cross-examination, the witness admitted that Sukda was brother of Janglu, that they were coolies in the Garden, and that they lived jointly with their mother in the Garden. He said that he was not aware if Janglu and Sukda were assaulted by anybody in August 1954, or if there was any meeting by the general body of the workers over such an assault. Ext. H is the notification, dated 28th December 1951, by the Labour Directorate of the Government of West Bengal, publishing the names of the members of the Works Committee of Ethelbari Tea Estate under the signature of Shri S. K. Halder, the then Labour Commissioner. Ext. H shows that P.W. 1 was an elected member of the Works Committee in December 1951. P. W. 2 Somra Oraon was another elected member. The election of a workman's representative lasts for 3 years under Rule 2A(14)(a) of the Bengal Industrial Disputes Rules, 1947. On seeing Ext. H, the witness stated that he did not recollect if he was elected as a member of the Works Committee in 1951, and then stated that he might have been so elected in 1951, but that there was no meeting of the Works Committee after that date. He then finally said that he attended some meetings of the Works Committee near about 1951, and signed on the proceedings and that there was no meeting of the Works Committee in 1954 relating to the assault on Janglu and Sukda. He denied that he and his companions left the Garden of their own accord.

It will thus appear that P.W. 1 Shri Raphael Kuzur while denying the grounds for his leaving the Garden, as alleged by the Company, tried to deny the existence of Sukda, the fact of any assault on Sukda and Janglu, the existence of a Works Committee, or that it held any meetings or that there was any meeting for an assault on Sukda and Janglu. He withdrew the denial as to the existence of Sukda, whom he knew very well and also of the existence of the Works Committee in which he himself was a member.

P.W. 2 Shri Somra Munshi is not in the service of the Company now, as he resigned service on grounds of ill health in December 1954. He says Panchayet meetings are held only with regard to social matters by the senior Munshi and he himself, and that there was no panchayet meetings in August 1954, over Shri Raphael Kuzur and others for assaulting anybody. If he had so assaulted, he and the Burra Munshi would have held a panchayet meeting. In cross-examination, the witness says that he was not aware if there was a Works Committee in the Garden and that he was not a member of the Works Committee and did not attend the Works Committee, of which Ext. B(1) was a record of the minutes of the proceedings. On being confronted with Ext. H, the witness admitted that he was a member of the Works Committee but persisted that he did not attend any meeting of the Works Committee. Ext. B(1) is a record of the minutes of the proceedings of the Works Committee, dated 18th August 1954, and the record shows that Somra Oraon, same as P.W. 2, was present at the meeting. Ext. D(1) being the record of the minutes of the proceedings of the Works Committee meeting on 29th August 1954, shows that Somra Oraon was absent due to illness. It is obvious that the witness made an attempt to suppress the fact of the existence of the Works Committee and his membership therein and was belied by the document, Ext. H.

The evidence of O.P.W. 1 Dr. Samar Sinha Roy, the Resident Medical Officer of the Garden since March 1945, and O.P.W. 2 Shri Dharani Prosad Bhowmick, the Manager of the Garden, who has been Head Clerk, Assistant Manager and Manager since 1922, proved the Company's case. The evidence of these two witnesses was supported in material parts by contemporaneous documents, the genuineness of which was not questioned. The evidence of O.P.W. 2, the Manager, gives the whole story and the circumstances surrounding the abandonment of service by Shri Raphael Kuzur and his companions. The documents, Ext. A to Ext. H, proved the Company's case that Shri Raphael Kuzur and his four companions assaulted Sukda and Janglu and this caused a widespread resentment amongst the workers and in the meetings held on 18th August 1954 and 29th August 1954, the general body of workers decided that these workmen should quit the Garden forthwith. Ext. A is a copy of the letter, dated 20th August 1954, sent by the Manager to the Chairman, Dhalgaon Sub-District D.B.I.T.A., Birpara Tea Estate, stating the story of Shri Raphael Kuzur and his companions harrassing some boys, causing serious resentment for such conduct in some labour leaders and a batch of younger people in the Garden. The Manager states that he was exerting all his influence to persuade the workmen to remain calm and to have the matter enquired by the Works Committee and have the dispute amicably settled. It appears that Shri Mangal Bhagat, Congress M.L.A., who lived in Dhalgaon Bustee, also took up the case of the assaulted boys, who are not named in this letter, but were mentioned in the evidence as Sukda and Janglu. This letter speaks of the meeting on the 18th August in which Shri Kuzur and the four members of the sub-staff were absent. Ext. B(1) is the original and Ext. B is the copy of the record of the minutes of the proceedings of the Works Committee meeting on 18th August 1954, in which the first party was described as Shri Raphael Kuzur and his four companions and the second party as all other members of the Garden labour force. In this document, it is stated that Shri Mahali Munda had a family trouble when Shri Kuzur along with his associates, all in the second party, suspected some members of the second party to have been behind the family trouble, took them to task and harrassed and forced two of the suspects, Sukda and Janglu, to leave the Garden, which they did out of fear. Some members of the second party took a very serious view of the matter against Shri Kuzur for his high-handedness and demanded immediate removal of Shri Kuzur from the Garden. It is further stated that Sukda and Janglu went to Shri Mangal Bhagat, M.L.A., and sought his assistance to have their case decided by him, and Shri Bhagat came to the Garden with them and held this special meeting but the first party did not appear before the meeting to answer the allegation brought against them. A sub-committee was formed with Sukda Oraon, Somra Oraon, Budhu Oraon and Sukra Lohar, to persuade both the parties to come to an amicable settlement of the dispute. Ext. C is a letter, dated 27th August 1954, sent by the Manager of the Garden, to the Officer-in-Charge, Birpara Out-post. It states that there was a hitch between two rival parties in the labour force of the Garden over their family affairs, that the Company was trying to act as mediator in the dispute, but is has not been possible to arrive at an amicable settlement. It also states that if there is an apprehension of the breach of the peace, the Manager will contact the Officer-in-charge for maintenance of law and order. Ext. D(1) is the record of the minutes of the proceedings of the meeting of the Works Committee held on 29th August 1954. In this meeting, Shri Raphael Kuzur, Shri Muta Munda, Shri Ram Munda, Shri Palhad Kherwar and Shri Mahali Munda were present. They have been described as the first party and some members of the labour force as the second party in this document. The document shows that the members present discussed the allegations brought against the first party and all the five men of the first party were found guilty, that they also pleaded guilty to the charges brought against them and begged for pardon, but their prayer was not accepted by the members. It further appears that it was unanimously decided by the members that these five men of the first party should leave the Garden and a copy of that decision was handed over to the Manager and that these five men preferred to leave the Garden forthwith and were actually leaving the Garden. Ext. D is a typed copy of Ext. D(1). Ext. D(1) is the original copy of the minutes of the proceedings signed by the Joint Secretaries of the Works Committee, Shri Sukra Ram and Shri Ramesh Chandra Biswas. Ext. E is the copy of the letter of Shri Deben Sen, General Secretary of the Union, to the Labour Officer, Jalpaiguri, dated 21st September 1954, complaining about the dismissal and forceful eviction of the 12 workmen in question. Ext. E(2), dated 30th September 1954 and Ext. E(3), dated 10th November 1954, are copies of the letters of the Manager of the Garden to the Labour Officer, Jalpaiguri, in reply to his letters. These letters state the facts as detailed in the minutes of the proceedings, Ext. B(1) and Ext. D(1) and stating that the Company did not dismiss the five persons in question and that they left the Garden in obedience to the wishes of the general body of the workmen. Ext. E(4), dated 25th August 1956, is another letter by the Manager to the Regional Labour Officer, Jalpaiguri, on the same subject of the alleged dismissal of the 11 persons in question and the Manager states that they were not dismissed but left the Garden voluntarily at the end of August 1954 following some domestic quarrels with other labourers of the Garden. In this letter, the Manager also replies about the workers' claim of bonus under the Delhi Agreement, which forms the subject matter of Issue No. 3. Ext. F is the minutes of the proceedings of the labourers' mass meeting with the Works Committee on 29th August 1954, in Hindi and Ext. F(1) is the English translation thereof. It shows the substance of the minutes mentioned in Ext. D(1).

Considering all the circumstances as mentioned above, I have no doubt that Ext. A, Ext. B(1), Ext. D(1), Ext. C and Ext. F which are all contemporaneous documents show that Shri Raphael Kuzur and his four companions were not dismissed by the Management and driven away from the Garden, as alleged by the Union, but that there was an allegation against these five persons that they assaulted Sukda and Janglu in connection with the trouble over Shri Saniaro II, daughter of Shri Muta Munda and on account of this allegation, there were mass meetings of the workers along with the members of the Works Committee on 18th August 1954 and 29th August 1954, in which the general body of the workers expressed serious resentment at their conduct and wanted them to leave the Garden forthwith. The evidence further shows that these five persons begged for mercy, but not being excused, took fright and left the Garden forthwith with the members of their families, being the rest of the workmen mentioned in the order of reference. Before they left, they received all their dues from the Management, as shown by Ext. G to Ext. G(4). All the workmen including Shri Raphael Kuzur signed on their receipts. If these workmen had been driven away by the Management by force, nothing prevented them from refusing to sign on the receipts, Ext. G series. It appears from the evidence on record that the Management tried to help these workers as far as practicable, and that is why they supplied them with the transport of a lorry to take them away from the Garden at their request. The evidence on record clearly justifies the truth of the Company's case on the matter of the termination of the services of the workmen in question. The evidence of Shri Raphael Kuzur and Shri Somra Oraon are unworthy of credit, in view of the fact that they tried to suppress salient facts which they had to admit under stress of cross-examination. The learned Advocate for the Union argued that the story of the existing Works Committee was incredible and laid emphasis on the evidence of O.P.W. 1 Dr. Samar Sinha Roy who said that the election to the Works Committee was done by show of hands in a meeting and no voters list was prepared for the purpose. O.P.W. 2 Shri Dharani Prosad Bhowmick stated that a voters list was prepared for the Works Committee election and copies were sent to the Government. The election to the Works Committee is to be done under Rule 2(A) of the Bengal Industrial Disputes Rules, 1947, and there are elaborate provisions laying down the procedure for holding the election. The election is made by a Returning Officer appointed by the Labour Commissioner of the Government of West Bengal. In the face of the Government notification, Ext. K, dated 28th December 1957, publishing the names of the members constituting the Works Committee of the Ethelbari Tea Estate, these questions on the procedure for the election are not relevant to the present proceeding, inasmuch as, the present enquiry is not for setting aside the election on the ground of illegal procedure in the election. In view of the notification, Ext. K, it is to be presumed that the Official Act of the holding of the election was done according to law. This plea is not also supported by evidence in view of the fact that both the witnesses for the Union, in spite of pre-verifications, admitted the existence of the Works Committee. They also admitted that they were members of the Works Committee. Any adverse allegation as to the existence and functioning of the Works Committee in this Tea Garden in 1954, is, therefore, unworthy of acceptance and should be, and is rejected.

The evidence on record does not support the plea that Raphael Kuzur and his companions made an attempt to set up a Union as claimed or they had any union activity in retaliation whereof the management discharged them from service. The evidence shows that the management tried to have the matter between Raphael Kuzur's group and another opposing group of workmen concerning the assault on Sukda and Janglu, settled and formed a sub-committee for that purpose. This fact explains why no charge-sheet was given to Raphael Kuzur and his companions and no enquiry was made on their conduct. The evidence on record proves beyond doubt that the termination of service of the workmen in question was not the result of any victimisation or malafide conduct on the part of the management and also that the workmen in question abandoned their employment under the Company following two meetings of the workmen, along with the Works Committee. The fact that there was silence over the matter for more than two years, and the claim on these two issues was raised along with the claim of bonus in issue No. 3 at the end of 1956, takes away from the bonafides of the Union's story. It appears that all the workmen have settled down in other gardens but Raphael Kuzur has been drawing a much less remuneration than he used to do at Ethelbari. In view of all circumstances and the evidence on record as discussed above, I do not find that the story of the Union as to the termination of the services of the 12 workmen mentioned in issue No. 1 is worthy of acceptance. That being so, it is decided that the termination of services of the workers mentioned in Issue No. 1, being (1) Shri Raphael Kuzur, (2) Shri Muta Munda, (3) Shri Ram Munda, (4) Shri Palhad Kherwar, (5) Shri Mahali Munda, (6) Shri Saniaro, (7) Shri Saniaro II, (8) Shri Sanicharoa, (9) Shri Karmi and (10) Shri Biran, was justified. The Management states that Shri Balku and Shri Sudhu were not their workmen and in view of the decision of the Issue No. 1, the question as to whether they were workers in the Garden does not really arise. Issue No. 1 is answered accordingly. It is clear that in the circumstances, the question of entitlement to any relief or compensation for the workmen mentioned in Issue No. 1 does not arise and Issue No. 2 is answered accordingly.

Issue No. 3: It appears from Ext. 6 that Shri Raphael Kuzur received the bonus for 1953. As his service was terminated at the end of August 1954, he is entitled to bonus for 1954 pro rata for the period of his service during the year. The representative of the Company stated before me that the Company was willing to pay bonus for 1954 pro rata according to the Company's Bonus Scheme to Shri Raphael Kuzur, because the other members of the staff of the Garden got bonus according to the Company's scheme. It is awarded that Shri Raphael Kuzur shall get bonus according to the Company's Scheme pro rata for the period of his service in 1954. This bonus shall be paid according to the same scheme on which the other members of the clerical staff were paid.

As to the four members of the sub-staff, being Shri Muta Munda, Shri Ram Munda, Shri Palhad Kherwar and Shri Mahali Munda, they shall get bonus for 1953 and 1954 on the same scheme as the other members of the subordinate staff were paid for these years.

As to the payment of bonus to the other workmen, being mazdoors, the Company is willing to pay them bonus ex-gratia according to the scheme of payment to the other workmen for 1953 and 1954. It is awarded that the Company shall pay as ex-gratia to these workmen bonus according to the Scheme on which other workers were paid bonus in 1953 and 1954. The entitlement to bonus of the sub-staff and the mazdoors will vary according to the period of their work according to the scheme of bonus payment and, therefore, the question whether Shri Balku and Shri Sudhu were workmen and put in any work during the relevant period does not really arise. If they did not do any work, they will not be entitled to any bonus. If they really did any work, they will be entitled to some bonus according to the scheme of bonus payment. The Scheme of bonus payment for 1953 and 1954 on which payments are to be made to the sub-staff and the workers is the Delhi Bonus Agreement, dated 8th January 1956, and the other workers of these categories were also paid bonus on this scheme.

This Issue is accordingly answered.

In addition to these visits at fixed times the members will pay unexpected visits to the hospitals. Members while paying surprise visit should on arrival at the hospitals immediately contact the Superintendent and in his absence his Deputy before entering the wards. If all the three members of the group are not present, the remaining members can go round without the absentee or absentees, as the case may be. The members constituting the group should inspect the internal arrangements and offer such suggestions regarding the administration of the institution as they think proper.

A visitors' book will be kept in the hospitals in which the recommendations of the Committee will be recorded. The Superintendent will note on the margin the action taken on each recommendation with any other remarks or explanations that he may wish to offer. He will transmit a copy of the entries without delay to the Director of Health Services, West Bengal, for consideration. The Director of Health Services will take such further action as may seem necessary and will bring to the notice of Government any matter which he thinks sufficiently important.

The Committee as a whole will meet at least once a quarter, review the report of the visiting groups and discuss the remedial measures adopted. The Superintendent of the Medical College Hospitals should attend the meetings of the Visiting Committee.

The Committee will send copies of the resolutions passed at their quarterly meetings to the Secretary to the Government of West Bengal, Department of Health, and also to the Director of Health Services who will submit to Government a report of the action taken or proposed to be taken on the points raised in those resolutions.

The members will hold office for three years or until the next reconstitution of the Committee. Visitors' book should be submitted by the Superintendent to Government once every quarter for noting the names of habitual absentees.

(i) The amount of advance will be Rs. 75 or one month's basic pay [as defined under Fundamental Rule 9(21)(a)(i)], whichever is less.

(ii) The advance will be recovered in not more than four equal monthly instalments, the first instalment commencing with the next month's pay bill, i.e., the pay bill of the month following that in which the advance is drawn. The amount of each instalment shall be rounded off to the nearest rupee, any balance being recovered in the last instalment.

(iii) The advance may be granted to non-gazetted Central Government servants in receipt of basic pay not exceeding Rs. 300 per month (including similar categories of staff in Industrial Establishments under the Government of India). The concession is also admissible to the work-charged staff who are entitled to pension or Contributory Provident Fund benefits but not to the staff paid from contingencies.

(iv) The advance should not be granted to temporary staff who are not likely to continue in service for a period of at least six months beyond the month in which the advance is drawn.

(v) The advance is admissible only to those on duty or on leave on average pay or earned leave on full pay at the time the advance is drawn.

(vi) The advance will be admissible only on one occasion in a calendar year for members of each community serving in one establishment. More than one occasion may, however, be fixed for a community, if the competent authority is satisfied that in his opinion it is desirable to do so taking into account the staff composition of his establishment. The "competent authority" for the purpose of fixing the festival occasions will be the Head of Department/Industrial Establishment concerned. Such authorities may fix the festival occasions after taking into consideration the importance attached locally to such festivals and in consultation with recognised associations of staff where such exist.

The sub-offices of an office located at different stations may be treated as separate establishments for this purpose. No member of any establishment shall however be granted more than one such advance in one calendar year.

(vii) A second festival advance should not be sanctioned till the earlier advance sanctioned for the same purpose has not been recovered in full.

(viii) In case a festival falls twice in a calendar year the advance will be admissible only on one occasion.

(ix) The advance shall be drawn and disbursed before the festival in connection with which the advance is sanctioned.

(x) Before the advance is sanctioned to temporary staff, sureties from permanent Government servants or any other form of security considered adequate by the sanctioning authority shall be obtained. The authorities competent to sanction these advances may, at their discretion, dispense with this requirement in the case of temporary staff/workers in Industrial Establishments who have completed 3 years of continuous service and are likely to continue in service till the adjustment of the advance.

2. The authorities competent to sanction these advances will be (i) "Heads of Offices" so declared under paragraph 3 of the General Financial Rules, Volume I, in respect of non-industrial staff and (ii) "Heads of Industrial Establishments" in respect of Industrial workers.

3. These orders supersede any earlier orders providing for similar benefits. The present practice in certain establishments of paying the wages earned up to date, on eve of important festivals, by an ad hoc regulation of the wage period, should in future be discontinued.

4. These advances will, on payment, be debitable to "S—Deposits and advances—Part III—Advances not bearing interest—Departmental Advance—Civil—Objection book advance" or other similar suspense head of account for the establishment concerned.

5. These orders will remain in force till 31st December 1960 unless amended earlier.

6. In so far as the application of these orders to the staff of the Indian Audit and Accounts Department is concerned, these orders issue after consultation with the Comptroller and Auditor-General.
